THE PROPER MASSES OF THE SEASON

FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT

Station at St. Mary Major.

INTROIT. Ad te levavi. Ps. 25.

Onto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee, O let me not be confounded: neither let mine enemies triumph over me: for all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed. Ps. ibid. Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Which ended, Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up is repeated as far as the Psalm.

¶ And this manner of repeating the Introit is to be observed throughout the year.

¶ ¶ Glory be to God on high is not said from this Sunday until the Nativity of our Lord, save upon Feasts.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

A LMIGHTY God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility: that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal. Through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. R7. Amen.

¶ This Collect is to be repeated every day, with the other Collects in Advent, until Christmas Eve, and after it the Collect of St. Mary the Virgin as below. But if Commemoration is to be made of any Feast that may occur, after the Collect of the day is said in the second place the Collect of the Saint, and in the third place that of St. Mary the Virgin, or the above if it has not been said.

, Of St. Mary. COLLECT.

GOD, who didst vouchsafe that thy Word should be made flesh in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary at the message of an Angel: grant to us thy humble servants that we, believing her to be indeed the Mother of God, may by her intercession find favour in thy sight. If it be said in the last place, it is ended as followeth: Through the same Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God: world without end. Ry. Amen.

COLLECT 3. For Church, or Chief Bishop.

¶ On week-days in Advent, when Mass is said of a semi-double Feast, the second Collect is of Advent, and the third of St. Mary. But if Mass be said of a double Feast, after the Collect of the Feast is said that of Advent only. Of simple Feasts occurring in Advent a Commemoration only is made.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans. Rom. 13. 8.

RETHREN: Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this: Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt not bear false witness. Thou shalt not covet: and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saving, namely: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ve on the Lord Iesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

GRADUAL. Ps. 25. For all they that look for thee shall not be ashamed, O Lord. V. Make known to me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths.

Alleluia, alleluia. $\tilde{\mathbb{Y}}$. Ps. 85. Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation. Alleluia.

¶ On the Ferias of Advent, when the Mass of Sunday is said again in the week, Alleluia is not said, nor the verse following, but the Gradual only.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 21. 1.

At that time: When they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives: then sent Jesus two disciples, saying unto them: Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say: The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saving: Tell ve the daughter of Sion: Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way: others cut down branches from the trees. and strawed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saving: Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come into Jerusalem. all the city was moved, saying: Who is this? And the multitude said: This is Jesus the prophet of And Iesus went into the Nazareth of Galilee. temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, and said unto them: It is written: My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves. The Creed is said.

Then is said. Let us bless the Lord, which shall always be done, when Glory be to God on high is not appointed to be said.

¶ Within the week, if Mass be said of the Feria, the Mass of the preceding Sunday is said again, unless a proper mass is appointed.

¶ But whenever in Advent, Lent, Embertide, on Vigils or Rogation days, Mass is said of a double Feast, or of a semi-double occurring, a Commemoration only is made of the Feria. And for Commemoration of the Ferias of Advent, the Collect of the first Sunday is said, unless it be Embertide, for which a proper Collect is appointed.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT

Station at St. Cross in Ierusalem.

INTROIT. Populus Sion. Isa. 30.

PEOPLE of Sion, behold, the Lord is nigh at hand to redeem the nations: and in the gladness of your heart the Lord shall cause his glorious voice to be heard. Ps. 80. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel: thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep. V. Glory be.

Glory be to God on high is not said.

COLLECT.

DLESSED LORD, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them; that, by patience and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ: Who liveth and reigneth.

COLLECT 2 of Advent; 3 of St. Mary.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans. Rom. 15. 4.

DRETHREN: Whatsoever things were written D aforetime were written for our learning: that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one towards another according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ. Wherefore receive ve one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God. to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written: For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name. And again he saith: Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. And again: Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles: and laud him, all ye people. And again: Esaias saith: There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing: that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

GRADUAL. Ps. 50. Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty. V. Gather my saints together unto me: those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 122. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Alleluia.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke.

St. Luke 21. 25.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; men's hearts failing them for fear. and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; when they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Verily I say unto you: This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. I Cor. 4. I.

DRETHREN: Let a man so account of us, as D of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

AT that time: When John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said unto him: Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? Jesus answered and said unto them: Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them: and blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John: What went ye out into the wilderness to see? a reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. AT that time: The Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the Virgin's name was Mary. And the Angel came in unto her, and said: Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the Angel: How shall this be. seeing I know not a man? And the Angel answered and said unto her: The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren: for with God nothing shall be impossible. The Lesson from Isaiah the Prophet. Isa. 45. 1.

THUS saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut. I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron. And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the Lord, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel. For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me. I am the Lord, and there is none else: there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the Lord, and there is none else. I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things. Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth Salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the Lord have created it.

The Lesson from the Song of the Three Children. Song of the Three Children, v. 26.

In those days: The Angel of the Lord came down into the oven together with Azarias and his fellows: and smote the flame of the fire out of the oven, and made the midst of the furnace as it had been a moist whistling wind. And the flame streamed forth above the furnace forty and nine cubits: and it passed through, and burned those Chaldeans it found about the furnace. And the fire touched the three not at all; neither hurt, nor troubled them. Then they, as out of one mouth, praised, glorified, and blessed God in the furnace, saying:

Here Thanks be to God is not said.

HYMN. Ibid.

BLESSED art thou, O Lord God of our fathers.

And to be praised and magnified above all for ever.

And blessed is thy glorious and holy Name. And to be praised and magnified above all for ever.

- Blessed art thou in the temple of thy holy glory.

 And to be praised and magnified above all for ever.
- Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy kingdom. And to be praised and magnified above all for ever.
- Blessed art thou in the sceptre of thy Godhead. And to be praised and magnified above all for ever.
- Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths, and sittest upon the Cherubims. And to be praised and magnified above all for ever.
- Blessed art thou that walkest on the wings of the winds, and on the waves of the sea. And to be praised and magnified above all for ever.
- Let all thine Angels and Saints bless thee. And praise thee and magnify thee above all for ever.
- Let the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all that in them is, bless thee. And praise thee and magnify thee above all for ever.
- Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. And worthy to be praised and magnified above all for ever.
- As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. And worthy to be praised and magnified above all for ever.

The Lesson from the latter EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians. 2 Thess. 2. I.

BRETHREN: We beseech you, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him: that ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.

At that time the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to John to ask him: Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith: I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered: No. Then said they unto him: Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said: I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness: Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him: Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet? John answered them, saying: I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not; He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing. The Creed is said.

AT that time: There went out a decree from A Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governour of Syria: and all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem: because he was of the house and lineage of David; to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the Angel of the Lord came upon them: and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the Angel said unto them: Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people: for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Creed.

A 40 The Nativity of our Lord

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Hebrews. Heb. 1. 1.

OD, who at sundry times and in divers manners I spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets: hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things. by whom also he made the worlds: who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins. sat down on the right hand of the majesty on high; being made so much better than the Angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. For unto which of the Angels said he at any time: Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again: I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith: And let all the Angels of God worship him. And of the Angels he saith: Who maketh his Angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. But unto the Son he saith: Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom: thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity: therefore God. even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. And: Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands: they shall perish, but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment: and as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed; but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

H The Beginning of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John I. I.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, that all men through him might believe. He was not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light. That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his Name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. (Here genuflect.) And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. The Creed is said.

AT that time: Jesus said unto the scribes and Pharisees: Behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify: and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city: that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you: All these things shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee: how often would I have gathered thy children together. even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you: Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ve shall say: Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. THAT which was from the beginning, which we I have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the word of life; (for the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;) that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Jesus Christ. And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you: That God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth; but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: and they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders; and no man could learn that song, but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. These are they which were not defiled with women, for they are virgins: these are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth: these were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God, and to the Lamb. And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. THE birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the Angel of the Lord, appeared unto him in a dream, saving: Joseph thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost: and she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for he shall save his people from their sins. (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying: Behold, a Virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.) For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers having itching ears: and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans. Rom. 4. 8.

BRETHREN: Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised: that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: and the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

At that time: It came to pass, as the Angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another: Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them. OCTAVE OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS

Mass as on the Feast, with Preface of Christmas, but no other Commemoration of it. Glory be to God on high, Alleluia with its verse, and Depart in peace, are said. The Creed is not said.

¶ From the Vigil of the Epiphany until the Feast of the Purification inclusive, when the Prayers of Saint Mary, or for the Church or Chief Bishop, are directed to be said, then they shall be those which are set forth above for December 30th, pages A 58 and A 59.

January 5th.

THE VIGIL OF THE EPIPHANY

INTROIT. Dum medium. Wisdom 18.

I THILE all things were in quiet silence, and night was in the midst of her swift course, thine almighty Word, O Lord, leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne. Ps. 93. The Lord is king, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel and girded himself with strength. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to govern us in all our doings in the way of thy good pleasure: that we, faithfully serving thee in the Name of thy well-beloved Son, may worthily abound in all good works. Through the same.

tutors and governors, until the time appointed of the father. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: but when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying: Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son: and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

GRADUAL. Ps. 45. Thou art fairer than the children of men: full of grace are thy lips. \mathring{V} . My heart is inditing of a good matter, I speak of the things which I have made unto the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Alleluia, alleluia. \tilde{V} . Ps. 93. The Lord is king and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel and girded himself with strength. Alleluia.

At that time: When Herod was dead, behold, an Angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying: Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: and he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets: He shall be called a Nazarene. The Creed is said.

INTROIT. Ecce advenit. Mal. 3.

BEHOLD, he appeareth, the Lord and Ruler: and in his hand the kingdom, and power, and dominion. Ps. 72. Give the King thy judgments, O God: and thy righteousness unto the King's Son. V. Glory be.

GOD, who by the leading of a star didst manifest thy only-begotten Son to the Gentiles: mercifully grant, that we, which know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Godhead. Through the same.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians. Ephes. 3. 1.

BRETHREN: For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles; if ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward, how that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery, (as I wrote afore in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ, which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men) as it is now revealed unto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit; that the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the Gospel: whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ. To the intent, that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the Church the manifold wisdom of God, according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: in whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

GRADUAL. Is. 60. All they from Saba shall come, bringing gold and incense, and shall shew forth the praises of the Lord. $\mathring{\mathbb{V}}$. Arise and shine, O Jerusalem: for the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew.

St. Matt. 2. 1.

WHEN Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea, in the days of Herod the king: behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saving: Where is he that is born King of the Tews? For we have seen his star in the east: and are come to worship him. When Herod the king had heard these things: he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them, where Christ should be born. And they said unto him: In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet: And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor that shall rule my people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said: Go, and search diligently for the young child: and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. When they had heard the king, they departed: and lo, the star which they saw in the east went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother (here genuflect), and fell down and worshipped him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod: they departed into their own country another wav.

The Creed is said.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 72. The kings of Tharsis and of the isles shall give presents: the kings of

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to look upon the oblations of thy Church: wherein no longer offering gold and frankincense and myrrh, we sacrifice and receive him who by those gifts was mystically signified, even Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans. Rom. 12. 1.

RETHREN: I beseech you by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think: but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another: in Christ Iesus our Lord.

OW the parents of Jesus went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. And when Jesus was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, after the custom of the feast. when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem. And Joseph and his mother knew not of it. But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey: and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him. And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him: Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? Behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them: How is if that ye sought me? Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And

And Jesus saith unto him: See thou tell no man, but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded for a testimony unto them. And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion beseeching him, and saying: Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus saith unto him: I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said:

When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed: Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: but the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power resisteth the ordinance of God. And they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same. For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid. for he beareth not the sword in vain. For he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For for this cause pay ye tribute also, for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. And he saith unto them: Why are ve fearful, O ve of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. But the men marvelled, saving: What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him? And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. And behold, they cried out, saying: What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? Art thou come hither to torment us before the time? And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine, feeding. So the devils besought him, saying: If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them: Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters. And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils. DRETHREN: Put on therefore, as the elect of D God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering: forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any. Even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body: and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ve do, in word or deed, do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father through Jesus Christ our Lord.

sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came, and said unto him: Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? From whence then hath it tares? He said unto them: An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him: Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said: Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares: ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers: Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

DEARLY beloved: Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God: and it doth not yet appear what we shall be. But we know, that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure. Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins: and in him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. Little children, let no man deceive you. He that doeth righteousness is righteous: even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders: insomuch that (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very elect. Behold, I have told you before. Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert: go not forth. Behold, he is in the secret chambers: believe it not. For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be. For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together. Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light: and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven, and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn. And they shall see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory. The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 20. 1.

AT that time: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: The kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour. and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and said unto them: Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them: Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him: Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them: Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ve receive. So when even was come. the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward: Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, saying: These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. But he answered one of them, and said: Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first,

BRETHREN: Ye suffer fools gladly: seeing ye yourselves are wise. For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold (I speak foolishly), I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; in journeyings often; in perils of waters; in perils of robbers; in perils by mine own countrymen; in perils by the heathen; in perils in the city; in perils in the wilderness; in perils in the sea; in perils among false brethren; in weariness and painfulness; in watchings often; in hunger and thirst; in fastings often; in cold and nakedness. Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 8. 4.

At that time: When much people were gathered together, and were come to Jesus out of every city, he spake by a parable: A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried: He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples asked him, saying: What might this parable be? And he said: Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

DRETHREN: Though I speak with the tongues Of men and of Angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge: and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity. I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. suffereth long, and is kind: charity envieth not, charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth: beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glass, darkly: but then face to face. Now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

St. Luke 18. 31.

T that time: Jesus took unto him the twelve, and said unto them: Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on: and they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things: and this saving was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken. And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Tericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging: and hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant. And they told him: that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. And he cried, saying: Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more: Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, saying: What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said: Lord, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him: Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

THE FIRST DAY OF LENT COMMONLY CALLED ASH WEDNESDAY

Before Mass shall be blessed ashes made of branches of olive or other trees blessed in the year foregoing; and the blessing shall be done in this manner:

¶ The office being said, the Priest, wearing a purple cope, or without a chasuble (the Ministers being vested in like manner), shall go to bless the ashes, which shall be set in a vessel on the Altar. And first the choir shall sing the Antiphon following.

Ps. 69.

HEAR me, O Lord, for thy loving-kindness is comfortable: turn thee unto me according to the multitude of thy mercies.

Ps. ibid. Save me, O God, for the waters are come in even unto my soul.

Then shall be repeated the Antiphon Hear me.

Then the Priest, standing at the Epistle corner without turning to the people, and with hands joined (which shall be observed in like manner in the prayers appointed for all blessings) shall say:

V. The Lord be with you.

R7. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

PRAYER.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, we beseech thee to spare them that are penitent, and to be favourable to them that call upon thee. Vouchsafe, we pray thee, to send thy holy Angel from heaven to blyess and sancy tify these ashes, that they may be a wholesome medicine to all them that humbly call upon thy holy Name, who in their consciences by sin are accused, who in the sight of thy heavenly mercy bewail their sins, and earnestly and meekly implore thy gracious loving-kindness. And we beseech thee to grant to all them that call upon thy holy Name, that being sprinkled with these ashes for the remission of their sins, they may be preserved evermore both in body and soul. Through Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

Let us pray.

GOD, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but rather that he should turn from his wickedness and live: we beseech thee to have compassion on the frailty of our mortal nature, and of thy goodness to bletess these ashes now to be set upon our heads for a token of humility and for the remission of our sins: that we, acknowledging ourselves to be but dust and ashes, and that by reason of our vileness we must return unto the same, may of thy mercy be found worthy to obtain the pardon of our offences and the reward that thou dost promise to them that are penitent. Through Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

Let us pray.

GOD, who turnest unto them that abase themselves and art favourable unto them that offer atonement: incline thy merciful ear unto our prayers; and of thy pity pour forth upon the heads of thy servants now sprinkled with these ashes the grace of thy heavenly benediction: that they being filled with the spirit of true repentance may effectually obtain those things that they have asked according to thy will. And we beseech thee to ordain that we, being stablished in these thy blessings, may cleave unto the same to life everlasting. Through Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who upon the people of Nineveh, repenting in dust and ashes, didst bestow the healing of thy loving-kindness: mercifully grant, that we, who now do imitate them in outward fashion, may be made like unto them in the obtaining of thy pardon. Through.

¶ Then shall the Priest, setting incense in the censer, sprinkle the ashes thrice with holy water, saying the Antiphon Thou shalt purge, without singing and not saying the Psalm; and he shall cense them thrice.

Thereafter the first of the Priests that are present shall draw near to the Altar and set ashes on the head of the Celebrant, who shall not genuflect. But if none be present, the Celebrant himself, kneeling afore the Altar, shall set ashes on his own head, saying nothing. And forthwith the Choir shall sing the Antiphon.

Joel 2. Let us change our raiment for sackcloth and ashes: let us fast and mourn before the Lord: for our God is merciful to forgive us our sins.

Another Antiphon. Ibid. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say: Spare, O Lord, spare thy people, and shut not up, O Lord, the mouths of them that praise thee.

Then shall follow this Respond.

Esther 13. Joel 2. Let us amend the sins that in our ignorance we have committed: lest the day of death come upon us suddenly, and we find no place for repentance though we seek it. * Hear, Lord, and have mercy, for we have sinned against thee.

V. Glory be. Hear, Lord.

¶ And the Priest, while the Antiphon and Respond are in singing, with his head uncovered, shall first set ashes on the head of the first of the Priests from whom he received them, and then upon the ministers being vested and kneeling afore the Altar. And he shall say:

Genesis 3. Remember, O man, that dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

¶ Then shall the rest draw near, first the Bishops, Priests and Deacons, according to their order, and after that the people; and all, meekly kneeling before the Altar, shall receive the ashes from the Priest after the manner appointed for the Ministers. And when all the ashes have been delivered, the Priest shall say:

▼. The Lord be with you.
R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

GRANT, we beseech thee, O Lord, that we, who now with prayer and fasting do put upon us the armour of our Christian warfare, being defended by the power of abstinence, may fight manfully against all spiritual wickedness. Through Christ our Lord. Ry. Amen.

AT THE MASS

INTROIT. Misereris omnium. Wisdom 11.

THOU hast mercy upon all, O Lord, and abhorrest nothing which thou hast made, and winkest at the sins of men, because they should amend, and sparest them: for thou art the Lord our God. Ps. 57. Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent: create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness. Through.

¶ From this day until Passion Sunday these two Prayers that follow are read after the Collect of the day, except when the above Collect is read after the one appointed for the day, and then one only of these prayers shall be said.

To ask the prayers of the Saints. COLLECT.

DEFEND us, O Lord, we beseech thee, from all dangers both of body and soul: and at the intercession of the blessed and glorious ever-Virgin Mary, Mother of God, of blessed Joseph, of thy holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed [George] and of all thy Saints, grant us thy saving health and peace; that being defended from all adversities and all false doctrines, thy Church may serve thee in freedom and quietness. (Through the same.)

For the quick and dead. COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast dominion both of the quick and of the dead, who likewise hast mercy upon all men, whom by reason of their faith and works thou hast foreknown: we commend unto thee all those for whom we now do offer our prayers, whether in this world they still be held in the bonds of the flesh, or being delivered therefrom have passed into that which is to come; beseeching thee that at the intercession of all thy Saints they may of thy bountiful goodness obtain the remission of all their sins. Through.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Joel the Prophet.

Joel 2. 12.

TURN ye even unto me, saith the Lord, with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Who knoweth if he will return, and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering and a drink-offering unto the Lord your God? Blow the trumpet in Sion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breast: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say: Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them. Wherefore should they say among the people: Where is their God?

GRADUAL. Ps. 57. Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee. $\hat{\mathbb{V}}$. He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproof of him that would eat me up.

TRACT. Ps. ro3. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins: nor reward us according to our wickednesses. \tilde{V} . Ps. 79. Lord, remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us, and that soon: for we are come to great misery. \tilde{V} . (Here genuflect.) Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name, O Lord: O deliver us and be merciful unto our sins, for thy Name's sake.

¶ And this Tract is said from to-day on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays until Monday in Holy Week, unless a proper Tract be appointed.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 6. 16.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: When ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face, that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father, which seeth in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through and steal. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 30. I will magnify thee, O Lord, for thou hast set me up, and not made my foes to triumph over me: O Lord, my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

SECRET.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord, that like as we do by these our oblations bring to remembrance the institution of this holy Sacrament, so we may by thee be enabled to offer the same according to thy will. Through.

OTHER SECRETS, UNTIL PASSION SUNDAY. Of the Saints.

RACIOUSLY hear us, O God of our salvation, and by the power of this Sacrament defend us from all dangers both of body and soul: granting us in this world the succour of thy grace, and in the world to come life everlasting. (Through.)

For the Quick and Dead.

GOD, to whom alone is known the number of thine elect, whom thou hast chosen to set in eternal felicity: grant, we beseech thee, that at the intercession of all thy Saints the names of all them that are commended to our prayers and of all thy faithful people may be found written in the book of them that are ordained to everlasting blessedness. Through.

PREFACE OF LENT . . . who by bodily fasting.

Which Preface is said daily until Passion Sunday, even upon Feasts, unless a proper Preface is appointed for them.

COMMUNION. Ps. 1. He who doth meditate on the law of the Lord day and night will bring forth his fruit in due season.

POSTCOMMUNION.

W E beseech thee, Lord, mercifully to protect us who have now received this holy Sacrament: that this our fast may be acceptable in thy sight and profitable unto us for the healing of our souls. Through.

OTHER POSTCOMMUNIONS.

Of the Saints.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord, that the gifts now offered by us in these holy mysteries may evermore cleanse and defend us: that at the intercession of the blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, of blessed Joseph, of thy holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed [George] and of all thy Saints, we may be absolved from all our offences and defended against all adversities. (Through the same.)

For the Quick and Dead.

LMIGHTY and most merciful God, cleanse us, we pray thee, by the Sacrament which we have received: and at the intercession of all thy Saints grant that this holy Communion may bring upon us not guilt to our damnation but pardon to our salvation; that it may cleanse the guilty and confirm the feeble, that it may strengthen us against every danger in this world, and obtain for thy faithful people both quick and dead the remission of all their sins. Through, ¶ Then shall the Priest say, Let us pray, without saluting the people. And the Deacon, if any be ministering in the office of Deacon, shall turn about to the people with hands joined and say Bow down before the Lord. Else shall the Priest himself say thus, standing in the same place afore the book and not turning about to the people.

COLLECT.

TOOK down in mercy, O Lord, upon us now kneeling before thy majesty: that we which have been partakers of thy heavenly gifts may evermore be strengthened with thy heavenly succour. Through.

¶ And this manner of saying the Prayer over the People is to be observed, in ferial Masses only, until the Wednesday in Holy Week.

Afterwards. V. Let us bless the Lord. Ry. Thanks be to God.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Isaiah the Prophet.

Isaiah 38. 1.

In those days: Hezekiah was sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him: Thus saith the Lord: Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the Lord, and said: Remember now, O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. Then came the word of the Lord to Isaiah, saying: Go, and say to Hezekiah: Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father: I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city, saith the Lord Almighty.

GRADUAL. Ps. 55. O cast thy burden upon the Lord: and he shall nourish thee. V. When I cried unto the Lord he heard my voice, from the battle that was against me.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 8. 5.

AT that time: When Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, and saying: Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Iesus saith unto him: I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said: Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man: Go, and he goeth; and to another: Come, and he cometh; and to my servant: Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed: Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say unto you: That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion: Go thy way; and Isaiah 58. 1.

THUS saith the Lord God: Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours. Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day,

A 124 Friday after Ash Wednesday to make your voice to be heard on high. Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free. and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the Lord shall be thy rereward. Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say: Here I am. For I, the Lord thy God, am merciful.

TRACT. Ps. 103. O Lord, deal not as on Ash Wednesday.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 5. 43.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Ye have heard that it hath been said: Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you: Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth : that thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

on the land. And he saw his disciples toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out: for they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them: Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered. For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened. And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore. And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, and ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. V. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. V. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day: for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noonday. V. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. V. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. V. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. V. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. V. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name. V. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. V. I will deliver him and bring him to honour; with long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 4. 1.

AT that time: Jesus was led up of the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an-hungred. And when the tempter came to him, he said: If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But he answered and said: It is written: Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, and saith unto him: If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down; for it is written: He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him: It is written again: Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and saith unto him: All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him: Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written: Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God. and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, Angels came and ministered unto him.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Mhen the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy Angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand: Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was an hungred, and ve gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ve came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying: Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them: Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ve have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand: Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it: saith the Lord Almighty.

The Lesson from the book of Exodus.

Exod. 24. 12.

N those days: The Lord said unto Moses: Come I up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them unto the children of Israel. And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God. And he said unto the elders: Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them. And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount. And the glory of the Lord abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud. And the sight of the glory of the Lord was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel. And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the former book of the Kings.

1 Kings 19. 3.

I N those days: Elijah came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said: It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold. then an Angel touched him, and said unto him: Arise and eat. And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again. And the Angel of the Lord came again the second time, and touched him, and said: Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee. And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the mount of God.

TRACT. Ps. 25. O bring thou me out of my troubles, O Lord: look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sin. \mathring{V} . The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 12. 38.

AT that time: Certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered Jesus, saying: Master, we would see a sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them: An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas: for as Ionas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith: I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation. While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. Then one said unto him: Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him: Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said: Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying: Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said: I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped him, saying: Lord, help me. But he answered and said: It is not meet to take the children's bread. and to cast it to dogs. And she said: Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Ezekiel the Prophet. Ezek. 18. 20.

THUS saith the Lord God: The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live. Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live? But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. Yet ye say: The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal? When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die, saith the Lord Almighty.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 5. 1.

At that time: There was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. For an Angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Iesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him: Wilt thou be made whole? The impotent man answered him: Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. Jesus saith unto him: Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked; and on the same day was the sabbath. The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured: It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. He answered them: He that made me whole, the same said unto me: Take up thy bed, and walk. Then asked they him: What man is that which said unto thee: Take up thy bed, and walk? And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him: Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 17. 1.

AT that time: Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, and was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him. Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus: Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. While he yet spake, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said: This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them, and said: Arise, and be not afraid. And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying: Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

I Thess. 4. I.

RETHREN: We beseech you, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus: that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication, that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such. as we also have forewarned you and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saving: Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said: I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped him, saying: Lord, help me. But he answered and said: It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said: Truth, Lord; yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. The rich man also died, and was buried: and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said: Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said: Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. In those days: Joseph said unto his brethren: Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed: For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf. And his brethren said to him: Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words. And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said: Behold. I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him: What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth? And his brethren envied him: but his father observed the saving. And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. And Israel said unto Joseph: Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him: Here am I. And he said to him: Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks: and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying: What seekest thou? And he said: I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks. And the man said: They are departed hence: for I heard them say: Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan. And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him. And they said one to another: behold, this dreamer cometh. Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him in some pit, and we will say: Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we will see what will become of his dreams. And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands: and said: Let us not kill him. And Reuben said: Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him: that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 21. 33.

At that time: Jesus spake this parable unto the multitudes of the Jews and the chief priests: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country: and when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. But last of all he sent unto them his son, saving: They will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves: This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? They say unto him: He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons. Iesus saith unto them: Did ye never read in the scriptures: The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Therefore I say unto you: The kingdom of God shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it shall grind him to powder. And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Genesis. Gen. 27. 6.

IN those days: Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying: Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying: Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the Lord before my death. Now, therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command thee. Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth: and thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death. And Jacob said to Rebekah, his mother: Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man: my father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver: and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. And his mother said unto him: Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them. And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved. And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son

Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son: and she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck: and she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob. And he came unto his father, and said: My father: and he said: Here am I; who art thou, my son? And Jacob said unto his father: I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me. And Isaac said unto his son: How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said: Because the Lord thy God brought it to me. And Isaac said unto Jacob: Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not. And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said: The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him. And he said: Art thou my very son Esau? And he said: I am. And he said: Bring it near to me. and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank. And his father Isaac said unto him: Come near now, and kiss me, my son. And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said: See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the Lord hath blessed: therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine: let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee. And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father: Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me. And Isaac his father said unto him: Who art thou? And he said: I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau. And Isaac trembled very exceedingly, and said: Who? where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed. And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father: Bless me, even me also, O my father. And he said: Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing. And he said: Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said: Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me? And Isaac answered and said unto Esau: Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants: and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son? And Esau said unto his father: Hast thou but one blessing for me, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 15. 11.

AT that time Jesus spake this parable unto the scribes and Pharisees: A certain man had two sons, and the younger of them said to his father: Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land: and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said: How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him: Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him: Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants: Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him: and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: and bring hither the fatted calf and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing. And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him: Thy brother is come: and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him. And he answering said to his father: Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me at any time a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: but as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him: Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for thy brother was dead, and is alive again: and was lost, and is found.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians. Eph. 5. 1.

DRETHREN: Be ye therefore followers of God. D as dear children; and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh saints: neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks; for this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ, and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them: for ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light; (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth;) proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them: for it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith: Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

GRADUAL. Ps. 9. Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. \tilde{V} . While mine enemies are driven back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

TRACT. Ps. 123. Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens. \mathring{V} . Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters. \mathring{V} . And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us. \mathring{V} . Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 11. 14.

AT that time: Jesus was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. But some of them said: He casteth out devils through Beelzebub, the chief of the devils. And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them: Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say, that I cast out devils through Beelzebub. And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with the finger of God, cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed, keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none. he saith: I will return unto my house whence I And when he cometh, he findeth it came out. swept and garnished. Then goeth he and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in, and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him: Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked. But he said: Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the latter Book of the Kings. 2 Kings 5. 1.

TN those days: Naaman, captain of the host of I the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the Lord had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper. And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid: and she waited on Naaman's wife. And she said unto her mistress: Would God, my Lord, were with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy. And one went in, and told his lord, saying: Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel. And the king of Syria said: Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saving: Now when this letter is come unto thee. behold. I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy. And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said: Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me. And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying: Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel. So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saving: Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean. But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said: Behold, I thought, he will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the Lord his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said: My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee: Wash, and be clean? Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came and stood before him: and he said: Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel.

Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country. And he said: Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted n his own country. But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land; but unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian. And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, and rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong. The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the latter Book of the Kings. 2 Kings 4. 1.

TN those days: A certain woman cried unto I Elisha the prophet, saying: Thy servant, my husband, is dead: and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the Lord: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen. And Elisha said unto her: What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said: Thine handmaid hath not anything in the house, save a pot of oil. Then he said: Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels: borrow not a few. And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full. So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out. And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son: Bring me vet a vessel. And he said unto her: There is not a vessel more. And the oil staved. Then she came and told the man of God. And he said: Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt: and live thou and thy children of the rest.

Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ve shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ve shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I in the midst of them. Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's. And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off. And they said unto Moses: Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die. And Moses said unto the people: Fear not, for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not. And the people stood afar off. and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was. And the Lord said unto Moses: Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel: Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven. T that time: There came unto Jesus scribes A and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying: Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they eat bread with unwashen hands. But he answered and said unto them: Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? For God commanded, saving: Honour thy father and mother. And: He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. But ve say: Whosoever shall say to his father or mother: It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me: and honour not his father or mother, he shall be free. Thus have ve made the commandment of God of none effect by vour tradition. Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying: This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips: but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. And he called the multitude, and said unto them: Hear, and understand: not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth. this defileth a man. And Jesus said: Are ye also yet without understanding? Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. Trust ye not in lying words, saying: The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, are these. For if ye throughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye throughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour: if ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt: then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers for ever and ever: saith the Lord Almighty.

AT that time: Jesus arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever: and they besought him for her. And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever: and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them. Now when the sun was setting, all they, that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them unto him: and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying: Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. And when it was day, he departed, and

In those days: The children of Israel gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and chode with Moses, and spake, saying: Give us water to drink. together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ve unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink. And Moses took the rod from before the Lord, as he commanded him. And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them: Hear now, ve rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron: Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them.

St. John 4. 5.

AT that time: Jesus cometh to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar: near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well.

A 206 Friday after 3rd Sunday in Lent

And it was about the sixth hour. There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her: Give me to drink. (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.) Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him: How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. Jesus answered and said unto her: If thou knewest the gift of God. and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. The woman saith unto him: Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep; from whence then hast thou that living water? Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle? Tesus answered and said unto her: Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. The woman saith unto him: Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw. Jesus saith unto her: Go. call thy husband, and come hither. The woman answered and said: I have no husband. said unto her: Thou hast well said, I have no husband: for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly. The woman saith unto him: Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Jesus saith unto her: Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ve shall neither in this mountain, nor vet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ve know not what; we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Iews. But the hour cometh, and now is when the true worshippers shall worship him in spirit and in truth. The woman saith unto him: I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Iesus saith unto her: I that speak unto thee am he. And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said: What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her? The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men: Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? Then they went out of the city, and came unto him. In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying: Master, eat. But he said unto them: I have meat to eat that ye know not of. Therefore said the disciples one to another: Hath any man brought him ought to eat? Jesus saith unto them: My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you: Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. And herein is that saving true: One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours. And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified: He told me all that ever I did. So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days. And many more believed because of his own word; and said unto the woman: Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Story of Susanna.

The Story of Susanna.

In those days: There dwelt a man in Babylon, called Joacim: and he took a wife, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, a very fair woman, and one that feared the Lord. Her parents also were righteous, and taught their daughter according to the law of Moses. Now Joacim was a great rich man, and had a fair garden joining unto his house: and to him resorted the Jews; because he was more honourable than all others. The same year were appointed two of the ancients of the people to be judges, such as the Lord spake of, that wickedness came from Babylon from ancient judges, who seemed to govern the people. These kept much at Joacim's house: and all that had any suits in law came unto them. Now when the people departed away at noon, Susanna went into her husband's garden to walk. And the two elders saw her going in every day, and walking; so that their lust was inflamed toward her. And they perverted their own mind, and turned away their eves, that they might not look unto heaven, nor remember just judgments. And albeit they both were wounded with her love, yet durst not one shew another his grief. For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to have to do with her. Yet they watched diligently from day to day to see her. And the one said to the other: Let us now go home: for it is dinner time. So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning back again they came to the same place; and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust: then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone. And it fell out, as they watched a fit time, she went in as before with two maids only, and she was desirous to wash herself in the garden: for it was hot. And there was no body there save the two elders, that had hid themselves, and watched her. Then she said to her maids: Bring me oil and washing balls, and shut the garden doors, that I may wash me. And they did as she bade them, and shut the garden doors, and went out themselves at privy doors to fetch the things that she had commanded them: but they saw not the elders, because they were hid. Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders rose up, and ran unto her, saying: Behold, the garden doors are shut, that no man can see us. and we are in love with thee; therefore consent unto us, and lie with us. If thou wilt not, we will bear witness against thee, that a young man was with thee: and therefore thou didst send away thy maids from thee. Then Susanna sighed, and said: I am straitened on every side: for if I do this thing. it is death unto me: and if I do it not, I cannot escape your hands. It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than to sin in the sight of the Lord. With that Susanna cried with a loud voice: and the two elders cried out against her. Then ran the one, and opened the garden door. So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at a privy door, to see what was done unto her. But when the elders had declared their matter, the servants were greatly ashamed: for there was never such a report made of Susanna. And it came to pass the next day, when the people were assembled to her husband Joacim, the two elders came also full of mischievous imagination against Susanna to put her to death; and said before the people: Send for Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, Joacim's wife. And so they sent. So she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred. Now Susanna was a very delicate woman, and beauteous to behold. And these wicked men commanded to uncover her face (for she was covered) that they might be filled with her beauty. Therefore her friends and all that saw her wept. Then the two elders stood up in the midst of the people, and laid their hands upon her head. And she weeping looked up toward heaven; for her heart trusted in the Lord. And the elders said: As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden doors, and sent the maids away. Then a young man, who there was hid, came unto her, and lay with her. Then we that stood in a corner of the garden, seeing his wickedness, ran unto them. And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold: for he was stronger than we, and opened the door, and leaped out. But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us: these things do we testify. Then the assembly believed them, as those that were the elders and judges of the people: so they condemned her to death. Then Susanna cried out with a loud voice. and said: O everlasting God, that knowest the secrets, and knowest all things before they be: thou knowest that they have borne false witness against me, and, behold, I must die: whereas I never did such things as these men have maliciously invented against me. And the Lord heard her voice. Therefore when she was led to be put to death, the Lord raised up the holy spirit of a young youth, whose name was Daniel: who cried with a loud voice: I am clear from the blood of this woman. Then all the people turned them toward him, and said: What mean these words that thou hast spoken? So he standing in the midst of them said: Are ye such fools, ye sons of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth ye have condemned a daughter of Israel? Return again to the place of judgment: for they have borne false witness against her. Wherefore all the people turned again in haste, and the elders said unto him: Come, sit down among us, and shew it us, seeing God hath given thee the honour of an elder. Then said Daniel unto them: Put these two aside one far from another, and I will examine them. So when they were put asunder one from another. he called one of them, and said unto them: O thou that art waxen old in wickedness, now thy sins which thou hast committed aforetime are come to light: for thou hast pronounced false judgment, and hast condemned the innocent, and hast let the guilty go free; albeit the Lord saith: The innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay. Now then, if thou hast seen her, tell me: Under what tree sawest thou them companying together? Who answered: Under a mastick tree. And Daniel said: Very well; thou hast lied against thine own head; for even now the Angel of God hath received the sentence of God to cut thee in two. So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said unto him: O thou seed of Chanaan, and not of Tuda, beauty hath deceived thee, and lust hath perverted thine heart. Thus have ye dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for fear companied with you: but the daughter of Juda would not abide your wickedness. Now therefore tell me: Under what tree didst thou take them companying together? Who answered: Under an holm tree. Then said Daniel unto him: Well; thou hast also lied against thine own head: for the Angel of God waiteth with the sword to cut thee in two, that he may destroy you. With that all the assembly cried out with a loud voice, and praised God, who saveth them that trust in him. And they arose against the two elders, for Daniel had convicted them of false witness by their own mouth: and according to the law of Moses they did unto them in such sort as they maliciously intended to do to their neighbour: and they put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was saved the same day.

Saturday after 3rd Sunday in Lent A 213

AT that time: Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, they say unto him: Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them: He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Galatians. Gal. 4. 21.

RETHREN: Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written: that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage: which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. For it is written: Rejoice, thou barren that barest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the spirit: even so it is now. Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free: by the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free.

One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him: There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves. and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? And Jesus said: Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples: Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said: This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

And his disciples remembered that it was written: The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up. The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Exodus. Exod. 32. 7.

In those days: The Lord spake unto Moses, saying: Go, get thee down from the mount; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: they have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said: These be thy gods. O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And the Lord said unto Moses: I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation. And Moses besought the Lord his God, and said: Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say: For mischief did he bring them out, to slav them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people. Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them: I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever. And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

answered them, and said: My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me? The people answered and said: Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them: I have done one work, and ve all marvel. Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ve on the sabbath day circumcise a man. If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. Then said some of them of Jerusalem: Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ? Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is. Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying: Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ve know not. But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me. Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come. And many of the people believed on him.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 9. 1.

AT that time: As Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying: Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered: Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay. and said unto him: Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing. The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said: Is not this he that sat and begged? Some said: This is he: others said: He is like him: but he said: I am he. Therefore said they unto him: How were thine eyes A 230 Wednesday after 4th Sunday in Lent opened? He answered and said: A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me: Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight. Then said they unto him: Where is he? He said: I know not. They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eves. Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them: He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do Therefore said some of the Pharisees: This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said: How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them. They say unto the blind man again: What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said: He is a prophet. But the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight. And they asked them, saying: Is this your son, who ve say was born blind? how then doth he now see? His parents answered them and said: We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: but by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age: ask him: he shall speak for himself. These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. Therefore said his parents: He is of age; ask him. Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him: Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner. He answered and said: Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. Then said they to him again: What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? He answered them: I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ve hear it again? will ve also be his disciples? Then they reviled him, and said: Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples. know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is. answered and said unto them: Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes. Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will. him he heareth. Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind. If this man were not of God, he could do nothing. They answered and said unto him: Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out. Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him: Dost thou believe on the Son of God? He answered and said: Who is he. Lord, that I might believe on him? Jesus said unto him: Thou hast both seen him. and it is he that talketh with thee. And he said: Lord, I believe. (Here shall he genuflect.) And he worshipped him.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the latter Book of the Kings. 2 Kings 4. 25.

IN those days: The Shunammite woman came I unto Elisha to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant: Behold, yonder is that Shunammite: Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her: Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered: It is well. And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said: Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her; and the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told me. Then she said: Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say: Do not deceive me? Then he said to Gehazi: Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child. And the mother of the child said: As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her. And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid

And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the Lord. And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. And he called Gehazi, and said: Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said: Take up thy son. When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was. Then after that saith he to his disciples: Let us go into Iudaea again. His disciples say unto him: Master, the Iews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? Jesus answered: Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him. These things said he: and after that he saith unto them: Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. Then said his disciples: Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well. Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep. Then said Iesus unto them plainly: Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ve may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples: Let us also go. that we may die with him. Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already. Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off: and many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house. Then said Martha unto Jesus: Lord, if thou hadst been here. my brother had not died. But I know, that even Martha saith unto him: I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her: I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him: Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God. which should come into the world. And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying: The Master is come, and calleth for thee. As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him. Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. The lews then which were with her in the house. and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying: She goeth unto the grave to weep there. Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saving unto him: Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, and said: Where have ye laid him? They said unto him: Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. said the Jews: Behold how he loved him! some of them said: Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said: Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice: Lazarus, come forth. And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Or for the Chief Bishop. COLLECT.

GOD, the pastor and governour of them that put their trust in thee, look down in mercy on thy servant, N, whom thou hast chosen to be pastor and ruler of thy Church: grant unto him, we beseech thee, to be in word and conversation a wholesome example to the people committed to his charge; that he with them may attain at last to the crown of everlasting life. Through.

And there shall be no third Collect said.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Hebrews. Heb. 9. 11.

RETHREN: Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL. Ps. 143. Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee. \mathring{V} . Ps. 18. It is the Lord that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

TRACT. Ps. 129. Many a time have they fought against me from my youth up. \mathring{V} . May Israel now say: yea many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. \mathring{V} . But they have not prevailed against me: the plowers plowed upon my back. \mathring{V} . And made long furrows: but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 8. 46.

AT that time: Jesus said unto the multitude A of the Jews: Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. Then answered the Jews, and said unto him: Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? Jesus answered: I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ve do dishonour me. And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. Then said the Jews unto him: Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest: If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered: If I honour myself, my honour is nothing:

it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God: yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. Then said the Jews unto him: Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them: Verily, verily, I say unto you: Before Abraham was, I am. Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Jonah the Prophet.

Jonah 3. 1.

I N those days: The word of the Lord came unto I Jonah the second time, saying: Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said: Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me; and where I am, thither ve cannot come. Then said the Iews among themselves: Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? What manner of saving is this that he said: Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come? In the last day, that great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cried, saving: If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Story of Bel and the Dragon.

Bel and the Dragon, 29.

IN those days: They of Babylon came to the king, and said: Deliver us Daniel, or else we will destroy thee and thine house. Now when the king saw that they pressed him sore, being constrained, he delivered Daniel unto them: who cast him into the lions' den: where he was six days. And in the den there were seven lions, and they had given them every day two carcases, and two sheep: which then were not given to them. to the intent they might devour Daniel. Now there was in Jewry a prophet, called Habbacuc, who had made pottage, and had broken bread in a bowl, and was going into the field, for to bring it to the reapers. But the Angel of the Lord said unto Habbacuc: Go, carry the dinner that thou hast into Babylon unto Daniel, who is in the lions' den. And Habbacuc said: Lord, I never saw Babylon; neither do I know where the den is. Then the Angel of the Lord took him by the crown, and bare him by the hair of his head, and through the vehemency of his spirit set him in Babylon over the den. And Habbacuc cried, saving: O Daniel, Daniel, take the dinner which God hath sent thee. And Daniel said: Thou hast remembered me, O God: neither hast thou forsaken them that seek thee and love thee. So Daniel arose, and did eat: and the Angel of the Lord set Habbacuc in his own place again immediately. Upon the seventh day the king went to bewail Daniel: and when he came to the den, he looked in, and, behold, Daniel was sitting. Then cried the king with a loud voice, saving: Great art thou, O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other beside thee. And he drew him out, and cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the den: and they were devoured in a moment before his face. Then said the king: Let all men that dwell in all the earth tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for it is he that rescueth and worketh signs in the earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

A 254 Tuesday after Passion Sunday

AT that time: Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him. Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. His brethren therefore said unto him: Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. For neither did his brethren believe in him. Then Iesus said unto them: My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. Go ve up unto this feast: I go not up vet unto this feast: for my time is not yet full come. When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said: Where is he? And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said: He is a good man: others said: Nay: but he deceiveth the people. Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

Lev. 19. 10.

IN those days: the Lord spake unto Moses. saying: Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying: I am the Lord your God. Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. And ve shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord. Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the Lord. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour. Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the Lord. Thou shalt hate not thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. AT that time: It was at Jerusalem the feast of the Dedication, and it was winter. And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. Then came the Iews round about him, and said unto him: How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them: I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one. Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. Iesus answered them: Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, saying: For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. Iesus answered them: Is it not written in your law, I said: Ye are gods? If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world: Thou

In those days: Azarias prayed unto the Lord, saying: O Lord our God, deliver us not up wholly, for thy name's sake, neither disannul thou thy covenant: and cause not thy mercy to depart from us, for thy beloved Abraham's sake, for thy servant Isaac's sake, and for thy holy Israel's sake; to whom thou hast spoken and promised, that thou wouldest multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that lieth upon the seashore.

For we, O Lord, are become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the world because of our sins. Neither is there at this time prince, or prophet, or leader, or burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to sacrifice before thee, and to find mercy. Nevertheless in a contrite heart and an humble spirit let us be accepted. Like as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks. and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs: so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and grant that we may wholly go after thee: for they shall not be confounded that put their trust in thee. And now we follow thee with all our heart, we fear thee, and seek thy face. Put us not to shame: but deal with us after thy loving-kindness, and according to the multitude of thy mercies. Deliver us also according to thy marvellous works, and give glory to thy Name, O Lord: and let all them that do thy servants hurt be ashamed; and let them be confounded in all their power and might, and let their strength be broken; and let them know that thou art Lord, the only God, and glorious over the whole world. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saving: This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him: Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith: Master, say There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore. which of them will love him most? Simon answered and said: I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him: Thou hast rightly judged. And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon: Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee: Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much + but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. And he said unto her: Thy sins are forgiven. Jer. 17. 13.

In those days: Jeremiah said: O Lord, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the Lord, the fountain of living waters. Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise. Behold, they say unto me: Where is the word of the Lord? let it come now. As for me. I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day: thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee. Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil. AT that time: The chief priests and the Phari-A sees gathered a council against Jesus, and said: What do we? for this man doeth many miracles. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation. And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them: Ye know nothing at all, nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Jeremiah the Prophet. Jer. 18. 18.

In those days: The ungodly Jews said one to another: Come let us devise devices against the righteous: for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. Give heed to me, O Lord, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me. Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them. Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death: let their young men be slain by the sword in battle. Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. Yet, Lord, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger, O Lord our God.

GRADUAL. Ps. 35. Their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitful words against them that are quiet in the land. \tilde{V} . This hast thou seen, O Lord, hold not thy tongue; go not far from me, O Lord.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 12. 10.

At that time: The chief priests consulted together that they might put Lazarus also to death; because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried: Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon: as it is written: Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record. For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves: Perceive ve how ve prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him. And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast: The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saving: Sir, we would see Iesus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. And Jesus answered them, saying: The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Nowis my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saving: I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said: An Angel spake to him. Jesus answered and said: This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. This he said, signifying what death he should die. The people answered him: We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how savest thou: The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? Then Iesus said unto them: Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ve have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

THE SUNDAY NEXT BEFORE EASTER COMMONLY CALLED

PALM SUNDAY

¶ The Office being ended, and the Aspersion of holy water performed as is customary, the Priest, vested in a purple Cope or without a Chasuble, and attended by the Ministers vested in a like manner, proceeds to bless the branches of palm and olive or other trees; such branches being laid before the middle of the Altar or at the Epistle corner, and first the choir shall sing the Antiphon:

St. Matt. 21.

HOSANNA to the Son of David: blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. O King of Israel: Hosanna in the highest.

¶ Then standing at the Epistle corner and not turning to the people, the Priest shall sing in the ferial tone of the Mass Collect:

Ÿ. The Lord be with you.R7. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, whose love and service is our righteousness, increase, we pray thee, and multiply upon us the gifts of thy unspeakable grace: that like as by the death of thy Son thou hast given unto us the hope of our faith; so by his resurrection we may be brought unto the country which we seek. Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

¶ Afterward the Subdeacon, standing in the customary place, shall sing the Lesson following in the tone of the Epistle, and at the end he shall kiss the hand of the Priest.

The LESSON from the Book of Exodus.

Exod. 15. 27.

IN those days: The children of Israel came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters. And they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai: on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. And the children of Israel said unto them: Would to God we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, and when we did eat bread to the full: for ve have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger. Then said the Lord unto Moses: Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you: and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day: that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law or no. And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in: and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily. And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel: At even, then ye shall know that the Lord hath brought you out from the land of Egypt: and in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the Lord.

[¶] Then shall be sung for the Gradual:

R7. St. John II. Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said: What do we, for this man doeth many miracles? If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: *And the Romans shall come, and take away both our place and nation. \hat{V} . And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them: It is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. From that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death, saying: And the Romans shall come.

Or this R7. St. Matt. 26. On the Mount of Olives he prayed to his Father: O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me. *The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. \hat{V} . Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. The spirit indeed.

¶ While the R7. is in singing the Deacon shall place the book of the Gospels upon the Altar: and the Priest, the Deacon ministering the incense-boat, shall place incense in the censer. Then shall the Deacon say the prayer: Cleanse my heart, and taking the book from the Altar ask a blessing of the Priest. Afterward, the Subdeacon holding the book between two Acolytes holding lighted candles, the Deacon shall sign and cense the book, and sing the Gospel in the customary manner: whereafter the Subdeacon shall bear the book to be kissed by the Priest, who is also censed by the Deacon.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 21. 1.

AT that time: When they drew nigh unto Jerusalem and were come to Bethphage unto the Mount of Olives: then sent Jesus two disciples, saving unto them: Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them and bring them unto me: and if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say: The Lord hath need of them, and straightway he will send them. All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saving: Tell ye the daughter of Sion: Behold thy King cometh unto thee, meek and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them: and brought the ass, and the colt: and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way: others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way: and the multitudes that went before and that followed, cried, saying: Hosanna to the Son of David: blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

¶ Then shall the branches be blessed. And the Priest standing at the Epistle corner shall say in the tone of the ferial Collect:

y. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

I NCREASE, O Lord, we pray thee, the faith of them that put their trust in thee, and graciously hear the prayers of thy humble servants: send down upon us the manifold gifts of thy mercy and vouchsafe to bb Hess these branches of palm or olive; that like as in a figure of thy Church thou didst bless Noah going forth from the ark, and Moses going forth out of Egypt with the children of Israel, so we bearing palms and olive-branches may go forth with all good works to meet Christ, our Saviour, and through him enter into everlasting gladness: Who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost.

Ever one God world without end. Ry. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you.

R7. And with thy spirit. V. Lift up your hearts.

R7. We lift them up unto the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

R7. It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right and our bounden duty, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto thee, O Lord holy, Father almighty, everlasting God: Who art glorified in the Council of thy Saints, being acknowledged by all thy creatures their only Maker and their God: all thy works do praise thee and thy Saints give thanks unto thee: confessing without fear before the kings and rulers of this world the great Name of thy only-begotten Son. Before thee Angels and Archangels, Thrones and Dominations, and all the multitude of the heavenly host, do sing the majesty of thy glory, evermore praising thee and saying:

And the Sanctus is sung by the Choir.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most High. Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Then shall he say: Ÿ. The Lord be with you. R7. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

WE beseech thee, O Lord holy, Father almighty, everlasting God: that thou wouldest vouch-safe to bly less and sanct lifty these thy creatures, which thou hast bidden to spring from the wood of the olive tree: which likewise the dove, returning to the ark, did bear in her mouth: granting unto all them that shall receive the same that they may obtain thereby protection both in body and soul: and that, by thy grace which in a figure is shewn forth herein, we may effectually be healed unto everlasting salvation. Through. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray.

GOD, who gatherest together the outcasts, and preservest them whom thou hast gathered: who didst bless the people when they went forth bearing branches to meet Jesus: vouchsafe likewise to bleess these branches of palm and olive which thy faithful servants shall here receive in honour of thy Name; granting that into whatsoever place they shall bear the same, the dwellers therein may obtain thy blessing: that being delivered from all adversity, they may ever be defended by thy mighty power, who are redeemed by Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray.

GOD whose wonderful providence hath ordained even lifeless things to shew forth the dispensation of our redemption: grant, we beseech thee: that the devout hearts of thy faithful people may understand aright the mystery which is this day shewn forth. For, as at this time, the multitude by the inspiration of thy heavenly light went forth to meet their Redeemer, and strawed branches of palm and olive in his way, thereby in the branches of palm foreshadowing his triumph over the prince of death and by the boughs of olive proclaiming that the anointing of the Spirit was come. For the multitude rejoiced to know that even then was it prefigured: that our Redeemer, having compassion on the misery of mankind, was making ready to fight against the prince of death for the life of the whole world and by his death to conquer. And therefore obediently they laid before him offerings to signify both the triumph of his victory and the abundance of his mercy. Wherefore we likewise. with sure faith having in memory their deeds and the signification of the same, humbly beseech thee, O Lord holy, Father almighty, everlasting God, that like as thou hast vouchsafed to make us members of the same Jesus Christ our Lord: so in him and through him, we may win the victory over the powers of death, and be made partakers of his glorious Resurrection: Who liveth and reigneth with thee. R7. Amen.

Let us pray.

GOD, who by an olive-branch didst command the dove to proclaim peace on earth: vouch-safe, we beseech thee; to sanctify with thy heavenly bless-Hing these branches of olive and other trees: that for all thy people they may be profitable unto the attainment of everlasting salvation. Through Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

Let us pray.

BLHESS, O Lord, we pray thee, these branches of palm and olive: and grant; that as thy people outwardly with their bodies do worship thee, so inwardly in their souls they may serve thee with pure devotion, that they may be victorious over the assaults of the enemy and cleave steadfastly unto all good works. Through.

¶ Then shall the Priest set incense in the censer, and sprinkle the branches three times with holy water, saying without note and without the Psalm the Antiphon Thou shalt purge me; then shall he cense them three times and afterwards he shall say:

V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

GOD, who didst send forth thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, into the world for our salvation, that he might humble himself to be made like unto us and call us back unto thee: before whom, at his coming to Jerusalem for the fulfilling of the Scriptures, the multitude of them that believed with fruitful devotion strawed their raiment and palm branches in the way: grant, we beseech thee; that we may so prepare for him the way of faith, that, every stone of stumbling and rock of offence being done away, our works may blossom before thee with branches of righteousness: and that we may be found worthy to follow in his footsteps: Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

¶ The blessing being thus ended, the first of the Clergy that are present shall approach the Altar and give one of the branches that have been blessed to the Priest, who shall neither genuflect nor kiss the hand of him that giveth it. And thereafter, the Priest standing before the Altar shall turn himself to the people and distribute the branches, first to the first of the Clergy from whom he received his branch, then to the Deacon and Subdeacon, wearing their vestments, and then to the rest of the Clergy singly, according to their order, and lastly, to the people. And all shall genuflect and kiss the hand of the Priest, except a Bishop, if there be any present. And as he beginneth to make distribution, the Choir shall sing the Antiphons here set forth:

The children of the Hebrews, bearing branches of olive, went out to meet the Lord, crying out and saying: Hosanna in the highest.

And this Antiphon. The children of the Hebrews strawed their raiment in the way and cried out saying: Hosanna to the son of David: blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

¶ And if these be not sufficient, they shall be repeated until all the branches have been distributed.

Then shall the Priest say:

Ÿ. The Lord be with you.

Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who didst ordain that Jesus Christ our Lord should ride upon a colt, the foal of an ass, and didst teach the multitudes to straw in his way their raiment and branches of trees, and likewise to sing Hosanna in his praise: grant, we beseech thee; that we may by thee be enabled to follow them in all innocency of life, and be made like unto them in rendering unto thee our true and worthy service. Through the same Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

¶ Then shall they make the Procession. And first the Priest shall set incense in the censer, and the Deacon turning himself about to the people, shall say: Let us go forth in peace. And the clerks shall answer: In the Name of Christ. Amen.

And the Thurifer shall go first with smoking censer: then the Subdeacon apparelled, bearing the Cross between two Acolytes with lighted candles. Then shall follow the Clergy after their order, and last of all the Priest with the Deacon at his left hand, all having branches in their hands: and the Antiphons here following shall be sung, so many as shall suffice for the time of the Procession.

Antiphon. St. Matt. 21. When the Lord drew nigh unto Jerusalem he sent two of his disciples, saying unto them: Go into the village over against you: and straightway ye shall find an ass's colt tied, whereon never man sat: loose him and bring him unto me. If any man say aught unto you, ye shall say: The Lord hath need of him. They loose him and bring him to Jesus and put on him their clothes, and set him thereon: and some spread their garments in the way, others strawed branches from the trees: and they that followed cried: Hosanna: blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord: blessed is the kingdom of our father David: Hosanna in the highest: Thou Son of David, have mercy upon us.

Another Antiphon. St. John 12. When the people heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, they took branches of palm trees: and went forth to meet him, and the children cried, saying: This is he that should come for the salvation of the people. This is our salvation and the redemption of Israel. How mighty is he whom Thrones and Dominations go forth to meet. Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt, as it is written. Hail, King, creator of the world, who hast come to redeem us.

Another Antiphon. Six days before the feast of the Passover, when the Lord came to the city of Jerusalem, the children went forth to meet him: and in their hands they took branches of palm-trees and cried with a loud voice, saying: Hosanna in the highest: blessed art thou who hast come in the multitude of thy mercies: Hosanna in the highest.

Another Antiphon. The multitudes with flowers and branches go forth to meet their Redeemer: and render worthy homage to the triumphant conqueror: the Gentiles with their lips proclaim the Son of God: and in the praise of Christ their voices thunder through the sky: Hosanna in the highest.

Another Antiphon. With the Angels and the children may we be found faithful, crying unto the vanquisher of death: Hosanna in the highest.

Another Antiphon. Much people that were come to the feast cried unto the Lord: Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

¶ As the Procession turneth back, two or four clerks shall enter into the church, and shutting the door, shall stand with their faces towards the Procession and begin the hymn All glory, laud, and honour. So shall they sing the first verse and the Priest with the others shall repeat the same, standing without the church.

Thereafter they that are within shall sing the other verses that follow: either all or as many as seemeth good: and after every verse, they that are without shall sing in answer the first verse.

ALL glory, laud, and honour to thee, Redeemer, King:

To whom the lips of children made sweet Hosannas ring.

Ry. All glory, laud, and honour.

Thou art the King of Israel, thou David's royal Son: Who in the Lord's Name comest, the King and Blessèd One.

R7. All glory, laud, and honour.

The company of Angels are praising thee on high,
And mortal men and all things created make reply.
R7. All glory, laud, and honour.

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went:

Our praise and prayer and anthems before thee we present.

R7. All glory, laud, and honour.

To thee before thy passion they sang their hymns of praise:

To thee now high exalted our melody we raise. R/. All glory, laud, and honour.

Thou didst accept their praises, accept the prayers we bring:

Who in all good delightest, thou good and gracious King.

R7. All glory, laud, and honour.

This ended, the Subdeacon with the shaft of the Cross shall strike the door: which being forthwith opened, the Procession shall enter the church, singing:

Ry. When the Lord entered the holy city, the children of the Hebrews foretold the Resurrection of Life, *And bearing branches of palms, cried out: Hosanna in the highest.

V. When the people heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, they went forth to meet him. And bearing branches. And Glory be to the Father shall not be said.

Then shall the Mass be said; and all shall hold the branches in their hands while the Passion and Gospel are sung, but not at any other time.

AT THE MASS

Station at St. John Lateran.

INTROIT. Domine, ne longe. Ps. 22.

BE not thou far from me, O Lord, thou art my succour, haste thee to help me: save me from the lion's mouth, thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. Ps. ibid. My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

Be not thou.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the Cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility: mercifully grant; that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection: Through the same.

And this Prayer only is said.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians. Phil. 2. 5.

RETHREN: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him: and given him a Name which is above every name: (Here genuflect) that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth: and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

GRADUAL. Ps. 73. Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel: and after that receive me with glory.

V. Truly God is loving unto Israel, even unto such as are of a clean heart: nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well-nigh slipt: and why? I was grieved at the wicked, I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

TRACT. Ps. 22. My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? \mathring{V} . And art so far from my health; and from the words of my complaint? \mathring{V} . O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. \mathring{V} . But thou continuest holy, O thou worship of Israel. V. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. V. They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. V. But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people. V. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: V. He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. V. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. V. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. V. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye seed of Jacob. V. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation : they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. V. Unto a people that shall be born. whom the Lord hath made.

¶ The Passion shall be begun immediately: Cleanse my heart is not said, nor is a blessing asked, nor are lights carried, nor incense: The Lord be with you is not said, nor Glory be to thee, O Lord, and the Celebrant, or Deacon, when he announces The Passion of our Lord, does not sign the book, nor himself. And this is to be observed on the other days also, when the Passion is read.

The PASSION of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew. St. Matt. 27. 1.

WHEN the morning was come: All the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus, to put him to death. And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor. Then Judas who had betraved him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying: 5. I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. C. And they said: 5. What is that to us? see thou to that. C. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed; and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said: 5. It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury: because it is the price of blood. C. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called. The field of blood. unto this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying: And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value: and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me. And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saving: S. Art thou the King of the Tews? C. And Jesus said unto him: H Thou sayest. C. And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders; he answered nothing. Then saith Pilate unto him: 5. Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? C. And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them: 5. Whom will ve that I release unto you:

Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? C. For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saving: 5. Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. C. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. The governor answered and said unto them: S. Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? C. They said: S. Barabbas. C. Pilate saith unto them: S. What shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? C. They all say unto him: 5. Let him be crucified. C. And the governor said: S. Why, what evil hath he done? C. But they cried out the more, saving: 5. Let him be crucified. C. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made: he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saving: 5, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. C. Then answered all the people, and said: 5. His blood be on us, and on our children. C. Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Iesus he delivered him to be crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor took Iesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers: and they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe: and when they had platted a crown of thorns they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand. And they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying: 5. Hail, King of the Jews. C. And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked him they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him, And as they came out they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull: they gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall. And when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink. And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the Prophet: They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. And sitting down they watched him there. And set up over his head his accusation written: THIS IS IESUS THE KING OF THE TEWS. Then were there two thieves crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left. And they that passed by reviled him: wagging their heads, and saying: S. Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days: save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. C. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said: 5. He saved others, himself he cannot save: if he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him: he trusted in God: let him deliver him now, if he will have him; for he said: I am the Son of God. C. The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Iesus cried with a loud voice, saying: H Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? C. That is to say: H My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

C. Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said: S. This man calleth for Elias. C. And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. The rest said: S. Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him. C. Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice: yielded up the ghost.

Here shall he genuflect and pause for a space. Then shall he say Cleanse my heart and ask a blessing; and incense shall be brought (but not candles) and the book shall be censed; but The Lord be with you shall not be said. Then shall the Priest or the Deacon (not signing himself nor the book) sing that which followeth in the tone of the Gospel: at the end whereof the Priest shall kiss the book: and he shall be censed: and this order shall be observed on all other days when the Passion is read, save on Good Friday.

AND behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom: and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent, and the graves were opened: and many bodies of saints which slept arose, and came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying: Truly this was the Son of God. The Creed is said.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Isaiah the Prophet.

TN those days: Said Isaiah: Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel? And thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? I have trodden the wine-press alone, and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury: and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. And I looked, and there was none to help: and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me, and my fury it upheld me. And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth. I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness towards the house of Israel. Which he hath bestowed on them, according to his mercies: and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. For he said: Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. In all their affliction he was afflicted: and the angel of his presence saved them. In his love, and in his pity, he redeemed them: and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled, and vexed his Holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Then he remembered the days of old: Moses and his people, saying: Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? Where is he that put his Holy Spirit within him? That led them by the right hand of Moses, with his glorious arm? Dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting Name? That led them through the deep as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the Lord caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious Name. Look down from heaven, and behold: from the habitation of thy holiness, and of thy glory. Where is thy zeal, and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels, and of thy mercies towards me? Are they restrained? Doubtless thou art our Father.

Though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O Lord, art our Father, our Redeemer, thy Name is from everlasting. O Lord, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance. The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. We are thine, thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy Name.

GRADUAL. Ps. 35. Awake, O Lord, and stand up to judge my quarrel, avenge thou my cause, my God, and my Lord. \mathring{V} . Bring forth the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me.

TRACT. Ps. 103. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins: nor reward us according to our wickednesses. \mathring{V} . Ps. 79. Lord, remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us, and that soon: for we are come to great misery. (Here genuflect.) \mathring{V} . Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name, O Lord: O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins, for thy Name's sake.

The PASSION of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

St. Mark 14. 1.

AFTER two days: Was the feast of the Passover, and of unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take Jesus by craft, and put him to death. But they said: 5. Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people. C. And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat: there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very precious, and she brake the box, and poured it on his head. And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said: 5. Why was this waste of the ointment made? For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. C. And they murmured against her. And Jesus said: H Let her alone: why trouble ye her? She hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always: and whensoever ve will ve may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you: Wheresoever this Gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. C. And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests to betray him unto them. And when they heard it they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him. And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him: 5. Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover? C. And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them : H Go ye into the city: and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water, follow him: and wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good-man of the house: The Master saith: Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will shew you a large upper-room furnished, and prepared: there make ready for us. C. And his disciples went forth, and came into the city: and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the passover. And in the evening he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat, and did eat, Jesus said: H Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me. C. And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one: 5. Is it I? C. And another said: 5. Is it I? C. And he answered and said unto them: H It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish. The Son of Man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed. Good were it for that man if he had never been born. C. And as they did eat, Jesus took bread: and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said : H Take, eat, this is my body. C. And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. And he said unto them : H This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the Kingdom of God. C. And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. And Jesus saith unto them: All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written: I will smite the shepherd. and the sheep shall be scattered. But, after that I am risen: I will go before you into Galilee. C. But Peter said unto him: S. Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. C. And Jesus saith unto him: H Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. C. But he spake the more vehemently: 5. If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. C. Likewise also said they all. And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane. And he saith to his disciples: H Sit ye here, while I shall pray. C. And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John: and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy. And saith unto them: H My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ve here, and watch. C. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground: and prayed, that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him: and he said: Abba. Father, all things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me: nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt. C. And he cometh and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter: H Simon, sleepest thou? Couldest not thou watch one hour? Watch ve and pray, lest ve enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. C. And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words. And when he returned he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him. And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them: Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough: the hour is come: behold, the Son of Man is betraved into the hands of sinners. Rise up, let us go: lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. C. And immediately, while he vet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders. And he that betraved him had given them a token, saying: 5. Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, take him, and lead him away safely. C. And as soon as he was come he goeth straightway to him, and saith: S. Master, master. C. And kissed him. And they laid their hands on him, and took him. And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest: and cut off his ear. And Jesus answered, and said unto them: Are ve come out as against a thief, with swords and with staves, to take me? I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ve took me not. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled. C. And they all forsook him. and fled. And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body: and the young men laid hold on him. And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes. And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself And the chief priests and all the at the fire. council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death, and found none. For many bare false witness against him: but their witness agreed not together. And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying: 5. We heard him say: I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands. C. But neither so did their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying: 5. Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witness against thee? C. But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him: 5. Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? C. And Jesus said: H I am: and ye shall see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. C. Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith: 5. What need we any further witnesses? Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? C. And they all condemned him to be guilty of death. And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him: 5. Prophesy. C. And the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

That which follows is sung in the tone of the Gospel: and the rest is done as on the previous Sunday.

ND as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest: and when she saw Peter warming himself she looked upon him, and said: And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. But he denied, saying: I know not, neither understand I what thou savest. And he went out into the porch, and the cock crew. And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by: This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter: Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilaean: and thy speech agreeth thereto. But he began to curse and to swear, saying: I know not this man of whom ye speak. And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him: Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Isaiah the Prophet.

Is. 50. 5.

In those days: Said Isaiah: The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious: neither turned away my back. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. For the Lord God will help me, therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? Let us stand together; who is mine adversary? Let him come near to me. Behold, the Lord God will help me: who is he that shall condemn me? Lo, they all shall wax old as a garment, the moth shall eat them up. Who is among you that feareth the Lord, that obeyeth the voice of his servant? That walketh in darkness, and hath no light? Let him trust in the Name of the Lord, and stay upon his God. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand, ye shall lie down in sorrow.

GRADUAL. Ps. 35. Nevertheless, when they were sick, I put on sackcloth, and humbled myself with fasting: and my prayers shall turn into mine own bosom. V. Plead thou my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with me, and fight thou against them that fight against me: lay hand upon the shield and buckler, and stand up to help me.

The PASSION of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

St. Mark 15. 4.

At that time: Straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders, and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. And Pilate asked him: S. Art thou the King of the Jews? C. And he answering said unto him: H. Thou sayest it. C. And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing. And Pilate asked him again, saying: S. Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee. C. But Jesus yet answered nothing, so that Pilate marvelled. Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner whomsoever they desired. And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them. But Pilate answered them, saying: 5. Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? C. For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy. But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. And Pilate answered, and said again unto them: 5. What will ve then that I shall do unto him whom ve call the King of the Jews? C. And they cried out again: S. Crucify him. C. Then Pilate said unto them: 5. Why, what evil hath he done? C. And they cried out the more exceedingly: 5. Crucify him. C. And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified. And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium, and they call together the whole band, and they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head. And began to salute him: Hail, King of the Jews. And they smote him on the head with a reed: and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him. And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him: and led him out to crucify him. And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross. And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. And when they had crucified him they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. And it was the third hour: and they crucified him. And the superscription of his accusation was written over: THE KING OF THE IEWS. And with him they crucify two thieves: the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith: And he was numbered with the transgressors. And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads. and saying: 5. Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days: save thyself, and come down from the cross. C. Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves, with the scribes: 5. He saved others, himself he cannot save. Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. C. And they that were crucified with him, reviled him. And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying: H Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? C. Which is, being interpreted: My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? C. And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said: 5. Behold, he calleth Elias. C. And one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying: 5. Let alone, let us see whether Elias will come to take him down. C. And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Hebrews.

Heb. 9. 16.

DRETHREN: Where a testament is, there must D also of necessity be the death of the testator: for a testament is of force after men are dead, otherwise it is of no strength at all whilst the testator liveth. Whereupon, neither the first testament was dedicated without blood. For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people, according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats. with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, saying: This is the blood of the testament, which God hath enjoined unto you. Moreover, he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission. It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these: but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true: but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others: for then must be often have suffered since the foundation of the world. now once in the end of the world hath he appeared, to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many. And unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

TRACT. Ps. 102. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and let my crying come unto thee. \mathring{V} . Hide not thy face from me: in the time of my trouble incline thine ear unto me. \mathring{V} . When I call; O hear me, and that right soon. \mathring{V} . For my days are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand. \mathring{V} . My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass: so that I forget to eat my bread. \mathring{V} . Thou shalt arise and have mercy upon Zion: for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

The PASSION of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke. St. Luke 22. 1.

AT that time: The feast of unleavened bread A drew nigh, which is called the Passover: and the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people. Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money. And he promised. And sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude. came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed. And he sent Peter and John, saying: H Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat. C. And they said unto him: 5. Where wilt thou that we prepare? C. And he said unto them: H Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house where he entereth in, and ye shall say unto the good-man of the house: The Master saith unto thee: Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he shall shew you a large upper-room furnished, there make ready. C. And they went, and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the passover. And when the hour was come he sat down, and the twelve Apostles with him. And he said unto them: H With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer. For I say unto you: I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the Kingdom of God. C. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said: H Take this, and divide it among yourselves. For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the Kingdom of God shall come. C. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saving: H This is my Body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. C. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying: H This cup is the new testament in my Blood, which is shed for you. behold, the hand of him that betraveth me is with me on the table. And truly the Son of Man goeth as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed. C. And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing. And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them: H The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. But we shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger: and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as he that serveth: ve are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me, that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom: and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. C. And the Lord said: H Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. C. And he said unto him: S. Lord, I am ready to go with thee both into prison and to death. C. And he said : HI tell thee, Peter : The cock shall not crow this day before that thou shalt' thrice deny that thou knowest me. C. And he said unto them: H When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? C. And they said: 5. Nothing. C. Then said he unto them: H But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip; and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me: And he was reckoned among the transgressors. For the things concerning me have an end. C. And they said: S. Lord, behold, here are two swords. C. And he said unto them: H It is enough. C. And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives. And his disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, he said unto them: He Pray, that ye enter not into temptation. C. And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down and prayed, saying: H Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless. not my will, but thine be done. C. And there appeared an Angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly. And his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples. he found them sleeping for sorrow; and said unto them: H Why sleep ve? Rise and pray, lest ve enter into temptation. C. And while he vet spake. behold, a multitude: and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them: and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. But Jesus said unto him: H Judas, betrayest thou the Son of Man with a kiss? C. When they who were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him: S. Lord, shall we smite with the sword? C. And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said : Suffer ve thus far. C. And he touched his ear. and healed him. Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders who were come to him: He Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. C. Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house: and Peter followed afar off. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. But a certain maid beheld him, as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said 5. This man was also with him. C. And he denied him, saying: S. Woman, I know him not. C. And after a little while another saw him, and said: 5. Thou art also of them. C. And Peter said: 5. Man, I am not. C. And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying: 5. Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilaean. C. And Peter said: 5. Man, I know not what thou sayest. C. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him: Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

That which follows is sung in the tone of the Gospel: and the rest is done as above on the preceding Sunday.

A ND the men that held Jesus mocked him, and amote him. And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face: and asked him, saving: Prophesy, who is it that smote thee? And many other things blasphemously spake they against him. And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes, came together, and led him into their council, saying: Art thou the Christ? Tell us. And he said unto them: If I tell you, ye will not believe: and if I also ask you, ve will not answer me, nor let me go. Hereafter shall the Son of Man sit on the right hand of the power of God. Then said they all: Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them: Ye say that I am. And they said: What need we any further witness? For we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 102. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and let my crying come unto thee: hide not thy face from me.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, to accept these our oblations: and vouchsafe so to work in us, who shew forth in a mystery the passion of thy Son our Lord, that we may by our devout affections receive the benefit of his redemption. Through the same.

SECRET 2 for the Church or Chief Bishop. PREFACE of the Cross.

COMMUNION. Ps. 102. I have mingled my drink with weeping: for thou hast taken me up and cast me down: and I am withered like grass: but thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever: thou shalt arise and have mercy upon Sion, for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea the time is come.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY GOD, we beseech thee, so to enlighten our understandings: that we, testifying in these wondrous mysteries to the temporal death of thy Son, may learn thereby to believe that thou hast bestowed upon us life eternal. Through the same.

POSTCOMMUNION 2 for Church or Chief Bishop. Over the people. Let us pray. Bow down before the Lord.

PRAYER.

ALMIGHTY GOD, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the Cross: Who liveth and reigneth with thee. Ry. Amen.

THURSDAY BEFORE EASTER

COMMONLY CALLED

MAUNDY THURSDAY

Station at St. John Lateran.

INTROIT. Nos autem gloriari. Gal. 6.

BUT as for us, it behoveth us to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: in whom is our salvation, our life and resurrection: by whom we were saved and obtained our freedom. Ps. 67. God be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us. But as for us.

And on this day shall be said, Glory be to God on high, and then shall the bells be rung: and after that shall they cease until Easter Even.

COLLECT.

GOD, who gavest unto Judas the punishment of his sin, and unto the thief the reward of his confession, grant us, we beseech thee, the effectual help of thy mercy: that as in his passion thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, gave unto either the just reward of his merits; so he may cleanse us from the sins of our old nature, and bestow upon us the grace of his Resurrection: Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost.

And this Collect only shall be said.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. I Cor. II. 17.

DRETHREN: In this that I declare unto you, D I praise you not; that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. For first of all, when ve come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you, and I partly believe it. For there must be also heresies among you. that they who are approved may be made manifest among you. When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's Supper. For in eating everyone taketh before other his own supper. And one is hungry: and another is drunken. What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? Or despise we the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said: Take, eat: this is my Body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saving: This cup is the new testament in my Blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ve eat this bread, and drink this cup: ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily eateth and drinketh damnation to himself: not discerning the Lord's Body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. And if any man hunger, let him eat at home: that ve come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

GRADUAL. Phil. 2. Christ became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. \mathring{V} Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him: and given him the Name which is above every name.

The PASSION of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. St. Luke 23. 1.

AT that time: The whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. And they began to accuse him, saying: 5. We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying, that he himself is Christ a King. C. And Pilate asked him, saying:

5. Art thou the King of the Jews? C. And he answered him, and said: H Thou sayest it. C. Then said Pilate to the chief priests, and to the people: 5. I find no fault in this man. C. And they were the more fierce, saying: 5. He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place. C. When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean. And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time. And when Herod saw Jesus he was exceeding glad. For he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him. Then he questioned with him in many words. But he answered him nothing. And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him. And Herod with his men of war set him at nought: and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves. And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people, said unto them: 5. Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people, and behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ve accuse him. No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him. I will therefore chastise him, and release him. C. For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast. And they cried out all at once, saying: 5. Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas. C. Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. Pilate therefore. willing to release Jesus, spake again to them. But they cried, saying: S. Crucify him, crucify him. C. And he said unto them the third time: S. Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. C. And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required. And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired: but he delivered Iesus to their will. And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country: and on him they laid the Cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus, turning unto them, said: H Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say: Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains: Fall on us; and to the hills: Cover us. For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? C. And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death. And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him: and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus: H Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. C. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots. And the people stood beholding, and the rulers also with them derided him, saving: 5. He saved others: let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God. C. And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, and saying: 5. If thou be the King of the Jews, save thyself. C. And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. And one of the malefactors, which were hanged, railed on him, saying: 5. If thou be Christ, save thyself, and us. C. But the other answering rebuked him, saying: 5. Dost not thou fear God? Seeing thou art in the same condemnation. And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. C. And he said unto Jesus: 5. Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. C. And Jesus said unto him: H Verily I say unto thee: To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise. C. And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened: and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said: H Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit. C. And having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

That which followeth is sung in the tone of the Gospel: and the rest is done as above on the preceding Sunday.

Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying: Certainly this was a righteous man. And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things that were done, smote their breasts, and returned. And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

And the Creed shall be said.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 118. The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence, the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass: I shall not die but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

SECRET.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord holy, Father almighty, everlasting God: that he may render our sacrifice acceptable in thy sight, who as on this day commanded his disciples, saying: Do this in remembrance of me, even Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

PREFACE of the Cross.

WITHIN THE ACTION.

AND here we do give unto thee most high praise and hearty thanks: On this most holy day whereon Jesus Christ our Lord was betrayed for us: For the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all thy Saints, from the beginning of the world: And chiefly in the glorious and most blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord and God, and in the holy Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles and Martyrs, whose examples, O Lord, and steadfastness in thy faith, and keeping thy holy commandments, grant us to follow.

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, A who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ, to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption, who made there, by his one oblation of himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world, and as on this day did institute and hand down to his disciples the mysteries of his Body and Blood, and in his holy Gospel did command us to celebrate a perpetual memory of that his precious death, until his coming again; Hear us, O merciful Father, we beseech thee: and with thy Holy Spirit and Word vouchsafe to bliess and sanctHify these thy giHfts, and creatures of Bread and Wine, that they may be unto us the BoHdy and BlHood of thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ:

WHO in the same night, in which for us men and for our salvation he was betrayed, even to-day, took bread, and when he had blyessed and given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take, eat:

This is my Body which is given for you.

And the rest, as in the Canon.

O Lamb of God is said after the customary manner, but the Kiss of Peace shall not be given.

But the three accustomed prayers before the Communion shall be said.

¶ On this day the Priest shall consecrate two Hosts, whereof he shall consume the one; but the other he shall reserve for the day following whereon the Sacrament is not consecrated: and he shall likewise reserve some part of that which hath been consecrated in case it be needed for the sick. But he shall consume the whole of the precious Blood, and before the washing of his fingers he shall place the reserved Host in another chalice, which the Deacon shall set in the midst of the Altar, covering it with the pall and paten and spreading a veil thereon. Then he shall receive the Communion, and the Mass be finished. But the Priest shall genuflect, whensoever he approacheth or departeth from the middle of the Altar, or passeth before the Sacrament that hath been reserved in the chalice. And when he shall say The Lord be with you, he shall turn himself towards the people, not in the midst of the Altar, that he may not turn his back on the Sacrament, but at the north side: and at the end he shall give the blessing in the same place, and he shall not complete the circle.

COMMUNION. St. John 13. The Lord Jesus, after he had supped with his disciples, and had washed their feet, said unto them: Know ye what I your Lord and Master have done to you? I have given you an example that ye should do as I have done to you.

POSTCOMMUNION.

O LORD our God, who hast refreshed us with this life-giving sustenance, we beseech thee: that we, who observe this institution in the time of our mortal life, may obtain the benefit thereof in thy gift of immortality. Through.

Then shall he say Depart in peace and give the blessing; and the Gospel of St. John shall be read: at the beginning whereof the Priest shall not sign the Altar, but himself alone.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John.

St. John 13. 1.

AT that time: Before the feast of the Passover. A when Iesus knew that the time was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him: Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come forth from God, and went to God: he riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments: and took a towel, and girded himself. After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter. And Peter saith unto him: Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him: What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him: Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him: If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him: Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him: He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit. And ye are clean, but not all. For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he: Ye are not all clean. So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them: Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well: for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet: ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

¶ On this day a fit place shall be made ready in some Chapel within the Church or on an Altar, and it shall be adorned as decently as may be with veils and lights, where the chalice with the Host reserved therein shall be set. And when Mass is finished, torches being lighted, a Procession shall be formed after the customary fashion, but another Subdeacon, properly vested, shall carry the Cross. The Celebrant, wearing a white cope, shall stand afore the Altar, and set incense in two censers without blessing it: then genuflecting in the midst of the Altar, he shall with the one cense the Sacra-Then the Deacon standing shall ment thrice. deliver to him the chalice, which he shall cover with the ends of the veil which shall be laid on his shoulders. Then shall he go in the midst with the Deacon on his right and the Subdeacon on his left hand, to the place made ready for the Sacrament to be reserved until the morrow; and a canopy shall be held over him, and two acolutes shall cense the Sacrament continually. Meanwhile during the Procession shall be sung:

HYMN. Pange, lingua, gloriosi.

F the glorious Body telling, O my tongue, its mysteries sing,
And the Blood, all price excelling, which the world's eternal King,
In a noble womb once dwelling, shed for this world's ransoming.

Given for us, for us descending, of a Virgin to proceed, Man with man in converse blending, scattered he the Gospel seed, Till his sojourn drew to ending, which he closed in wondrous deed.

At the last great Supper lying, circled by his brethren's band, Meekly with the law complying, first he finished its command, Then, immortal Food supplying, gave himself with his own hand.

Word made Flesh, by word he maketh, very bread his Flesh to be: Man in wine Christ's Blood partaketh, and if senses fail to see, Faith alone the true heart waketh, to behold the mystery.

Therefore we before him bending, this great Sacrament revere: Types and shadows have their ending, for the newer Rite is here: Faith, our outward sense befriending, makes the inward vision clear.

Glory, let us give, and blessing, to the Father and the Son; Honour, might, and praise addressing, while eternal ages run: Ever too his love confessing, who from both, with both, is one. Amen.

And when he shall be come to the place prepared, the Deacon kneeling shall receive the chalice with the Sacrament from the Priest, standing upright: and at first he shall set it on the Altar, where the Priest kneeling shall cense it after the former manner; then he shall set it in the place prepared. And thereafter shall Evensong be said in the choir without singing.

And the Priest with the Ministers shall lay bare the Altars, reading the Antiphon: Ps. 22. They parted my garments among them: and cast lots upon my vesture, and the whole of the Psalm My God, my God, look upon me, as at Mattins for Good Friday (sung as "Tenebrae" this evening).

¶ The Altars being laid bare, at a convenient time the signal is given with a wooden instrument, and the Priests shall come together to perform the Maundy. And the Prelate or Superior among the Clergy, being vested in amice and alb with purple stole and cope, shall stand in the place appointed, with the Deacon to assist him: and the Deacon with the Subdeacon shall wear white vestments as at the Mass. Then shall he set incense in the censer, and the Deacon holding the book of the Gospels before his breast shall kneel before the Superior and ask a blessing. And the blessing being given, he shall stand with the two acolytes holding lighted candles, one on either hand, and the Subdeacon holding the book. Then shall he sign the book and cense it, and sing in the customary manner the Gospel Before the feast of the Passover, as in end of the Mass above. Then shall the Subdeacon bear the open book to be kissed by the Superior, and the Deacon shall cense him in the customary manner. And thereafter the Superior shall put off his cope, and the Deacon and Subdeacon shall gird him with a towel. Being so girded, with the Deacon and Subdeacon ministering unto him, he shall come forward for the washing of the feet. And they that are to be washed shall be set in order, and clerks shall carry a bason of water. And while the Subdeacon holds the right foot of each one, the Superior shall genuflect to him, and wash his feet and wipe and kiss them. And the Deacon shall give him the towel to wipe them. And at the same time shall be sung these sentences of Scripture that follow.

Antiphon. St. John 13. A new commandment give I unto you: that ye love one another as I have loved you, saith the Lord.

Ps. 119. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord.

Then forthwith shall the Antiphon A new commandment be repeated. And in like manner shall each Antiphon be repeated after its Psalm or verse. And of each Psalm the first verse only shall be said.

Antiphon. St. John 13. After the Lord had risen from supper he put water in a bason and began to wash his disciples' feet: this example left he unto them. Ps. 48. Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill. After.

Antiphon. St. John 13. The Lord Jesus after he had supped with his disciples washed their feet, and said unto them: Know ye what I your Lord and Master have done unto you? I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Ps. 85. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. The Lord Jesus.

Antiphon. St. John 13. Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him: If I wash not thy feet, thou hast no part in me. V. He came therefore unto Simon Peter, and Peter said unto him.

Then shall be repeated the Antiphon Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him: If I wash not thy feet, thou hast no part in me.

y. What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know hereafter.

And the Antiphon is repeated a third time. Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him: If I wash not thy feet, thou hast no part in me.

Antiphon. If I, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet: how much more ought ye to wash one another's feet? Ps. 49. O hear ye this, all ye people: ponder it with your ears, all ye that dwell in the world. If I, your Lord.

Antiphon. St. John 13. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. \mathring{V} . Jesus said unto his disciples. By this shall all men know.

Antiphon. I Cor. 13. Let these three abide in you, faith, hope, and charity: but the greatest of these is charity.

V. Now abideth faith, hope, and charity, these three: but the greatest of these is charity.

Let these three.

Antiphon. Blessed be the holy Trinity and the undivided Unity: we will confess him, because he hath shewed his mercy upon us. V. Let us bless the Father and the Son with the Holy Ghost. Ps. 84. O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of Hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord. Blessed be.

Antiphon. I St. John 2, 3, 4. Where charity and love are, there is God. $\mathring{\mathbb{Y}}$. The love of Christ joined us in one. $\mathring{\mathbb{Y}}$. Let us rejoice and be glad in him. $\mathring{\mathbb{Y}}$. Let us fear and love the living God. $\mathring{\mathbb{Y}}$. And love one another in sincerity of heart.

Then is repeated the Antiphon Where charity and love are, there is God. $\mathring{\mathbb{V}}$. When, therefore, we are joined together. $\mathring{\mathbb{V}}$. Let us see that we be not divided in spirit. $\mathring{\mathbb{V}}$. Let all malicious wranglings and contentions cease. $\mathring{\mathbb{V}}$. And let Christ our God be in the midst of us.

Then is repeated the Antiphon Where charity and love are, there is God. \mathring{V} . So may we with the blessed see. \mathring{V} . In glory thy countenance, Christ our God. \mathring{V} . Joy that is infinite and undefiled. \mathring{V} . For ever and for evermore. Amen.

After the washing, the Superior, or he that hath washed the feet, shall wash his hands and wipe them with another towel: then returning to his former place, he shall receive the cope and say, with head uncovered,

Our Father, secretly.

V. And lead us not into temptation.

Ry. But deliver us from evil.

V. Thou hast charged, O Lord,

Ry. That we should diligently keep thy commandments.

Ÿ. Thou didst wash the feet of thy disciples.

Ry. Despise not thou the works of thine own hands.

Ÿ. Lord, hear my prayer.

Ry. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. The Lord be with you. R7. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

We be seech thee, O Lord, mercifully to assist this our bounden duty and service: and for a smuch as thou didst vouchsafe to wash the feet of thy disciples, despise not thou the works of thine own hands, which thou hast bidden us to follow: and mercifully grant that as we have this day washed away our outward defilements, so by thee we may inwardly be cleansed from all our offences: Who livest and reignest God: world without end. R7. Amen.

GOOD FRIDAY

Station at St. Cross in Jerusalem.

¶ The Office being ended, the Priest and Ministers, in black vestments, and without candles and incense, shall go unto the Altar; and prostrating themselves before it, shall pray for a while. And the Acolytes shall spread one cloth and no more upon the Altar. His prayer being finished, the Priest, with the Ministers, shall go up to the Altar, and kiss it in the middle: and thereafter the Reader, going to the place where the Epistle is read, shall read the Prophecy, beginning it without any announcement, and the Priest shall read it at the same time in a low voice, standing at the Epistle corner.

Hosea 6.

THUS saith the Lord: In their affliction they will seek me early: Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning, and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth. O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? For your goodness is as a morning cloud: and as the early dew it goeth away. Therefore I have hewed them by the prophets, I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth. For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

TRACT. Hab. 3. O Lord, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: I have considered thy works, and was confounded. V. O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years: in the midst of the years make it known. V. In the time of confusion of my soul: in wrath, remember mercy. V. God came from Teman, and his Holy One from the thick woods of the mountains. V. His glory covered the heavens: and the earth was full of his praise.

¶ The Tract being ended, the Priest at the Epistle horn shall say: Let us pray. Then shall the Deacon say: Let us bow the knee. And the Subdeacon: Arise.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY GOD, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the Cross: Who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. R7. Amen.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. R7. Arise.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church; that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve thee. Through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. Ry. Arise.

COLLECT.

MERCIFUL God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live: have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Hereticks, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Ry. Amen.

Then shall the Subdeacon, without any announcement, sing the EPISTLE following. Heb. 10. 1.

BRETHREN: The law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto perfect: for then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins. But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith: Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not. but a body hast thou prepared me: in burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. Then said I: Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God. Above, when he said: Sacrifice and offering, and burntofferings, and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, which are offered by the Law: then said he: Lo, I come to do thy will, He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest standeth daily ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his foot-stool. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified. Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before: This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord: I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the Blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh: and having an High Priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering: (for he is faithful that promised;) and let us consider one another to provoke unto love, and to good works: not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is: but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

TRACT. Ps. 140. Deliver me, O Lord, from the evil man: and preserve me from the wicked man. V. Who imagine mischief in their hearts: and stir up strife all the day long. V. They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent: adder's poison is under their lips. V. Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the ungodly: and preserve me from the wicked men. V. Who are purposed to overthrow my goings: the proud have laid a snare for me. V. And spread a net abroad with cords: yea, and set traps in my way. V. I said unto the Lord: Thou art my God: hear the voice of my prayers, O Lord. V. O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast covered my head in the day of battle. V. Let not the ungodly have his desire, O Lord: let not his mischievous imagination prosper: lest they be too proud. V. Let the mischief of their own lips fall upon the head of them: that compass me about. V. The righteous also shall give thanks unto thy Name: and the just shall continue in thy sight.

¶ The Tract ended, the Passion is read from a bare desk: and the Celebrant shall read it also at the Epistle horn of the Altar in a low voice.

The PASSION of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John. St. John 19. 1.

AT that time: Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head: and they put on him a purple robe, and said : 5. Hail, King of the Jews. C. And they smote him with their hands. Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them: 5. Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ve may know that I find no fault in him. C. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them: 5. Behold the man. C. When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying: 5. Crucify him, crucify him. C. Pilate saith unto them: 5. Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. C. The Jews answered him: 5. We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. C. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid. And went again into the judgment-hall: and saith unto Jesus: 5. Whence art thou? C. But Jesus gave him no answer. Then saith Pilate unto him: 5. Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? C. Jesus answered: H Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above. Therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. C. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him. But the Jews cried out, saying: S. If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend. Whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar. C. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the Preparation of the Passover, and about the sixth hour, and he saith unto the Jews: 5. Behold your King. C. But they cried out : S. Away with him, away with him, crucify him. C. Pilate saith unto them: S. Shall I crucify your King? C. The chief priests answered: S. We have no king but Caesar. C. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away. And he, bearing his cross, went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha: where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title: and put it on the cross. And the writing was: IESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the Jews. for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city. And it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate: 5. Write not, The King of the Jews: but that he said: I am the King of the Jews. C. Pilate answered: S. What I have written, I have written. C. Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts: to every soldier a part, and also his coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves: 5. Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be. C. That the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith: They parted my raiment among them: and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

Now there stood by the cross of Jesus, his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother: H Woman, behold thy son. C. Then saith he to the disciple: H Behold thy mother. C. And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith: H I thirst. C. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar. And they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said: H It is finished. C. And he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

The rest is sung in the tone of the Gospel: Cleanse my heart is said, but the blessing is not asked, nor are lights carried nor incense, and at the end the Celebrant does not kiss the book.

THE Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers: and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record: and his record is true. And he knoweth that he saith true: that ye might believe. For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled: A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another Scripture saith: They shall look on him whom they pierced.

Then the Priest, standing at the Epistle horn of the Altar, shall begin immediately with joined hands:

DEARLY beloved brethren, let us pray for the holy Church of God: that the Lord our God may vouchsafe to preserve it throughout all the world in unity, peace and safety: making subject unto it all principalities and powers: and that he may grant unto us to dwell in such quiet and tranquillity that we may duly shew forth the glory of God the Father Almighty.

Let us pray. Deacon: Let us bow the knee, Subdeacon: R7. Arise.

The Prayer is chanted in the ferial tone of the Collect at Mass, with hands extended. Which method shall serve for all the Prayers that follow.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast in Christ made manifest thy glory unto all mankind: we beseech thee that thou wouldest preserve those things which of thy mercy thou hast created; that thy Church being spread abroad through all the world may steadfastly abide in the confession of thy holy Name. Through the same. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for N, the chief Bishop: that like as the Lord our God hath appointed him to the office of a bishoprick, so he may preserve him in all peace and safety for the governance of the holy people of God.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. Ry. Arise.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, whose judgment upholdeth all things both in heaven and earth: we beseech thee mercifully to have respect unto our prayers, that like as thou hast appointed this thy servant to be our Bishop so thou wouldest of thy mercy defend him against all adversities; and that all Christian peoples, acknowledging thee alone to be their author and governour, may so prosper by his care that they may duly increase in bringing forth the fruits of their profession. Through. R7. Amen.

LET us pray likewise for all Bishops, Priests and Deacons, for all Subdeacons, Acolytes, Exorcists, Readers, Doorkeepers, Confessors, Virgins and Widows: and for all the elect people of God.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. Ry. Arise.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church; that every member of the same in his vocation and ministry may truly and godly serve thee. Through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee. Ry. Amen.

LT us pray likewise for our most Christian Sovereign (if he be not crowned is said: elect) N: that the Lord our God may make subject unto him all the peoples that delight in war to the preservation of our perpetual peace.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. Ry. Arise.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, in whose hand is the dominion of all things, and the governance of all kingdoms: look down in mercy on this Empire; that the nations which trust in the fury of their violence, may be quelled by the defence of thine almighty power. Through. Ry. Amen.

LET us pray likewise for all them that are catechumens: that the Lord our God may open the ears of their hearts that they may enter in at the gate of his mercy; that by the washing of regeneration they may obtain the remission of all their sins, and be found faithful servants of Christ Jesus our Lord.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. Ry. Arise.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who dost ever increase thy Church with the abundance of a new generation: we beseech thee that thou wouldest multiply in faith and understanding them that are being taught in thy holy word; that being renewed in the water of Baptism they may be numbered among the sons of thine adoption. Through. R7. Amen.

DEARLY beloved brethren, let us pray likewise to God the Father Almighty, that he would vouchsafe to cleanse the world from all false doctrine: to deliver it from pestilence and famine: to open all prisons: and to set free them that are in captivity: granting unto pilgrims a safe return: to the sick healing: and to them that travel by sea to attain unto the haven that they desire.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. Ry. Arise.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, the comforter of them that mourn, the strength of them that travail: we beseech thee to hear the prayers of them that in any necessity make their supplications unto thee; that in all their troubles and adversities they may rejoice in the present succour of thy loving-kindness. Through. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for all them that are in heresy and schism: that the Lord our God may deliver them from all false doctrines, and vouchsafe to restore them to their holy mother the Catholic and Apostolic Church.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. Ry. Arise.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who wouldest not that any should perish, but rather that they should be saved: we beseech thee mercifully to look upon them that are deceived by the crafts of the devil; that the hearts of them which have gone astray may be delivered from their perversities and restored to the way of truth and to the unity of thy holy Church. Through. R7. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for the Jews: that the Lord our God may remove from their hearts the veil of unbelief; and that they may come to the knowledge of Jesus Christ our Lord. No R7 is made, but immediately is said:

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who extendest even to the falsehood of the Jews the abundance of thy mercy: graciously hear the prayers which we offer unto thee for the blindness of the hearts of this people; that acknowledging Christ Jesus, the light of thy truth, they may yet be delivered from the darkness of their ignorance. Through the same. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray likewise for the heathen: that God Almighty may take away the iniquity of their hearts; that they may turn away from their idols to the true and living God and to his only-begotten Son Jesus Christ our Lord and God.

Let us pray. Let us bow the knee. Ry. Arise.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who desirest not the death of a sinner but rather that he should turn from his wickedness and live: mercifully accept our prayers; that the heathen being delivered from the worship of idols may be united to thy holy Church to the honour and glory of thy Name. Through. Ry. Amen.

¶ Having finished the Prayers, the Priest lays aside his chasuble and goes to the Epistle horn of the Altar, where, standing at the back corner, he takes from the Deacon a Cross which has been previously made ready on the Altar. Turning towards the people, he partly uncovers it from the top, and begins alone the Antiphon Behold the wood of the Cross, after which the Ministers join in singing the rest as far as O come, let us worship. And when the Choir sings O come, let us worship, all bow down except the Celebrant. Then he goes to the front corner of the Epistle horn of the Altar: he uncovers the right arm of the Cross, and lifting it up a little, he begins at a slightly higher pitch: Behold the wood of the Cross, the others singing and worshipping as before. Lastly, the Priest goes to the middle of the Altar: and uncovering it entirely and lifting it up, he begins for the third time at a still higher pitch : Behold the wood of the Cross, the others singing and worshipping as before.

Behold the wood of the Cross, whereon was hung the world's Salvation.

Choir: R7. O come, let us worship.

¶ And afterward the Cross is carried by the Priest alone to the place made ready for it before the holy Table, and, genuflecting there, he sets it in place: next he lays aside his shoes, and approaches to worship the Cross, genuflecting thrice before he kisses it. Which done, he returns and takes again his shoes and the chasuble. Afterward the Ministers at the Altar, and then in order the rest of the Clerics and Laics, two by two proceed to worship the Cross, making three genuflections, as is noted above. Meantime, while the worship is performed, the Reproaches are sung, and the rest that follows, either all or in part, according to the many or few that come to worship the Cross: and the Priest, sitting at his seat, also reads them with the Ministers, after this manner:

Celebrant: $\normalfont{\%}$. O my people, what have I done unto thee, or wherein have I wearied thee? Testify against me.

Celebrant: V. We venerate thy Cross, O Lord: and praise and glorify thy holy Resurrection: for by virtue of the Cross joy hath come to the whole world.

Deacon & Subdeacon: R7. Faithful Cross, above all other, one and only noble Tree: none in foliage, none in blossom, none in fruit thy peer may be.

Sweetest wood, and sweetest iron, sweetest weight is hung on thee.

Celebrant: HYMN: $\sqrt[n]{}$. Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle, sing the ending of the fray; now above the Cross, the trophy, sound the loud triumphant lay: tell how Christ, the world's Redeemer, as a Victim won the day.

Deacon & Subdeacon: R7. Faithful Cross, above all other, one and only noble Tree: none in foliage, none in blossom, none in fruit thy peer may be.

Celebrant: \hat{V} . God in pity saw man fallen, shamed and sunk in misery, when he fell on death by tasting fruit of the forbidden tree: then another Tree was chosen which the world from death should free.

Deacon & Subdeacon: R7. Sweetest wood, and sweetest iron, sweetest weight is hung on thee.

Celebrant: \mathring{V} . Thus the scheme of our salvation was of old in order laid: that the manifold deceiver's art by art might be outweighed: and the lure the foe put forward into means of healing made.

Deacon & Subdeacon: R7. Faithful Cross.

Celebrant: V. Therefore when the appointed fullness of the holy time was come, he was sent, who maketh all things, forth from God's eternal home: thus he came to earth, incarnate, offspring of a maiden's womb.

Deacon & Subdeacon: Ry. Sweetest wood.

Celebrant: \tilde{V} . Lo! he lies an infant weeping, where the narrow manger stands: while the Mother-maid his members wraps in mean and lowly bands: and the swaddling clothes is winding round his helpless feet and hands.

Deacon & Subdeacon: Ry. Faithful Cross.

Celebrant: abla. Thirty years among us dwelling, his appointed time fulfilled, born for this, he meets his passion, for that this he freely willed; on the Cross the Lamb is lifted where his life-Blood shall be spilled.

Deacon & Subdeacon: R7. Sweetest wood.

Celebrant: abla. He endured the nails, the spitting, vinegar, and spear, and reed; from that holy Body broken Blood and Water forth proceed: earth, and stars, and sky, and ocean by that flood from stain are freed.

Deacon & Subdeacon: RJ. Faithful Cross.

Celebrant: \mathring{V} . Bend thy boughs, O Tree of glory! thy relaxing sinews bend; for a while the ancient rigour that thy birth bestowed, suspend: and the King of heavenly beauty on thy bosom gently tend.

Deacon & Subdeacon: R7. Sweetest wood.

Celebrant: \mathring{V} . Thou alone wast counted worthy this world's ransom to uphold: for a shipwrecked race preparing harbour, like the Ark of old: with the sacred Blood anointed from the smitten Lamb that rolled.

Deacon & Subdeacon: R7. Faithful Cross.

Celebrant: abla. To the Trinity be glory everlasting, as is meet: equal to the Father, equal to the Son, and Paraclete: Trinal Unity, whose praises all created things repeat. Amen.

Deacon & Subdeacon: R7. Sweetest wood.

¶ Toward the end of the Worship of the Cross the Altar candles are lighted: and the Deacon, taking the burse, spreads the corporal in the customary way, and near by sets the vase for the purification: and when the worship is finished, he takes the Cross with reverence and carries it back to the Altar. Afterward a Procession is made to the place where the Sacrament was laid yesterday. The Subdeacon goes first bearing the Cross between two Acolutes with lighted candles, and then the Clergy in due order, and last the Priest with the Ministers. When they have come to the place of the Sacrament, torches are lighted which shall not be extinguished until the Sacrament shall have been consumed. The Priest kneels before the Sacrament and prays awhile: in the meantime the Deacon opens the casket in which the Body of the Lord lies hidden: and afterward the Priest, rising, puts incense into two censers without any blessing, and the Deacon presents to him the Then he kneels and censes the Sacrament. And the Deacon, taking the chalice with the Sacrament out of the casket, gives it into the hands of the Priest, and covers it with the ends of the veil which is about his shoulders, and they go back in the same order as they came: and a canopy is carried over the Sacrament, and the two Acolytes with censers continually cense it: meanwhile is sung:

HYMN.

Vexilla Regis prodeunt.

THE royal banners forward go:
The Cross shines forth in mystic glow,
Where he in flesh, our flesh who made,
Our sentence bore, our ransom paid.

Where deep for us the spear was dyed, Life's torrent rushing from his side, To wash us in that precious flood, Where mingled Water flowed and Blood.

Fulfilled is all that David told, In true prophetic song of old: Amidst the nations, God, saith he, Hath reigned and triumphed from the Tree.

O Tree of beauty, Tree of light,
O Tree with royal purple dight,
Elect on whose triumphal breast
Those holy limbs should find their rest.

On whose dear arms so widely flung The weight of this world's ransom hung, The price of humankind to pay, And spoil the spoiler of his prey.

¶ The following verse is sung kneeling.

O Cross, our one reliance hail, So may thy power with us avail To give new virtue to the saint And pardon to the penitent.

To thee, eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done,
Whom by the Cross thou dost restore
Preserve and govern evermore. Amen.

When the Priest has come to the Altar, he places the chalice upon it, and kneeling again censes the Sacrament: then going up to the Altar he places the Host from the chalice on the paten, which the Deacon holds: and again taking the paten from the Deacon lays the Host upon the corporal, saying nothing. If he should have touched the Sacrament he washes his fingers in a vase. Meanwhile the Deacon puts wine into the chalice, and the Subdeacon water, which the Priest does not bless, nor say over it the usual prayer: taking the chalice from the Deacon, he sets it on the Altar, saying nothing: and the Deacon covers it with the pall: then he sets incense in the censer without blessing it, and censes the oblations and the Altar in the usual manner, genuflecting before and after, and whensoever he passes in front of the Sacrament.

When he censes the oblation, he says:

BLESS this incense, and take it up to thee, O Lord: and so let thy mercy come down upon us.

When he censes the Altar, he says:

Psalm 141.

ET my prayer, O Lord, be set forth in thy sight as the incense: and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice. Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and keep the door of my lips: O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing, let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness.

As he gives back the censer to the Deacon, he says:

MAY the Lord kindle in us the fire of his love, and the flame of his everlasting charity.

Amen.

He is not censed himself.

Afterward he washes his hands a little away from the Altar at the Epistle horn, saying nothing: then bowing down in the middle of the Altar, with hands joined, he says:

WITH humble spirits and contrite souls let us enter now thy presence, O Lord: and so offer our sacrifice to thee, that it may this day be precious in thy sight, O Lord our God.

Then turning towards the people, on the Gospel side, he says:

PRAY, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

He turns back by the same way, not completing the circle: and omitting all else, says immediately;

Let us pray.

As our Saviour Christ hath commanded and taught us, we are bold to say: Our Father, which art in heaven: Hallowed be thy Name: Thy kingdom come: Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation. R7. But deliver us from evil.

Then the Priest shall say silently Amen, and afterward, in the same voice as he said Our Father, immediately and without Let us pray, he shall begin this prayer following, and say it in the ferial tone used for the Collect at Mass.

DELIVER us, O Lord, we beseech thee, from all evils, past, present, and to come: and at the intercession of the blessed and glorious Ever-Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with thy blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and with Andrew, and all thy Saints (he does not sign himself with the paten), graciously grant us peace in all our days: that by thine availing mercy, we may ever both be free from sin and safe from all distress. Through the same Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Ry. Amen.

¶ Then the Celebrant, having made a reverence down to the ground, slides the paten beneath the Sacrament: and taking the Host in his right hand, he lifts it up so that it may be seen by the people: and immediately dividing it into three parts over the chalice, he shall place the last part into the chalice in the usual way, but saying nothing. The Peace of the Lord is not said, nor O Lamb of God, nor is the kiss of peace given. And afterward, having omitted the first two prayers, he shall say this one only:

O LORD JESU CHRIST, I, thine unworthy servant, do presume to take thy Body, but let not this act be to my judgment and damnation: rather, of thy mercy let it ward me in body and soul, and shew thy healing forth in me: Who livest and reignest with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Then shall he genuflect, and take the paten with Christ's Body: and with great reverence and humility say:

 I will receive the Bread of heaven, and call upon the Name of the Lord. Then he beats his breast thrice, and says at each:

Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only and my soul shall be healed.

Afterward he signs himself with the Sacrament, saying:

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my body and soul unto everlasting life. Amen.

And reverently receives the Body.

Then omitting all else which is wont to be said before taking the Sacrament of the Precious Blood, he forthwith consumes with reverence the particle of the Host with the wine. Then he washes his fingers in the accustomed manner; and takes the purification. Afterward, bowing down in the midst of the Altar, he says:

GRANT, O Lord, that what our mouths have taken, our minds may receive unalloyed: and what comes to us in time may be our healing in the endless years.

And nothing further is said, nor the Postcommunion, nor is the blessing given: but making a reverence to the Altar; the Priest and Ministers depart: and Evensong is said without chant: and the Altar is laid bare.

COLLECT.

RANT, O Lord, that as we are baptized into the death of thy blessed Son our Saviour Jesus Christ: so by continual mortifying our corrupt affections we may be buried with him; and that through the grave, and gate of death, we may pass to our joyful resurrection; for his merits, who died, and was buried, and rose again for us, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: Who liveth.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Peter the Apostle. 1 Peter 3. 17.

DEARLY beloved: It is better, if the will of God be so: that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God: being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison, which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing: wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water. The like figure whereunto, even baptism, doth also now save us, (not the putting away the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God, Angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

After which the Subdeacon does not ask a blessing, nor does he kiss the Priest's hand. Then is sung for the GRADUAL. Ps. 18. The sorrows of death compassed me: and the snares of death overtook me. V. Ps. 4. I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest.

At the Gospel lights shall not be carried, nor incense, nor shall the Deacon ask a blessing.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 27. 57.

AT that time: When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph: who also himself was Jesus' disciple. He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus: then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. Now the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, saving: Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was vet alive: After three days I will rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day: lest his disciples come by night and steal him away, and say unto the people: He is risen from the dead. So the last error shall be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them: Ye have a watch, go your way: make it as sure as you can. So they went and made the sepulchre sure: sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

After which the Priest shall not be censed, nor shall he kiss the Book, but having made the due reverence to the Holy Table, he shall depart with his Ministers. And going to the door of the Church, he shall proceed to bless the new fire and do that which followeth, except in places where these things be done in the night-time.

EASTER EVEN

At a suitable hour the Altars are covered, and the Offices said, but the candles on the Altar are not lighted until the beginning of Mass. In the meantime fire is struck from a flint without the Church, and coals are kindled from the fire.

The Office being finished, the Priest, vested in amice, alb, girdle, stole, and purple cope, or without the chasuble, accompanied by the Ministers with Cross, holy water, and incense, proceeds to the porch of the Church, if it may conveniently be done, or in

Blessing of the Paschal Candle B87 the entrance of the Church itself, and blesses the new fire, saying:

V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, who through thy Son, who is the true corner-stone, hast bestowed upon thy faithful people the fire of thy brightness: we beseech thee that thou wouldest sanct Hify this new fire, now struck by us from the flint-stone, to be profitable to our service: and grant unto us that by this paschal feast we may be so inflamed with heavenly desires; that we may with pure hearts and minds attain unto the feast of thy eternal brightness. Through the same Christ our Lord. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray.

LORD GOD, Father Almighty, who art light unfailing and the father of all lights: we beseech thee so to ble Hess this light which hath here been sanctified and blessed in thy Name, who hast enlightened the whole world: that we may be enkindled by thy light and enlightened with the fire of thy brightness: and like as thou didst enlighten Moses going forth from the land of Egypt, so do thou at this time enlighten our hearts and understandings, that we may be found worthy to attain unto the light of everlasting life. Through Christ our Lord. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray.

O LORD holy, Father Almighty, everlasting God: we pray thee that thou wouldest vouch-safe to assist us who here do bless this fire in thy Name, and in the Name of thy only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord and our God, and of the Holy Ghost: and we beseech thee likewise to assist us against all the fiery darts of the enemy, and to enlighten us with thy heavenly grace: Who livest and reignest with the same thy only-begotten Son and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. R7. Amen.

Then shall he bless the five grains of incense that shall be put in the candle, saying, without any preface, this prayer following.

TITE beseech thee, Almighty God, to pour down on this incense the abundance of thy bless-Hing: and as thou, thyself unseen, art the regenerator of all mankind, so now we pray thee kindle a light to lighten our darkness; that both our sacrifice to be offered on this night may be made bright by the inward presence of thy holy light, and that all places wheresoever light shall be brought from this mystery here sanctified by us, may by the same be relieved from the crafts and assaults of the devil, and filled with the mighty power of thy heavenly majesty. Through Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

¶ And while he is blessing the grains of incense, an Acolyte takes some of the blessed coals and places them in the censer: and the above Prayer ended, the Priest sets incense in the censer from the boat, and blesses it in the customary manner. Then he thrice sprinkles with holy water the aforementioned grains of incense and the fire, saying: Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, without intoning it, nor adding the Psalm, and he censes them thrice.

Meanwhile all the lights in the Church are extinguished, so that they may be presently lighted afresh from the New Fire. Then the Deacon, vesting himself in a white dalmatic, takes the reed upon the top of which are set three candles in the shape of a triangle. And the Thurifer goes first with an Acolyte, bearing in a basin the five grains of incense: the Subdeacon follows with the Cross, afterward the Clergy in due order: next the Deacon with the reed, and after him the Celebrant. When the Deacon has come into the Church, he lowers the reed, and an Acolyte bringing a taper lighted from the New Fire lights one of the three candles on the reed: and the Deacon lifting up the reed, genuflects (all likewise genuflecting with him, save the Subdeacon who bears the Cross) and sings alone:

The Light of Christ. Ry. Thanks be to God.

And going on to the middle of the Church, there another candle is lighted: and again genuflecting as before, he sings at a higher pitch:

The Light of Christ. Ry. Thanks be to God.

The third time he goes up before the Altar, where the third candle is lighted: and genuflecting again as before, he sings at a pitch still higher:

The Light of Christ. R7. Thanks be to God.

Then the Celebrant goes up to the Lord's Table, at the Epistle horn: and the Deacon gives the reed to one of the Acolytes: and taking the book, asks a blessing from the Celebrant, as at the Gospel, the Priest saying:

The Lord be in thy heart and lips: that rightly and meetly thou mayest proclaim his paschal praise: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, H and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Afterward he goes to the desk, and placing thereon the book, he censes it. Upon the right hand of the Deacon stand the Subdeacon with the Cross, and the Thurifer: upon his left hand stand two Acolytes, the one who holds the reed, and another having in a basin the five grains of blessed incense which are to be fixed in the candle. Then all rising and standing, as if for the Gospel, the Deacon sings:

D EJOICE now, all ye heavenly legions of Angels: all high things that pass understanding: for the King that cometh with victory, let the trumpet proclaim salvation. Sing with joy, O earth, illumined with this celestial radiancy: and enlightened by the eternal God, thy glory, believe and know thou hast put away all the darkness of all mankind. So likewise let our Mother, his holy Church, welcome the bright beams of light shed on her: and let his holy courts be filled with the praises of his people. I pray and beseech you therefore, dearly beloved, that all ye who here are present seeking this heavenly brightness, make your supplication with me to the Almighty, that he would shew forth his mercy toward me. That he who in my unworthiness numbered me among his Ministers and called me to do him service: so also may vouchsafe to lighten my darkness, making me meet to praise this gift of fire with thankfulness. Through Jesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer: who liveth and reigneth with him in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God.

World without end. Ry. Amen.

Ÿ. The Lord be with you. R7. And with thy spirit. Ÿ. Lift up your hearts. R7. We lift them Blessing of the Paschal Candle B 91 up to the Lord. V. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God. Ry. It is meet and right so to do.

TT is very meet and right, that with the service of our lips we should glorify and should praise with heart and soul God the Invisible and Almighty, and likewise his only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Who paid for us to the eternal Father the debt of Adam's transgression: and with his dear Blood wiped away the reproach of our former offences. Now therefore we sacrifice our Passover, wherein for us the very Lamb of God is slain, by whose Blood the doors of his faithful people are made holy. The night is come, wherein, when our fathers, the children of Israel, were led forth out of Egypt, thou dividest the sea and madest them to pass over as on dry land. Yea, the night is come, that with the fiery pillar hath purged away the darkness of our condemnation. The night is come, whereby all that believe in Christ upon the face of all the earth, delivered from this naughty world and out of the shadow of death, are renewed unto grace, and are made partakers of eternal life. The night is come, wherein the bonds of death were loosed, and Christ harrowing hell rose again in triumph. For wherefore should man be born into this world, save that being born he might be re-How wonderful then, O God, is thy loving-kindness unto us thy children! Behold, what manner of love he hath bestowed upon us: who to redeem a servant, delivered up his only Son! O wonderful providence of Adam's transgression, that by such a death sin might be done away! O blessed iniquity, for whose redemption such a price was paid by such a Saviour! O night verily blessed, to thee alone that time and that hour were made manifest, when our Saviour Christ rose again from death unto life! The night is come, whereof David said: Behold the night is as clear as the day: Then shall my night be turned into day. The mystery therefore of this most holy night putteth to flight the deeds of darkness, purgeth away sin: restoreth innocence to the fallen, and gladness unto all them that mourn. Casteth out all hatred, bringeth peace to all mankind, and boweth down mighty princes.

Here the Deacon fixes the five grains of blessed incense into the candle in the form of a Cross, on this wise:

THEREFORE, in this thy favourable time, accept, O holy Father, this our evening sacrifice of incense: which as at this time thy holy Church maketh before thee, and offereth to thee by the hands of thy servants, the works of the creatures which thou hast made. Ye hear, brethren, the meaning of this pillar we have set up, whereunto in God's honour the bright flame of fire doth set light.

Here the Deacon lights the candle from one of the three tapers on the reed.

Which though it be never so much divided, yet knoweth not variableness nor loseth ought of its splendour. For the wax that melteth doth but feed the flame, for thereunto have the creatures of God's hand brought it forth, that it should give light in darkness. Here the lamps are lighted.

NIGHT, verily blessed, which did spoil the people of Egypt and magnified the Hebrews! O night, wherein heaven and earth are joined, and mankind partaketh with the Godhead. We pray thee, therefore, O most Merciful: that this candle which we have lighted and consecrated before thee in thine own Name, may continue to shine forth without ceasing, and may vanquish all the shades of darkness. That being accepted before thee as a sweet savour, it may be numbered with the lights that thou hast kindled. May the day-star find it burning when he dawneth into day. The day-star that riseth and knoweth not his going down. But coming forth from the places of darkness gladly giveth forth light unto all creation. We beseech thee, therefore, O most Merciful: that thou wouldest direct and guide us thy servants, and the hearts of all thy faithful family: and all those also that minister in thy service; especially N, our Chief Bishop and thy servant N, our Bishop, so helping us with continual grace, that we may pass our time in rest and quietness, in the glad solemnity of our Redemption.

Through the same Jesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer: Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost: ever one God, world without end. R7. Amen.

[¶] The blessing of the candle ended, the Deacon, laying aside his white vestments, arrays himself in purple and goes to the Celebrant. And the Priest puts off his cope, and takes a maniple and chasuble of purple. Afterward are read the Prophecies, without any announcement, and at the end is not said, Thanks be to God. And, meanwhile, the Celebrant reads them in a low voice at the Epistle horn of the Altar. At the end of each Prophecy is said the Prayer that followeth. And while the Prophecies are in reading, or before the reading, the Priests put the questions to those that come to be baptized, and prepare them for the Baptism.

PROPHECY THE FIRST.

Gen. 1. 1-31 and 2. 1-2.

TN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said: Let there be light. And there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night: and the evening and the morning were the first day. And God said: Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters: and let it divide the waters from the waters. And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament. And it was so. And God called the firmament Heaven: and the evening and the morning were the second day. And God said: Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place: and let the dry land appear. And it was so. And God called the dry land Earth: and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas. And God saw that it was good. And God said: Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree vielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth. And it was so. And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree vielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind. And God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the third day. And God said: Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night, and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth. And it was so. God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day: and the lesser light to rule the night. He made the stars also. And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth. And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the fourth day. And God said: Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind. And God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying: Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas: and let fowl multiply in the earth. And the evening and the morning were the fifth day. And God said: Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind: cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind. And it was so. And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind. And God saw that it was good, and God said: Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image: in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them: Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. And God said: Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree, yielding seed, to you it shall be for meat: and to every beast of the earth. and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat. And it was so. And God saw every thing that he had made: and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made: and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

Which ended, the Priest says: Let us pray. Deacon: Let us bow the knee, and Subdeacon: Arise.

PROPHECY THE SECOND.

Gen. 5, 6, 7 and 8.

AND Noah was five hundredy ears old, and Noah hegat Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And it came to pass when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair, and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the Lord said: My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: vet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. There were giants in the earth in those days. And also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually, and it repented the Lord that he had made man on the And it grieved him at his heart, and the Lord said: I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air : for it repenteth me that I have made them. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. are the generations of Noah. Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God. And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt. (for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth) and God said unto Noah: The end of all flesh is come before me: for the earth is filled with violence through them, and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth. Make thee an ark of gopher wood: rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch. And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of : The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits. the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits. A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above: and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof: with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it. And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven. And every thing that is in the earth shall die. But with thee will I establish my covenant: and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee. And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark to keep them alive with thee: they shall be male and female. Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind: two of every sort shall come unto thee to keep them alive. And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee: and it shall be for food for thee, and for them. Thus did Noah according to all that God commanded him. so did he. And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth. The same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened: and the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark: they, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind. and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort. And the ark went upon the face of the waters. And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth: and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered. Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail, and the mountains were covered. And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. And Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark. And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days. And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark, and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged. The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped: and the rain from heaven was restrained. And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated. And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made. and he sent forth a rayen, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth. Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground: But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark. And he stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark; And the dove came in to him in the evening, and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. And he staved vet other seven days: and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him any more. And God spake unto Noah, saying: Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee. Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth: that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth. And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him. Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark. And Noah builded an altar unto the Lord: and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour.

PROPHECY THE THIRD.

Gen. 22. 1-19.

In those days: God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him: Abraham. And he said: Behold. here I am. And he said: Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah: and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of. And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass: and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. And clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him. Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off: and Abraham said unto his young men: Abide ve here with the ass: and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you. And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son: and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife. And they went both of them together. And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said: My father. And he said: Here am I, my son. And he said: Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? And Abraham said: My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering. So they went both of them together: and they came to the place which God had told him of, and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order; and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. And Abraham stretched forth his hand and took the knife to slav his son. And the Angel of the Lord called unto him out of heaven, and said : Abraham, Abraham: And he said: Here am I. And he said: Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me. Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. And Abraham called the name of that place. Jehovah-jireh. As it is said to this day: In the mount of the Lord it shall be seen. And the angel of the Lord called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, And said: By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord: for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore: and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies, And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba, and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

PROPHECY THE FOURTH.

Exod. 14. 24-31 and 15. 1.

IN those days: It came to pass, that in the morning watch the Lord looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians: and took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily. So that the Egyptians said: Let us flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians. And the Lord said unto Moses: Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength: and the Egyptians fled against it, and the Lord overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them: there remained not so much as one of them. But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left: thus the Lord saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians. And Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore, and Israel saw that great work which the Lord did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and his servant Moses. Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, and spake, saying:

PROPHECY THE FIFTH.

Is. 54. 17 and 55. 1-11.

THIS is the heritage of the servants of the Lord: and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ve to the waters: and he that hath no money, come ye, buy, and eat: yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Wherefore do ve spend money for that which is not bread and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Incline your ear, and come unto me : hear, and your soul shall live, and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold. I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not : and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel, for he hath glorified thee. Seek ve the Lord while he may be found: call ye upon him while he is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God: for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts: neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater : so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth : it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it: saith the Lord Almighty.

PROPHECY THE SIXTH.

Baruch 3. 9-38.

HEAR, Israel, the commandments of life: give ear to understand wisdom. How happeneth it, Israel, that thou art in thine enemies' land, that thou art waxen old in a strange country, that thou art defiled with the dead, that thou art counted with them that go down into the grave? Thou hast forsaken the fountain of wisdom. For if thou hadst walked in the way of God, thou shouldest have dwelled in peace for ever. Learn where is wisdom, where is strength, where is understanding: that thou mayest know also where is length of days, and life, where is the light of the eyes, and peace. Who hath found out her place? or who hath come into her treasures? Where are the princes of the heathen become, and such as ruled the beasts upon the earth; they that had their pastime with the fowls of the air, and they that hoarded up silver and gold, wherein men trust, and made no end of their getting? For they that wrought in silver, and were so careful, and whose works are unsearchable. They are vanished and gone down to the grave, and others are come up in their steads. Young men have seen light, and dwelt upon the earth: but the way of knowledge have they not known, nor understood the paths thereof, nor laid hold of it; their children were far off from that way. It hath not been heard of in Chanaan, neither hath it been seen in Theman. The Agarenes that seek wisdom upon earth, the merchants of Meran and of Theman, the authors of fables, and searchers out of understanding; none of these have known the way of wisdom, or remember her paths. O Israel, how great is the house of God! and how large is the place of his possession! Great, and hath none end; high, and unmeasurable. There were the giants famous from the beginning. that were of so great stature, and so expert in war. Those did not the Lord choose, neither gave he the way of knowledge unto them: but they were destroyed, because they had no wisdom, and perished through their own foolishness. Who hath gone up into heaven, and taken her, and brought her down from the clouds? Who hath gone over the sea, and found her, and will bring her for pure gold? No man knoweth her way, nor thinketh of her path. But he that knoweth all things knoweth her, and hath found her out with his understanding: he that prepared the earth for evermore hath filled it with fourfooted beasts: He that sendeth forth light, and it goeth, calleth it again, and it obeyeth him with fear. The stars shined in their watches. and rejoiced: when he calleth them, they say: Here we be: and so with cheerfulness they shewed light unto him that made them. This is our God, and there shall none other be accounted of in comparison of him. He hath found out all the way of knowledge, and hath given it unto Jacob his servant, and to Israel his beloved. Afterward did he shew himself upon earth, and conversed with men.

Ezek. 37. 1-14.

IN those days: The hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the Lord: and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones: and caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley, and, lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me: Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered: O Lord God, thou knowest. Again he said unto me: Prophesy upon these bones: and say unto them: O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin: and put breath in you, and ye shall live, and ye shall know that I am the Lord. So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking: and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them: and the skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

Then said he unto me: Prophesy unto the wind. prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind: Thus saith the Lord God: Come from the four winds. O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me: and the breath came into them, and they lived: and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said unto me: Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say: Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost; we are cut off for our parts. Therefore prophesy and say unto them: Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves: and bring you into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves: and shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land; saith the Lord Almighty.

Jonah 3. 1-10.

In those days: The word of the Lord came unto Jonah the second time, saving: Arise go unto Ionah the second time, saying: Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city: and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey: and he cried, and said: Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. So the people of Nineveh believed God: and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king of Nineveh: and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles. saying: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water: But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God, yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent: and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes. and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to record against them. For I know that after my death ve will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you: and evil will befall you in the latter days, because ve will do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands. PROPHECY THE TWELFTH.

Dan. 3. 1-24.

IN those days: Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits, he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon, Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Then the princes. the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Then an herald cried aloud: To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages: That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up. And whose falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick: all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near. and accused the Jews. They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar: O king, live for ever: thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image: And whose falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them: Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? Now if ve be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made: well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace: and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king: O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury: and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated. And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery fur-Then these men were bound in their coats. their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. And they walked in the midst of the flame praising God, and blessing the Lord.

And these ended, if there be a Font for Baptism in the Church, the Priest who is to bless the Font vests himself in a purple cope, and preceded by the Cross, with candles and the Paschal Candle lighted, comes to the Font with the Clergy and the Ministers, ready vested: meanwhile is sung the following:

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, mercifully look upon the devout prayers of thy servants now seeking regeneration and desiring the fountain of thy waters, even as the hart desireth the waterbrooks: and of thy goodness grant that they who thirst after thy faith may in this mystery of thy holy Baptism obtain sanctification both of body and soul. Through. Ry. Amen.

Afterward he proceeds to bless the Font, saying:

V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, assist, we pray thee, this mystery and Sacrament of thy infinite loving-kindness: and for the regeneration of these persons now seeking to be born again in the waters of Baptism send forth upon them the spirit of adoption; that this office and ministry of us thy unworthy servants may effectually be fulfilled in them by thy mighty power. Through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost.

Raising his voice to the tone of the Preface, he proceeds with joined hands:

T is very meet, right, and our bounden duty that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord holy, Father almighty, Everlasting God. Who, working by thy invisible power, dost wonderfully bestow upon thy servants effectual means of grace: And though we be unworthy to be partakers of these holy mysteries: Thou leavest us not destitute of the gifts of thy grace, but mercifully inclinest thine ear to these our supplications. O God, whose Spirit moved over the waters, when the earth was without form and void at its creation: that even then the face of the waters might receive the virtue of purging all defilement: O God, who for the destruction of sinners didst once drown all the world, and by the saving of eight persons didst shew forth in a figure our regeneration: that by the mystery of this one element of water thou mightest make an end of sin, and give birth unto righteousness. Regard favourably, O Lord, the prayers of this thy family, and make the grace of thy regeneration to abound in us, for thou dost with the rivers of thy plenteous mercy make glad the city of thy redeemed: and openest unto us fountains of blessing through the whole world for the healing of nations: that, at the Word of thy majesty, grace may be bestowed on it from thine only Son, through the Holy Ghost.

Here the Priest divides with his open hand the water in the form of a Cross, and forthwith wiping his hand with a napkin, says:

May he sanctify by the secret operation of his power this water to the mystical washing away of sin: that having received sanctification, and being born again without spot of defilement, it may be found a new creature, that springeth from the living water: That young and old, both men and women, that henceforth shall be baptized herein, may all become thy children and heirs of thy heavenly promises. Speak the word, O Lord, and drive away speedily unclean spirits and all things that may hurt us: banish from us by thy Name all the snares and assaults of the devil. And may our ghostly enemy have no power at all to encompass us: to deceive our hearts by his subtilty: to waylay us in secret: and spread abroad the leaven of malice.

He touches the water with his hand.

May this holy, and undefiled creation, seeing that the son of wickedness may not approach it, nor the stain of iniquity come near to defile it, be a fountain that doth regenerate, streams that do purify: may all they that by this means shall be dedicated before thee, by the operation of the Holy Ghost, receive the grace of redemption and remission of their offences.

He makes three crosses over the Font, saying:

Therefore do I hallow thee, O thou gift of water, by God H that liveth, by God H the faithful, by God H the holy: by God, who in the beginning by his word divided the land from thee: by whose Spirit the waters were overshadowed.

Here he divides the water with his hand, and scatters it towards the four corners of the earth, saying:

Who did ordain that thou shouldst issue out of Eden and be parted from thence diversely, giving plenty to all his creation. Likewise in the desert of Marah he did turn thy bitterness into sweetness, and made thee to come forth out of the rock for his people. In the Name of his only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ do I hall-low thee, Gift of water: for he did change thee into wine in proof of his omnipotence, when he was bidden to the wedding at Cana. Who walked upon thee to his disciples: and was baptized in thee in Jordan, making John his Who moreover did mingle thee with Blood from his side at his passion: and commanded his faithful servants, that believing they should be washed in thee, saying: Go ye, and teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Changing his voice, he proceeds in the tone of the Lesson:

ALMIGHTY GOD, mercifully assist our prayers, who here observe these thy commandments: and of thy great goodness prosper our petitions.

He breathes thrice on to the water in the form of a cross, saying:

Enable by thy word and power the weakness of this water: that like as by nature it doeth service unto the purifying of the body, so by thy grace it may effectually cleanse our souls.

Here the Priest lowers the Candle into the water a little way: and going back to the tone of the Preface, says:

May the power of the Holy Ghost be poured out on this Font we have filled.

Then taking the Candle out of the water, he dips it again more deeply, repeating: May the power. Afterward the Candle is again taken out of the water and the third time is dipped to the bottom of the Font, the Priest repeating at a still higher pitch: May the power, as above. And then breathing thrice on the water in this form Ψ , he proceeds:

And make this water to be effectual unto the washing away of transgression.

The Candle is taken out of the water, and he continues:

May every stain of our iniquity here be cleansed: may our nature be restored to its perfect fashioning, and be conformed again to thine own image of righteousness, may it be redeemed from the old sins of its conversation: that every person, being born again by the sacrament he hath here received, may be restored verily unto the innocence of thy children. And the rest he reads: Through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Who shall come to judge the quick and the dead, and the world by fire. Ry. Amen.

Then the water that has been blessed is sprinkled over the people by the assisting Priests. And meantime, one of the ministers of the Church takes out a quantity of the water in a large vessel, so that it may be kept for blessing houses and other places. Which done, the Priest who is blessing the Font pours into the water in the form of a cross some of the oil of the Catechumens, saying with an audible voice:

May this Oil of salvation make this font holy, and cause it to multiply that those who find herein their new birth may come to life everlasting. R7. Amen.

Then he pours in some of the Chrism in the same manner as before, saying:

May this mingling of the Chrism of Jesus Christ our Lord, and of the Holy Ghost the Paraclete, be wrought in the Name of the most holy Trinity. R7. Amen.

Lastly he takes both phials of these oils and pours them both together in the form of a cross, saying:

May this commingling of the Chrism of salvation and of the Oil of unction and of the Water of Baptism likewise be wrought in the Name of the Falther, and of the Solon, and of the Holy of Ghost. Ry. Amen.

Then he mingles the Oil and water, and scatters it over the Font with his hand. If there are any to be baptized, he baptizes them after the usual manner. Then the Priest and Ministers return to the Altar and the Litany is sung by two Cantors, and the Choir repeat it also together, as is directed below.

¶ But where there is no baptismal Font, when the last Prophecy and Collect is ended, the Celebrant lays aside his chasuble, and with the Ministers lies prostrate before the Altar: and all kneeling, the Litany is chanted by two Cantors in the midst of the Quire, and both sides of the Choir make the responses together. But when they come to Ŋ. O Christ hear us.

O Christ graciously hear us.

And here the Cantors solemnly intone Kýrie eléison, Christe eléison, Kýrie eléison, and repeat each invocation thrice. Meanwhile the Priest with his Ministers all in white vestments approach the Altar: and having said the Psalm Give sentence, with Glory be, he makes the Confession, as he is accustomed, in the appointed place: then going up, he kisses the Altar, censes it in the usual manner, and as soon as the Choir shall have finished the Kýrie eléison, he begins with solemnity Glory be to God on high, and the bells are set ringing.

Afterward the Priest says:

V. The Lord be with you. R7. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, who as on this most holy night hast sent forth the glorious light of the Resurrection of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord: preserve, we pray thee, in these persons, now made incorporate in thy family, the spirit of adoption which thou hast given them; that they being regenerate both in body and soul may in all sincerity obey thy holy will. Through the same.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Colossians. Col. 3. 1.

BRETHREN: If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God: set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear: then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

The Epistle ended, the Celebrant begins:

Alleluia.

And he sings the chant through thrice, in a pitch a little higher each time: and the Choir after each time repeat it in the same manner. Afterward the Choir proceeds:

V. Ps. 118. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Then is said the TRACT. Ps. 117. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: praise him, all ye nations. V. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more towards us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever.

At the Gospel lights are not carried, but incense only: a blessing is asked, and the rest is done as usual.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 28. 1.

In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And behold there was a great earthquake. For the Angel of the Lord descended from heaven: and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it: his countenance was like lightning: and his raiment white as snow. And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the Angel answered and said unto the women: Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified: he is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead: and behold he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him. Lo, I have told you.

The Creed is not said, but the Gospel finished, the Priest says: The Lord be with you, and afterwards: Let us pray. The Offertory is not said, and at the end of the Psalm, at the Lavabo, is said Glory be.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to accept the prayers and oblations of thy people: that this beginning of thy Paschal Mysteries may by the operation of thy grace be unto us a wholesome medicine unto everlasting life. Through.

PREFACE of Easter. But chiefly on this night are we bound to praise thee.

WITHIN THE ACTION.

AND here we do give unto thee most high praise and hearty thanks: On this most holy night, whereon Jesus Christ our Lord did rise again in his own flesh: For the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all thy Saints, from the beginning of the world: And chiefly in the glorious and most blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord and God, and in the holy Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles, and Martyrs, whose examples, O Lord, and steadfastness in thy faith, and keeping thy holy commandments, grant us to follow.

Holding his hands spread out over the Oblation, he says:

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption: who made there by his one oblation, of himself once offered, on behalf also of those whom thou hast been pleased to regenerate by water and the Holy Ghost, granting unto them remission of all their sins, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, etc., and the rest as in the Canon.

The Peace of the Lord be alway with you is said, but the Kiss of Peace is not given. O Lamb of God is not said, nor the Postcommunion: but the customary Prayers before Communion are said.

After the reception of the Sacrament, in place of Evensong in Quire is chanted this Antiphon:

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, and Ps. 117.

PRAISE the Lord, all ye heathen: * praise him, all ye nations.

For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: * and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: * world without end. Amen.

Antiphon: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Lesson, Hymn and Versicle are not said, but at once the Celebrant starts to intone the Antiphon to the Magnificat.

In the end of the sabbath.

And the Choir continues: As it began to dawn toward the first day of the week: came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre, alleluia.

Then is sung the Magnificat with Glory be at the end, and the censing is done as at other times at Evensong.

Afterward the Antiphon is repeated, and (the Lesson and Nunc Dimittis read) at the end the Celebrant says:

V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, pour into our hearts thy spirit of charity: that as thou hast now fulfilled us with this Paschal Sacrament, so we may by thy mercy be enabled to dwell together in unity and concord. Through Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same Spirit.

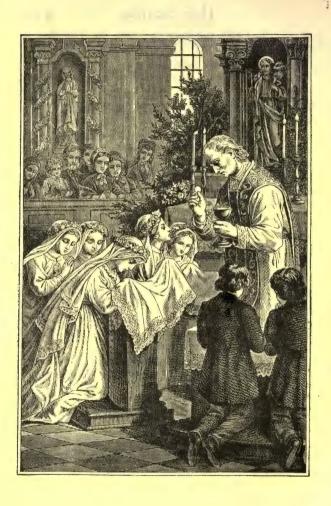

Then he says: The Lord be with you.

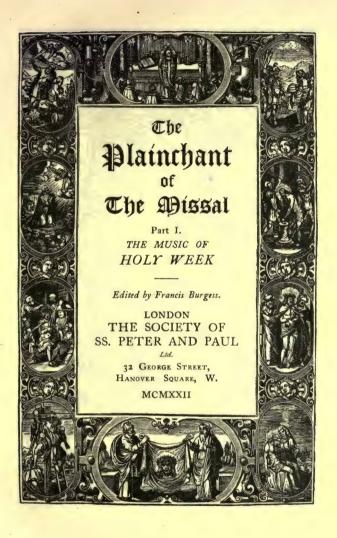

And the Deacon turning himself to the people, sings:

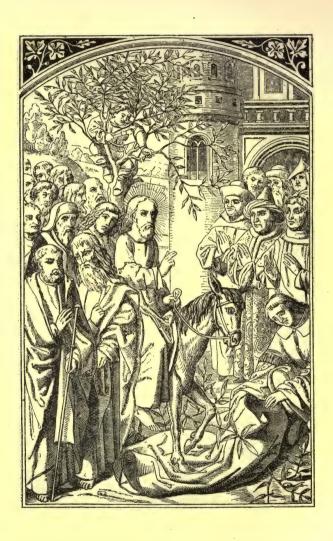

Depart in peace, alleluia, alleluia.

R7. Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia.

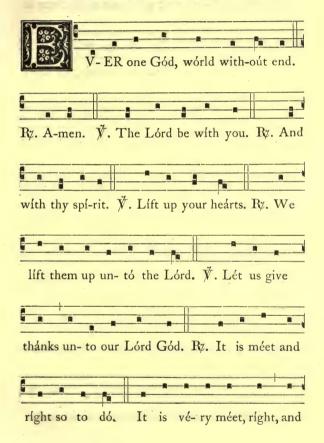

And the Priest, having said May it please thee, O holy Trinity, gives the blessing in the accustomed manner.

Subdeacon. Ry. A-rise.

¶ The Prayer following is chanted in the ferial tone of the Collect at Mass.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast in Christ made manifest thy glory unto all mankind: we beseech thee that thou wouldest preserve those things which of thy mercy thou hast created; that thy Church being spread abroad through all the world may steadfastly abide in the confession of thy holy Name. Through the same. Ry. Amen.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, whose judgment upholdeth all things both in heaven and earth: we beseech thee mercifully to have respect unto our prayers, that like as thou hast appointed this thy servant to be our Bishop so thou wouldest of thy mercy defend him against all adversities; and that all Christian peoples, acknowledging thee alone to be their author and governour, may so prosper by his care that they may duly increase in bringing forth the fruits of their profession. Through. Ry. Amen.

¶ Then the water that has been blessed is sprinkled over the people by the assisting Priests. Pouring Oil into the Font, in the form of a Cross, the Priest says:

May this Oil of salvation make this font holy, and cause it to multiply that those who find herein their new birth may come to life everlasting. Rz. Amen.

¶ Pouring the Chrism, he says:

May this mingling of the Chrism of Jesus Christ our Lord, and of the Holy Ghost the Paraclete, be wrought in the Name of the most holy Trinity. Ry. Amen.

¶ Pouring both together, he says:

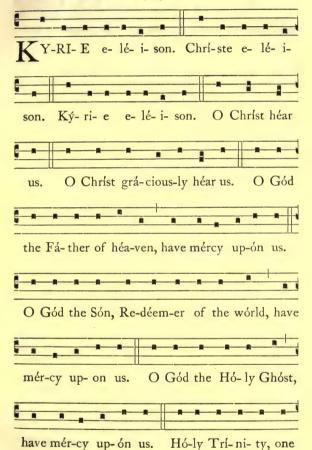

May this commingling of the Chrism of salvation and of the Oil of unction & of the Water of Baptism likewise be wrought in the Name of the Faxther, and of the Sxon, and of the Holy & Ghost. Rz. Amen.

¶ Then he mingles the Oil and water, and scatters it over the font with his hand. If there be any to be baptized, he baptizes them.

The Creed.

BELIEVE IN ONE GOD, The Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God. Begotten of his Father before all worlds. God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God. Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father: By whom all things were made. Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven. (Here genuflect) And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary: And was made man. And was crucified also for us: under Pontius Pilate, he suffered and was buried. And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures. And ascended into heaven: And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Ghost the Lord, and giver of Life: Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son. Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified: Who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one Holy Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the Resurrection of the dead. And the life of the world to come. Amen.

After the offering of the Oblations, the Priest kisses the Altar, and turning to the people, extending and joining his hands, says: Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church, militant here in earth, And the R_I is made as above. The Priest proceeds in a low voice:

I. FOR THE CHURCH.

LMIGHTY & EVERLIVING GOD.

who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks, for all men: We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to accept our alms and oblations, and to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy Divine Majesty; beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord.

2. FOR UNITY IN THE CHURCH.

AND grant, that all they that do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity, and godly love.

3. FOR THE KING AND COUNCIL.

WE beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian kings, princes, and governours; and specially thy servant, N., our King: that under him we may be godly and quietly governed: and grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion, and virtue.

4. FOR PRELATES AND PRIESTS.

GIVE grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments.

5. FOR THE CONGREGATION.

AND to all thy people give thy heavenly grace: and specially to this congregation here present: that, with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear, and receive thy holy Word; truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

6. FOR THE TEMPTED AND TRIED.

AND we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all them, who in this transitory life are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

7. FOR GRACE TO FOLLOW THE SAINTS.

AND we also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear: beseeching thee to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom: Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake:

Our only Mediator and Advocate. R7. Amen.

On the Mativity of our Lord.

The following Preface is said in Masses of Christmas; and in all Masses throughout the Octave, even in those which have another Preface, provided that a Commemoration of the Octave be made in them. It is also said in the Mass of the Sunday within the Octave of Christmas if it be resumed after January 1st, in Masses of the Vigil of the Epiphany, on the Purification of Blessed Mary, on the Feast of Corpus Christi, and on the Sunday within the Octave of Corpus Christi, if a Commemoration of the Octave be not omitted. Also on the Transfiguration of our Lord, and on the Feast of the Most Holy Name of Jesus. It is also said, according to the Rubrics, in all Masses in which a Commemoration has been made of any of the Offices mentioned above, or which are celebrated within their Octaves (where they have them) or between the 2nd and 4th of January inclusive, unless the Mass itself or a prior Commemoration, requires another Preface.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places give thanks unto thee, O Lord holy, Father almighty, everlasting God. Because thou didst give Jesus Christ, thine only Son, to be born (as on this day or night, or as at this time) for us: who, by the operation of the Holy Ghost, was made very man of the substance of the Virgin Mary his mother; and that without spot of sin, to make us clean from all sin. Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most High. Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

LL glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that thou of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Iesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who, by his own oblation of himself once offered, made a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world, and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue a perpetual memorial of that his precious death and sacrifice until his coming again.

For, in the night that he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take, eat,

The Oblation.

Wherefore, O Lord, and heavenly Father, according to the institution of thy dearly beloved Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, we thy humble servants do celebrate * and * make here before thy divine Majesty, with these * thy H holy H gifts, which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed Passion, and precious Death, his mighty Resurrection, and glorious Ascension; rendering unto thee most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same, and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

The Invocation.

nd, humbly praying that It may be unto us according to his word, we thine unworthy servants beseech thee, most merciful Father, to hear us, and to send thy Holy Spirit upon us and upon these * thy gifts and creatures of bread * and * wine, that, being blessed and hallowed by his life-giving power, they may become the Body Hand H Blood of thy most dearly beloved Son, to the end that all who shall receive the same may be sanctified both in body and soul, and preserved unto everlasting life.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his Blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion.

And here we humbly offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee, beseeching thee that all we who shall bepartakers of this Hholy H Communion, may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be fulfilled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, and made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him.

And we commend especially to thy merciful goodness the congregation which is here assembled in thy Name, to celebrate the commemoration of the most precious death and sacrifice of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all those who in this transitorylife are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

And we also bless thy A holy Name for all thy servants, who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labours. And we yield unto thee most high praise and hearty thanks, for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all thy saints, who have been the choice vessels of thy grace, and the lights of the world in their several generations: most humbly beseeching thee to give us grace to follow the example of their steadfastness in thy faith, and obedience to thy holy commandments, that at the day of the general resurrection, we, and all they who are of the mystical body of thy Son, may be set on his right hand, and hear that his most joyful voice: Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you the foundation of Jesus Christ.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Colossians. Col. 3. 1.

BRETHREN: If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God: set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth: fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things' sake

AT that time: On the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was vet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Iesus loved, and saith unto them: They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre. and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And he, stooping down and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying: yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie; and the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre: and he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again unto their own home. The Creed is said.

Acts 10. 34.

TN those days: Peter opened his mouth, and said: Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all;) that word (I say) ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea: and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost, and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew, and hanged on a tree. Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he who was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his Name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

AT that time: Behold, two of his disciples went That same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them: but their eyes were holden, that they should not know him. And he said unto them: What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad? And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said unto him: Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days? And he said unto them: What things? And they said unto him: Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word, before God and all the people; and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him. But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel; and besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done. Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre, and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of Angels, which said that he was alive. And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre and found it even so as the women had said, but him they saw not. Then he said unto them: O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further. But they constrained him, saving: Abide with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them. And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread. and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him, and he vanished out of their sight. And they said one to another: Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the Scriptures? And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying: The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread. The Creed is said.

In those days: Paul stood up, and beckening with his hand, said: Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor vet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him: and though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree. and laid him in a sepulchre. But God raised him from the dead: and he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem: who are his witnesses unto the people. And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers: God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again: as it is also written in the second Psalm: Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise: I will give you the sure mercies of David. Wherefore he saith also in another Psalm: Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: but he whom God raised again saw no corruption. Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the prophets: Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ve shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

Acts 3. 12.

I N those days: Peter opened his mouth and said: Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus, whom ve delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto vou: and killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses. And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ve did it, as did also your rulers. But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out.

AT that time: Jesus shewed himself again to The disciples at the sea of Tiberias. And on this wise shewed he himself. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. Peter saith unto them: I go a fishing. They say unto him: We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately: and that night they caught nothing. But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Then Jesus saith unto them: Children, have ye any meat? They answered him: No. And he said unto them: Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore: and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter: It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea. And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits.) dragging the net with fishes. As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. Jesus saith unto them: Bring of the fish which ye have now caught. Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three. And for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken. Iesus said unto them: Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him: Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise. Acts 8. 26.

In those days: The Angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying: Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza: which is desert. And he arose and went. And, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure. and had come to Jerusalem for to worship: was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. Then the Spirit said unto Philip: Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said: Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said: How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him. The place of the scripture which he read was this: He was led as a sheep to the slaughter: and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth. In his humiliation his judgment was taken away. And who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. And the eunuch answered Philip, and said: I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus. And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said: See, here is water: what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said: If thou believest with all thine heart, thou And he answered and said: I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more. And he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea, the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

DEARLY beloved: Christ hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious: ve also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture: Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, and a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people: that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

¶ From to-day until the Octave of Pentecost, both in the Office of the Season and in that of the Saints, the Gradual is not said: but in its place are said two versicles with four Alleluias, in the order below: except in Masses of the Rogation Days, and of the Vigil of Pentecost, in which is said one Alleluia, with one versicle: similarly also after any Lesson on Ember Saturday after Pentecost. At other times up to Septuagesima, when the Gradual is said, three Alleluias are said after the Gradual, two before the V. and one after the V.: but when the Sequence is said, the Alleluia which should be said after the V. is said after the Sequence.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Ps. 118. This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia. \mathring{V} . Ps. 113. Praise the Lord, ye servants, O praise the Name of the Lord.

SEQUENCE.

Victimae Paschali.

CHRISTIANS to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises.

The Lamb the sheep redeemeth: Christ by sin undefiled, reconcileth sinners to the Father.

Death and life joined together in that conflict stupendous: the King of Life who died deathless reigneth.

Declare to us, Mary, the vision of thy journey.

"I saw the Tomb of Christ living: and likewise the glory of the Risen.

Bright Angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting.

Yea, Christ my hope is arisen: to Galilee he now goes before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen, so we know most surely: O King and Conqueror, grant to us mercy. Amen. Alleluia.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John.

St. John 20. 1.

AT that time: On the first day of the week, cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was vet dark, unto the sepulchre: and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Iesus loved, and saith unto them: They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together, and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, and the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre: and he saw, and believed: for as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. The Creed is said.

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

COMMONLY CALLED

LOW SUNDAY

Station at St. Pancras.

INTROIT. Quasi modo. 1 St. Peter 2.

As newborn babes, alleluia: desire the sincere milk of the word, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 81. Sing we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. \hat{V} . Glory be.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY FATHER, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification: grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may alway serve thee in pureness of living and truth. Through the merits.

The Lesson from the first EPISTLE of blessed John the Apostle. I St. John 5. 4.

DEARLY beloved: Whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Iesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood. And it . is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. For there are three that bear record in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth: the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God. which he hath testified of his Son. He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life; and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son hath not life.

Alleluia, alleluia. \hat{V} . St. Matt. 28. In the day of my resurrection, saith the Lord, I will go before you into Galilee. Alleluia. \hat{V} . St. John 20. After eight days, the doors being shut, Jesus stood in the midst of his disciples, and said: Peace be unto you. Alleluia.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 20. 19.

THE same day at evening, being the first day of the week: When the doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews: Came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them: Peace be unto you. And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again: Peace be unto you. As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them: Receive ye the Holy Ghost. Whosesoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosesoever sins ye retain, they are retained. The Creed is said.

PRAYERS

Of St. Mary. COLLECT.

O LORD GOD ALMIGHTY, we beseech thee to keep us thy servants both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls: that by the glorious intercession of blessed Mary Ever-Virgin we may be delivered from our present sadness, and attain in the end to everlasting gladness. Through.

For the Church. COLLECT.

Or for the Chief Bishop. COLLECT.

GOD, the pastor and governour of them that put their trust in thee, look down in mercy on thy servant N., whom thou hast chosen to be pastor and ruler of thy Church: grant unto him, we beseech thee, to be in word and conversation a wholesome example to the people committed to his charge; that he with them may attain at last to the crown of everlasting life. Through.

Of St. Mary. SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, that by the bountiful goodness of thy mercy, and by the intercession of blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, these our oblations may be acceptable in thy sight: that we being delivered in this present life from all adversities may obtain in that which is to come peace everlasting. PEARLY beloved: This is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well and suffer for it ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps. Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who when he was reviled, reviled not again: when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree: that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray, but are now returned unto the shepherd, and Bishop of your souls.

But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep: the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Creed.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Peter the Apostle. 1 St. Peter 2. 11.

EARLY beloved: I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul, having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme, or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well: for so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men: love the brotherhood: fear God: honour the king.

AT that time: Jesus said to his disciples: A little while and ye shall not see me: and again a little while, and ye shall see me: because I go to the Father. Then said some of his disciples among themselves: What is this, that he saith unto us : A little while, and ye shall not see me : and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, and, because I go to the Father? They said therefore: What is this, that he saith: A little while? we cannot tell, what he saith. Now Jesus knew, that they were desirous to ask him and said unto them: Do ye inquire among yourselves of that I said: A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again a little while, and ve shall see me? Verily, verily I say unto you: that ye shall weep, and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in travail, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish. for joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice: and your joy no man taketh from you. The Creed is said.

. The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed James the Apostle. St. James 1. 17.

PEARLY beloved: Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the Word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath. For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted Word, which is able to save your souls.

selves. For if any be a hearer of the Word, and not a doer: he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth, what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work: this man shall be blessed in his deed. If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my Name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs. The time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. At that day ye shall ask in my Name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you: for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed, that I came out from God. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. His disciples said unto him: Lo. now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now are we sure, that thou knowest all things, and needest not, that any man should ask thee: by this we believe, that thou camest forth from God. Iesus answered them: Do ve now believe? Behold. the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world. The Creed is said.

DEARLY beloved: Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are: and he prayed earnestly, that it might not rain, and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again: and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. VIGIL OF THE ASCENSION

If a Simple Feast occur to-day, a Commemoration only is made of it. If a Double or Semi-double Feast occur, Mass is said of the Feast with Commemoration of the Vigil, and of the Rogation Days. But in Collegiate Churches, besides the Rogation Mass, two other Masses are said, one of the Feast, and another of the Vigil.

INTROIT. Vocem jucunditatis. Is. 48.

WITH a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, alleluia: utter it even to the end of the earth: say ye, the Lord hath redeemed his people, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 66. O be joyful in God, all ye lands, sing praises unto the honour of his Name: make his praise to be glorious. $\tilde{\mathbb{Y}}$. Glory be. Glory be to God on high is said.

COLLECT.

LORD, from whom all good things do come, grant to us thy humble servants: that by thy holy inspiration, we may think those things that be good; and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same. Through.

2. Of the Rogation Days. COLLECT.

RANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that we who in all our troubles and adversities do put our trust and confidence in thy mercy, may ever be defended by thy mighty power. Through.

3. Of St. Mary. COLLECT.

CORD GOD ALMIGHTY, we beseech thee to keep us thy servants both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls: that by the glorious intercession of blessed Mary Ever-Virgin we may be delivered from our present sadness and attain in the end to everlasting gladness. Through.

But in Collegiate Churches, where there is said also another Rogation Mass, the second Collect will be of St. Mary, the third will be for the Church, or for the Chief Bishop, page D 33.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians. Ephes. 4. 7.

RETHREN: unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith: When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive: he gave gifts unto men. Now that he ascended, what is it, but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things. And he gave some, Apostles, and some, Prophets, and some, Evangelists; and some, pastors, and teachers, for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{y} . Christ is risen, and hath shewed light unto us, whom he hath redeemed with his most precious Blood. Alleluia. \mathring{y} . St. John 16. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world, and go to the Father. Alleluia.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 17. 1.

A T that time: Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said: Father, the hour is come, glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: as thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. This is life eternal: that they might know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work, which thou gavest me to do: and now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self, with the glory, which I had with thee before the world was. I have manifested thy Name unto the men, which thou gavest me out of the world. Thine they were, and thou gavest them me: and they have kept thy word.

Now they have known, that all things, whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee: for I have given unto them the words, which thou gavest me: and they have received them, and have known surely, that I came out from thee, and they have believed, that thou didst send me. I pray for them, I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine: and all mine are thine, and thine are mine: and I am glorified in them. And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 66. O praise our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to slip: praised be God who hath not cast out my prayer, nor turned his mercy from me, alleluia.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, to accept the prayers and oblations of thy faithful people: that through this observance of our bounden devotion we may attain to the glory of thy heavenly kingdom. Through.

2. Of the Rogation Days. SECRET.

GRANT, O Lord, we pray thee, that these our oblations may deliver us from every bond of iniquity, and obtain for us the bounteous gifts of thy mercy. Through.

3. Of St. Mary. SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, that by the bountiful goodness of thy mercy, and by the intercession of blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, these our oblations may be acceptable in thy sight: that we being delivered in this present life from all adversities may obtain in that which is to come peace everlasting. Through.

ASCENSION DAY

Station at St. Peter's.

INTROIT. Viri Galilaei. Acts 1.

YE men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? alleluia: this same Jesus shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 47. O clap your hands together, all ye people: O sing unto God with the voice of melody. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

RANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that like as we do believe thy only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell. Through the same.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 1. 1.

THE former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the Apostles whom he had chosen: to whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God. And being assembled together with them, he commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which (saith he) ye have heard of me: for John truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying: Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them: It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power; but ve shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you. and ve shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem. and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold two men stood by them in white apparel, which also said: Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come, in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Ps. 47. God is gone up with a merry noise, and the Lord with the sound of the trump, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Ps. 68. The Lord is among them as in the holy place of Sinai, he is gone up on high; he hath led captivity captive. Alleluia.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Mark.

St. Mark 16. 14.

AT that time: Jesus appeared unto the eleven, as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart: because they believed not them, which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them: Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved:

but he that believeth not, shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my Name shall they cast out devils: they shall speak with new tongues: they shall take up serpents: and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them: they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.

¶ When the Gospel has been said, the Paschal candle shall be put out, nor shall it be lighted again, save on Whitsun Eve at the blessing of the Font.

¶ On the Friday after the Octave of the Ascension, if it is not a Double or Semi-double Feast, Mass is said of the preceding Sunday, with Commen. of St. Mary, and of the Church, or of the Chief Bishop, page D 33. A Simple is only commenorated. And the Creed is not said.

VIGIL OF PENTECOST

Station at St. John Lateran.

The Office having been said, the Priest and ministers, vested in purple, go up to the Altar, and after the reverence, the Priest kisses it in the centre. Then are read the Prophecies without title, the candles of the Altar being unlighted up to the beginning of the Mass, as on Holy Saturday. The Priest reads them in a low voice at the Epistle Corner of the Altar. At the end of the Prophecies are sai the Collects without Let us bow the knee.

PROPHECY THE FIRST. Gen. 22. 1-19. In those days: God did tempt Abraham. As on Holy Saturday, Prophecy 3.

Which ended, the Priest says:

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, who in the works of Abraham thy servant hast sanctified a pattern of obedience to all mankind: grant us so to conquer the perversity of our desires, that we may in all things fulfil the righteousness of thy commandments. Through.

PROPHECY THE SECOND. Exod. 14. 24 to 15. I. In those days: It came to pass that in the morning watch. As on Holy Saturday, Prophecy 4, with the Tract, We will sing unto the Lord.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, who by the light of thy new covenant hast made manifest thy wonders wrought in former times, shewing in the Red Sea a pattern of the waters of baptism, and in the deliverance of thy people from bondage in Egypt foreshadowing the sacraments of thy Christian people: grant that all nations, being admitted by the merit of their faith to the privilege of Israel, may be regenerated by the partaking of thy Holy Spirit. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

PROPHECY THE THIRD. Deut. 31. 22-30. In those days: Moses therefore wrote this song. As on Holy Saturday, Prophecy 11, with the Tract, Give ear, O ye heavens.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, who art the glory of the faithful and the life of the righteous; who likewise by Moses thy servant hast taught us to sing songs of praise unto thee: accomplish in all nations the work of thy mercy, granting them felicity, and delivering them from all terror: that those things which were uttered for a warning of thy vengeance may be made profitable for our healing unto life everlasting. Through.

PROPHECY THE FOURTH. Isaiah 4. 1-6. And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man. As on Holy Saturday, Prophecy 8, with the Tract, My well-beloved hath a vineyard.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who in thine only-begotten Son hast revealed thyself to be the husbandman of thy Church, who dost mercifully purge every branch that bringeth forth fruit in the true vine, even the same Christ thy Son, to the intent that it may bring forth more fruit: we pray thee that the thorns and briars of sin may not prevail against thy faithful people, whom by the waters of baptism thou hast brought like a vine out of Egypt; that being confirmed by the sanctifying power of thy Holy Spirit, they may evermore bring forth fruit in abundance. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

PROPHECY THE FIFTH. Baruch 3. 9-37. Hear, Israel, the commandments of life. As on Holy Saturday, Prophecy 6.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, who by the mouths of thy prophets hast commanded us to leave behind us all things temporal, and to strive earnestly after things eternal: grant that we thy servants, knowing those things thou commandest, by thy heavenly inspiration may be enabled to perform the same. Through.

PROPHECY THE SIXTH. Ezech. 37. 1-14. In those days: The hand of the Lord was upon me. As on Holy Saturday, Prophecy 7.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

LORD GOD OF HOSTS, who restorest those things that are broken down, and preservest those things that thou restorest: increase, we pray thee, the peoples that shall be regenerated in the sanctification of thy Name; that they that are washed in the waters of baptism may in all things be guided by thy inspiration. Through.

¶ These ended, the Celebrant puts on a purple cope, and, while he descends to the font, the following is sung:

TRACT. Ps. 42. Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks: so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

V. My soul is athirst for the living God: when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

V. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they daily say unto me: Where is now thy God?

Then the Priest, before he enters the Baptistry to bless the font, says:

 $\tilde{\mathbb{Y}}$. The Lord be with you. R7. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

RANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that we which here observe the day whereon thou didst send forth thy Holy Spirit, may in such wise be influenced with heavenly desires that we may ever thirst for the waters of life. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

Then he proceeds to bless the font, as on Holy Saturday.

¶ But where there be no font, after the 6th Prophecy with its Collect the Celebrant lays aside the Chasuble. and prostrates himself before the Altar with the ministers: and all the others kneeling, the Litany is sung by two cantors in the middle of the Choir, both Choirs making together the same response. But when they come to We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord the Priest and ministers rise, and going to the sacristy, put on red vestments, and the lights around the Altar are lighted. At the end of the Litany the Kyrie eleison is sung solemnly for the Mass, and repeated as usual. And this having been begun, the Priest with the ministers proceeds to the Altar, and makes the Confession: then, going up, he kisses the Altar, and incenses it in the accustomed The Kyrie eleison being finished, Glory be to God on high is solemnly begun, and the bells are rung.

COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that the splendour of thy glory may in such wise shine forth upon us: that the brightness of thy light may by the illumination of thy Holy Spirit strengthen the hearts of them which through thy grace are born again. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

Acts 19. 1.

IN those days: It came to pass that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, he said unto them: Have ve received the Holy Ghost since ve believed? And they said unto him: We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. And he said unto them: Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said: Unto John's baptism. Then said Paul: John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people: That they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And all the men were about twelve. And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

Alleluia. V. Ps. 107. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Alleluia is not repeated, but there immediately follows:

TRACT. Ps. 117. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: praise him all ye nations. \tilde{V} . For his merciful kindness is ever more and more towards us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever.

Acts 2. 1.

WHEN the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place: and suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind: and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them: and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another: Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews, and Proselytes, Cretes, and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Ps. 104. O send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth. Alleluia. (Here genuflect.) \mathring{V} . Come, Holy Ghost, and fill the hearts of thy faithful people: and kindle in them the fire of thy love.

SEQUENCE.

Veni Sancte Spiritus.

COME, thou Holy Spirit, come; and from thy celestial home send thy light and brilliancy.

Come, thou father of the poor, come who givest all our store, come the soul's true radiancy.

Come, of comforters the best, of the soul the sweetest guest, sweetly and refreshingly.

Come, in labour rest most sweet, shade and coolness in the heat, comfort in adversity.

Thou who art the Light most blest, come fulfil their inmost breast, who believe most faithfully.

For without thy Godhead's dower, man hath nothing in his power, save to work iniquity.

What is filthy make thou pure, what is wounded work its cure, water what is parched and dry.

Gently bend the stubborn will, warm to life the heart that's chill, guide who goeth erringly.

Fill thy faithful who adore, and confess thee evermore, with thy sevenfold mystery.

Here thy grace and virtue send, grant salvation in the end, and in heaven felicity. Amen. Alleluia.

And this is said daily until the following Saturday inclusive.

And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: him God raised up the third day. and shewed him openly; not to all the people; but unto witnesses chosen before of God; even to us who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people: and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his Name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter vet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision, which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter: because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter: Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already: because he hath not believed in the Name of the only-begotten Son of God. At that time: Jesus said unto the Pharisees: Verily, verily I say unto you: he that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And, when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them: and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them. But they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again: Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door. By me if any man enter in, he shall be saved: and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. A as Jesus was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Terusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them. And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith, he said unto him: Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saving: Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone? But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them: What reason ye in your hearts? Whether is easier, to say: Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say: Rise up and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy): I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy

In those days: The Angel of the Lord came down into the oven together with Azarias and his fellows: and smote the flame of the fire out of the oven, and made the midst of the furnace as it had been a moist whistling wind. And the flame streamed forth above the furnace forty and nine cubits: and it passed through, and burned those Chaldeans it found about the furnace. And the fire touched the three not at all; neither hurt nor troubled them. Then they, as out of one mouth, praised, glorified, and blessed God in the furnace, saying:

Here Thanks be to God is not said.

Ember Saturday in Whitsun Week D 97

Come, thou father of the poor, come who givest all our store, come the soul's true radiancy.

Come, of comforters the best, of the soul the sweetest guest, sweetly and refreshingly.

Come, in labour rest most sweet, shade and coolness in the heat, comfort in adversity.

Thou who art the Light most blest, come fulfil their inmost breast, who believe most faithfully.

For without thy Godhead's dower, man hath nothing in his power, save to work iniquity.

What is filthy make thou pure, what is wounded work its cure, water what is parched and dry.

Gently bend the stubborn will, warm to life the heart that's chill, guide who goeth erringly.

Fill thy faithful who adore, and confess thee evermore, with thy sevenfold mystery.

Here thy grace and virtue send, grant salvation in the end, and in heaven felicity. Amen. Alleluia.

And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever: and it left her. And immediately she arose and ministered unto them. Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him. And he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying: Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak, for they knew that he was Christ.

PRAYERS

To be said in Ember Weeks, at the Priest's discretion, for those that are to be admitted into Holy Orders.

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who hast purchased to thyself an universal Church by the precious Blood of thy dear Son: mercifully look upon the same, and at this time so guide and govern the minds of thy servants the Bishops and Pastors of thy flock, that they may lay hands suddenly on no man, but faithfully and wisely make choice of fit persons to serve in the sacred Ministry of thy Church. And to those which shall be ordained to any holy function give thy grace and heavenly benediction; that both by their life and doctrine they may set forth thy glory, and set forward the salvation of all men. Through.

ALMIGHTY GOD, the giver of all good gifts, who of thy divine providence hast appointed divers Orders in thy Church: give thy grace, we humbly beseech thee, to all those who are to be called to any office and administration in the same; and so replenish them with the truth of thy doctrine, and endue them with innocency of life, that they may faithfully serve before thee, to the glory of thy great Name, and the benefit of thy holy Church. The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the book of the Revelation of blessed John the Apostle.

Rev. 4. 1.

In those days: I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said: Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. And immediately I was in the spirit; and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne: and he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. And round about the throne were four and twenty seats; and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold: and out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God. And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like, a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him: and they were full of eves within: and they rest not day and night, saying: Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, the four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saving: Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are, and were created.

Jesus answered and said unto him: Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him: How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered: Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth. and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth; so is every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus answered and said unto him: How can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him: Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? Verily, verily I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. If I have told you earthly things, and ve believe not; how shall ve believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man, who is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. The Creed is said.

1 Cor. 11. 23.

BRETHREN: For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you: that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said: Take, eat: this is my Body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying: This cup is the new testament in my Blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death, till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself: not discerning the Lord's Body.

GRADUAL. Ps. 145. The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. \mathring{V} . Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

SEQUENCE.

Lauda Sion Salvatorem.

AUD, O Sion, thy Salvation, laud with hymns of exultation Christ, thy King and Shepherd true: Spend thyself, his honour raising, who surpasseth all thy praising; never canst thou reach his due.

Sing to-day, the mystery showing of the living, lifebestowing Bread from heaven before thee set;

E'en the same of old provided, where the Twelve, divinely guided, at the holy Table met.

Full and clear ring out thy chanting, joy nor sweetest grace be wanting to thy heart and soul to-day;

When we gather up the measure of that Supper and its treasure, keeping feast in glad array.

- Lo, the new King's Table gracing, this new Passover of blessing hath fulfilled the elder rite:
- Now the new the old effaceth, truth revealed the shadow chaseth, day is breaking on the night.
- What he did at Supper seated, Christ ordained to be repeated, his memorial ne'er to cease:
- And, his word for guidance taking, bread and wine we hallow, making thus our Sacrifice of peace.
- This the truth to Christians given—bread becomes his Flesh from heaven, wine becomes his holy Blood.
- Doth it pass thy comprehending? Yet by faith, thy sight transcending, wondrous things are understood.
- Yea, beneath these signs are hidden glorious things to sight forbidden: look not on the outward sign.
- Wine is poured and Bread is broken, but in either sacred token Christ is here by power divine.
- Whoso of this Food partaketh, rendeth not the Lord nor breaketh: Christ is whole to all that taste.
- Thousands are, as one, receivers, one, as thousands of believers, takes the Food that cannot waste.
- Good and evil men are sharing one repast, a doom preparing varied as the heart of man;
- Doom of life or death awarded, as their days shall be recorded which from one beginning ran.
- When the Sacrament is broken, doubt not in each severed token, hallowed by the word once spoken, resteth all the true content:
- Nought the precious Gift divideth, breaking but the sign betideth, he himself the same abideth, nothing of his fulness spent.

- Lo! the Angels' Food is given to the pilgrim who hath striven; see the children's Bread from heaven, which to dogs may not be cast;
- Truth the ancient types fulfilling, Isaac bound, a victim willing, Paschal lamb, its life-blood spilling, Manna sent in ages past.
- O true Bread, good Shepherd, tend us, Jesu, of thy love befriend us, thou refresh us, thou defend us, thine eternal goodness send us in the land of life to see:
- Thou who all things canst and knowest, who on earth such Food bestowest, grant us with thy Saints, though lowest, where the heavenly Feast thou showest, fellow-heirs and guests to be.

BELOVED: Let us love one another: for love is of God, and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us: we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us; because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have seen, and do testify. that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess, that Iesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. And we have known, and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love: and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him: that he who loveth God love his brother also.

A T that time: Iesus spake this parable unto A his disciples: There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day. And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table : moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried; and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said: Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said : Son, remember that thou in thy life-time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they who would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said: I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him: They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said: Nay, father Abraham, but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him:

If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

He that loveth not his brother, abideth in death: whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer. And ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him: how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed, and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God. And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his commandment: That we should believe on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

EARLY beloved: All of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant: because your adversary the devil as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist stedfast in the faith; knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. AT that time: There drew near unto Jesus all The Publicans and sinners for to hear him. And the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying: This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And he spake this parable unto them, saving: What man of you having an hundred sheep: if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing: and when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them: Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying: Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. BRETHREN: I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory, which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him, who hath subjected the same in hope: because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth, and

And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship. Now when he had left speaking. he said unto Simon: Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering said unto him: Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net. And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net brake. And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come, and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying: Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. RETHREN: Know ye not that so many of D us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him; that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead, is freed from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ: we believe that we shall also live with him: knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over him. So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first: How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said: An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him: Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then said he to another: And how much owest thou? And he said: An hundred measures of wheat. BRETHREN: Concerning spiritual gifts, I would not have you ingorant. Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed. And that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God, who worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom: to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit: to another faith by the same Spirit: to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit: to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another divers kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. 1 Cor. 15. 1.

BRETHREN: I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand, by which also ye are saved: if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures: and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures: and that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve. After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep. After that, he was seen of James, then of all the Apostles: and last of all, he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time. For I am the least of the Apostles, that am not meet to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain. But I laboured more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

GRADUAL. Ps. 28. My heart hath trusted in God and I am helped: therefore my heart danceth for joy: and in my song will I praise him. V. Unto thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: think no scorn of me: my God, go not far from me.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 81. Sing we merrily unto God our strength, make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob: take the psalm, bring hither the tabret. Alleluia.

St. Luke 18. 9.

AT that time: Jesus spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are: extortioners, unjust, adulterers: or even as this Publican. I fast twice in the week: I give tithes of all that I possess. And the Publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven: but smote upon his breast, saying: God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you: This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased: and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. Creed.

12TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

INTROIT. Deus in adjutorium. Ps. 70.

HASTE thee, O God, to deliver me: make haste to help me, O Lord: let them be ashamed and confounded, that seek after my soul. Ps. ibid. Let them be turned backward, and put to confusion: that wish me evil. Ÿ. Glory be.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy; forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Lord. Who liveth.

The Lesson from the latter EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. 2 Cor. 3. 4.

BRETHREN: Such trust have we through Christ to Godward: not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God: who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death written and engraven in stones was glorious; so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away: how shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory: much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

GRADUAL. Ps. 34. I will alway give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall ever be in my mouth. V. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof and be glad.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL St. Mark 7. 31. according to Mark.

AT that time: Jesus, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech, and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears: and he spit, and touched his tongue: and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him: Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. And he charged them that they should tell no man. But the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it: and were beyond measure astonished, saying: He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak. The Creed is said.

OFFERTORY. Ex. 32. Moses besought the Lord his God, and said: Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people? Turn from thy fierce wrath: remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest to give a land flowing with milk and honey. DRETHREN: To Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not: And to seeds, as of many; but as of one : And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say: that the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance be of the law. it is no more of promise. But God gave it to Abraham by promise. Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made, and it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one: but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid. For if there had been a law given, which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

GRADUAL. Ps. 74. Look upon the covenant, O Lord, and forget not the congregation of the poor for ever. \hat{V} . Arise, O God, maintain thine own cause: remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 10. 23.

AT that time: Jesus said to his disciples: A Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see. For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ve see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. And behold, a certain Lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying: Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him: What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind: and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him: Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus: And who is my neighbour? And Iesus answering said: A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment: and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance, there came down a certain Priest that way: and, when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and, when he saw him, he had compassion on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine: and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him: Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said: He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him: Go, and do thou likewise. The Creed is said.

BRETHREN: Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit: and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past: that they who do such things, shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is: love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's, have crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.

And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off; and they lifted up their voices, and said: Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them: Go, shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised, only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law: but desire to have you circumcised. that they may glory in your flesh. But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. AT that time: Jesus said to his disciples: No A man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other: or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God, and Mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ve shall drink, nor vet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat: and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns: yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? Which of you by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stature? And why take ve thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin. And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven: shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saving: What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? for after all these things do the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Nehemiah. Neh. 8. 1.

was before the water gate: and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded to Israel. And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand: and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people: for he was above all the people: and when he opened it, all the people stood up. And Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God: and all the people answered: Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. And the Levites caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense: and caused them to understand the reading. And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people: This day is holy unto the Lord your God, mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. Then he said unto them: Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord; neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

St. Mark 9. 17.

T that time: One of the multitude answered A and said: Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit: and wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not. He answereth him, and saith: O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him. And when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him: and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. And he asked his father: How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said: Of a child: and ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him. But if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. Jesus said unto him: If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears: Lord, I believe: help thou mine unbelief. When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saving unto him: Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him: and enter no more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him, and he was as one dead, insomuch that many said: He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately: Why could not we cast him out? And he said unto them: This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Hosea the Prophet.

Hos. 14. 1.

HUS saith the Lord God: O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God: for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity. Take with you words, and turn to the Lord; say unto him: Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips. Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands: Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy. I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him. I will be as the dew unto Israel; he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon. His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon. They that I have heard him, and observed him; I am like a green fir tree: from me is thy fruit found. Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? For the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 7. 36.

AT that time: One of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Iesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment: and stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying: This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him: Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith: Master, say on. There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most? Simon answered and said: I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him: Thou hast rightly judged. And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon: Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee: Her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. And he said unto her: Thy sins are forgiven. And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves: Who is this that forgiveth sins also? And he said to the woman: Thy faith hath saved thee: go in peace.

And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all: which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; and over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat: of which we cannot now speak particularly. Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God; but into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the

Which was a figure for the time then present: in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience: which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building: neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own Blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her: Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the sabbath-day, and said unto the people: There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath-day. The Lord then answered him, and said: Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day? And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

But ve have not so learned Christ, if so be that ve have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: that ve put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts. Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath. Neither give place to the devil: let him that stole, steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians. Ephes. 5. 15.

BRETHREN: See then that ye walk circumspectly: not as fools, but as wise: redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess: but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord: giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

AT that time: Jesus spake to the chief priests 1 and the pharisees in parables, saying: The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, who made a marriage for his son. And he sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding, and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying: Tell them which are bidden: Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: and the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth, and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city. Then saith he to his servants: The wedding is ready, but they who were bidden were not worthy. Go ve therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find bid to the marriage. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good, and the wedding was furnished with guests. And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment. And he saith unto him: Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants: Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen. The Creed is said.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians. Ephes. 6. 10.

Y brethren: Be strong in the Lord, and in I the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that we may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood: but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness, and your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace: above all taking the shield of faith, wherewith ve shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked, and take the helmet of salvation: and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit: and watching thereunto with all perseverance, and supplication for all saints: and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel: for which I am an ambassador in bonds, that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 4. 46.

A T that time: There was a certain nobleman. A whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him: and besought him that he would come down and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. Then said Jesus unto him: Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. The nobleman saith unto him: Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith unto him: Go thy way, thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saving: Thy son liveth. Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him: Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him: Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house. This is

St. Matt. 18. 21.

T that time: Peter said unto Jesus: Lord. I how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him: I say not unto thee, until seven times: but until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying: Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying: Pay me that thou owest.

And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying: Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry: and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him: O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. The Creed is said.

And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. Philip answered him: Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him: There is a lad here, which hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? And Jesus said: Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Iesus took the loaves: and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples: and the disciples to them that were set down: and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples: Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

The Masses contained in this Proper, with the exceptions of those of peculiar Mysteries of our Lord, or of Feasts of our Lady (unless otherwise noted), or those of St. Joseph on March 19th and of SS. Peter and Paul, are also said as votives. But when they are so used, unless it be otherwise noted, after the Epistle, the Gradual with the Verse following or Tract, or, in Eastertide, the Alleluia, with its Verses, when they are not contained in the Mass, are supplied from the appropriate Common. But for Martyrs, in Eastertide, the Mass Protexisti, or Sancti tui, as the case may be, is said, with the Prayers, Epistle, and Gospel, from the Proper of the Saint. However, in every Prayer the words On this day, yearly, etc., should be omitted wherever they occur, and the expressions birthday, festivity, changed to commemoration, memory. So also, in place of the Introit Gaudeamus is said the Introit from the appropriate Common, and the Alleluias are omitted out of Eastertide, when they have been added to the Introit, Offertory, and Communion on account of the Paschal Season.

RANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that as we do prevent the festival of thy holy Apostle Saint Andrew, so he may implore thy mercy for us; that we being delivered from all our iniquities, may likewise be defended against all adversities. Through.

¶ If the Vigil of St. Andrew fall in Advent, Mass is said of the Vigil, and the second collect will be of Advent.

¶ If the Feast of St. Andrew fall on a Monday the Mass of the Vigil is said on Saturday, and the second Collect will be of St. Mary, O Lord God Almighty, and the third for the Church, or for the Chief Bishop: which is also done on other Vigils, except the Vigil of Christmas Day.

¶ If the Feast of St. Andrew should fall on a Sunday it is transferred to the following day, provided it be not hindered by a Double or Semi-double Feast: which is also done in the case of other Feasts of double rank falling on Sundays in Advent (according to the method set forth in the General Rubrics), and on them the commemoration of Advent should always be made. But during the whole of Advent a Commemoration only is made of Simple Feasts.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Ecclesiasticus. Ecclus. 44. 22.

THE blessing of the Lord was upon the head of the righteous. Therefore the Lord gave him an heritage; and divided his portion among the twelve tribes. And he found favour in the sight of all flesh. And the Lord magnified him so that his enemies stood in fear of him. By his words he caused the wonders to cease: he made him glorious in the sight of kings, and gave him a commandment for his people, and shewed him his glory. He sanctified him in his faithfulness and meekness, and chose him out of all men. He gave him commandments before his face, even the law of life and knowledge, and exalted him. An everlasting covenant he made with him: the Lord beautified him with ornaments of righteousness: and clothed him with a robe of glory.

At that time: John stood, and two of his disciples. And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith: Behold the Lamb of God. And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them: What seek ye? They said unto him: Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master), where dwellest thou? He saith unto them: Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour. One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him: We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. And he brought him to Iesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said: Thou art Simon the son of Iona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone. The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him: Follow me. Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him: We have found him of whom Moses in the Law, and the Prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth the son of Joseph. And Nathanael said unto him: Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him: Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him: Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile. Nathanael saith unto him: Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him: Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered and saith unto him: Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. Jesus answered and said unto him: Because I said unto thee: I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. And he saith unto him: Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the Angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans. Rom. 10. 9.

DRETHREN: If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead. thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture saith: Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Iew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him, in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him, of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written: How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! But they have not all obeyed the Gospel. For Esaias saith: Lord, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God. But I say: Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. But I say: Did not Israel know? First Moses saith: I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. But Esaias is very bold, and saith: I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. But to Israel he saith: All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

BRETHREN: Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Jesus Christ, the same vesterday, and to-day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein. We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his Name. But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves. For they watch for your souls, as they that must give account.

T that time: Jesus spake this parable unto his A disciples: A certain man travelling into a far country called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents. to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents. And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. But he that had received one went and digged in the earth and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying: Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Proverbs.

Prov. 8. 22.

THE Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. When there were no depths, I was brought forth: when there were no fountains abounding with water: before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth: while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth: when he established the clouds above, when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: when he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth. Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him: rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men. Now therefore hearken unto me, O ve children: for blessed are they that keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. For whose findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians. Phil. 3. 7.

BRETHREN: What things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, and be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

GRADUAL. Ps. 92. The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree: and shall spread abroad as a cedar in Libanus in the house of the Lord. \hat{V} . To tell of thy lovingkindness early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night-season.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Hos. 14. The righteous shall blossom as the lily: and shall flourish for ever before the Lord. Alleluia.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 11. 25.

At that time: Jesus answered and said: I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered unto me of my Father. And no man knoweth the Son, but the Father: neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 21. The righteous shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation: thou hast given him his heart's desire.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Peter the Apostle. I St. Peter 1. 1.

PETER, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ our Lord.

GRADUAL. Ps. 107. Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people: and praise him in the seat of the elders. V. O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

WILL thank thee, O Lord and King, and praise thee, O God my Saviour: I do give praise unto thy Name: for thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserved my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that forge lies, and hast been mine helper against mine adversaries. And hast delivered me. according to the multitude of thy mercies and greatness of thy Name, from the teeth of them that were ready to devour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had: from the choking of fire on every side, and from the midst of the fire which I kindled not; from the depth of the belly of hell, from an unclean tongue, and from lying words. By an accusation to the king from an unrighteous tongue my soul drew near even unto death, my life was near to the hell beneath. They compassed me on every side, and there was no man to help me: I looked for the succour of men, but there was none. Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Lord, and upon thy acts of old, how thou deliverest such as wait for thee, and savest them out of the hands of the enemies. O Lord our God.

And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made: Behold, the bridegroom cometh: go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise: Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saving: Not so: lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ve rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came ; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 9. 1.

IN those days: Saul, yet breathing out threaten-I ings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues: that, if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. And, as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven. And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saving unto him: Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said: Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said: I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And he, trembling and astonished, said: Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him: Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened he saw no man. But they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink. And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias:

and to him said the Lord in a vision: Ananias. And he said: Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him: Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight: and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. Then Ananias answered: Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy Name. But the Lord said unto him: Go thy way; for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel. For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my Name's sake. And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and, putting his hands on him, said: Brother Saul, the Lord, (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest,) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith: and arose, and was baptized. And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. But all that heard him were amazed. and said: Is not this he that destroyed them which, called on this Name in Jerusalem: and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests? But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Peter the Apostle. 1 St. Peter 2. 13.

EARLY beloved: Submit vourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ve may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men: Love the brotherhood: Fear God: Honour the king. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ve should follow his steps: who did no sin. neither was guile found in his mouth.

↑ T that time: Jesus spake this parable unto the multitude of the Jews, and the chief priests: There was a certain householder which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying: They will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves: This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. When the Lord therefore of the vinevard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? They say unto him: He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons. Creed.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans. Rom. 8. 35.

BRETHREN: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written: For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

THE PRESENTATION OF CHRIST IN THE TEMPLE, OR

THE PURIFICATION OF SAINT MARY THE VIRGIN

COMMONLY CALLED CANDLEMAS DAY

If this Feast shall fall on Septuagesima, Sexagesima, or Quinquagesima Sunday, then shall there only be the Blessing and Distribution of candles and the Procession; and the Mass of the Feast shall be transferred to the next day following, unless any greater Feast fall thereon.

¶ The office being said, the Priest, wearing a purple cope, or without a chasuble (the Ministers being vested in like manner), shall go to bless the candles, which shall be set in the middle afore the Altar, or at the Epistle corner, and, his hands being joined, shall say in the tone appointed for use on common days:

V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

Cord, who hast made all things out of nothing, and hast appointed that the labours of bees should be formed into wax by thine ordinance: who didst likewise as on this day fulfil the prayers of thy righteous servant Simeon: we humbly beseech thee; that thou wouldest vouchsafe, by the power of thy holy Name, and at the intercession of blessed Mary ever-Virgin, whose festival we this day devoutly celebrate, and of all thy Saints, to blesses and sanc Atify these candles for the use of men, and for their protection both in body and soul in all perils of land or sea: hear, O Lord, we humbly pray thee, from thy holy heaven and from the throne of thy glory the voice of this thy people, that seeketh to bear them forth to thy glory and to sing thy praises: and we humbly beseech thee that thou wouldest have mercy on all them that call upon thee, whom thou hast redeemed with the precious Blood of thy dear Son: Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who as on this day didst suffer thy only-begotten Son to be presented in the temple and to be received in the arms of Saint Simeon: we humbly beseech thy mercy; that like as we thy servants, taking these candles do seek to light them and bear them to the glory of thy Name, so thou wouldest vouchsafe to bly Hess and sancy Hitify the same: that we being made worthy of offering them unto thee, our Lord and our God, and being enkindled with the holy flame of thy most gracious charity, may be found meet to be presented before thee in the temple of thy glory. Through the same Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

Let us pray.

LORD JESU CHRIST, who art the true light that lightenest every man that cometh into the world: we beseech thee to pour out thy bless-Hing upon these candles, and sanc-Hiffy them with the light of thy grace; and mercifully grant, that even as they with their outward flame do scatter the darkness of night; so our hearts being inflamed with the inward brightness of thy Holy Spirit may be delivered from all blindness of iniquity: that the eyes of our souls being enlightened may discern such things as are pleasing unto thee and profitable unto us for our salvation; that finally after the darkness and dangers of this world we may attain in the end to light everlasting. Through thee, O blessed Jesu, Redeemer of the world, who in the unity of the blessed Trinity livest and reignest God, world without end. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who by the mouth of Moses thy servant didst command the children of Israel to bring pure olive oil for the lamps to burn always before thy face: we beseech thee to pour the bless-Hing of thy grace on these candles; that like as they shed forth on us their outward beams, so of thy bounteous goodness the light of thy Holy Spirit may never fail to enlighten us inwardly in our souls. Through . . . in the unity of the same Holy Spirit. Ry. Amen.

Let us pray.

LORD JESU CHRIST, who as on this day appearing among men in the substance of our flesh wast presented by thy parents in the temple: whom Simeon in his old age, being enlightened by the light of thy Spirit, knew and blessed, taking thee in his arms: mercifully grant; that we, being enlightened and instructed by the grace of the same Spirit, may know thee truly in our minds and love thee faithfully with all our hearts. Who livest and reignest with the Father in the unity of the same Spirit ever one God, world without end. Ry. Amen.

The prayers being ended, the Celebrant shall set incense in the censer; then shall he sprinkle the candles thrice with holy water, saying the Antiphon Thou shalt purge me, but without singing and not saying the Psalm: and he shall cense them thrice. Then shall the first of the Priests that are present approach the altar, and from him shall the Celebrant take his candle, neither genuflecting nor kissing his hand. And afterwards the Celebrant standing in the midst afore the Altar, turning to the people, delivers the candles first to the first of the Priests from whom he received the candle himself, and then to the Deacon and Subdeacon in their vestments; and thereafter to the Priests and Deacons, if any be present, according to their order; and finally to the people; all genuflecting and kissing the candle and the hand of the Celebrant, excepting the Bishops if any be present. And when he beginneth to deliver the candles, the Choir shall sing:

Antiphon. St. Luke 2. To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Cant. Ibid. Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.

Then shall be repeated the whole Antiphon: To be a light, which shall be repeated in like manner after each verse.

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation. Ant. To be a light.

Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people. Ant. To be a light.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Ant. To be a light.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Ant. To be a light.

This being done shall be sung this Antiphon: Ps. 44. O Lord, arise, help us: and deliver us for thy Name's sake.

Ps. ibid. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have declared unto us. V. Glory be.

Then shall be repeated the Antiphon O Lord, arise.

Then shall the Priest say: Let us pray.

¶ And if it be on any day after Septuagesima, not being a Sunday, the Deacon shall say:

Let us bow the knee. R7. Arise.

COLLECT.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to hear the prayers of thy people: that this observance, whereby we do thee outward honour year by year, may by the light of thy grace bring forth fruit inwardly in our souls. Through Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

¶ Here followeth the Procession. And first the Celebrant shall set incense in the censer: and thereafter the Deacon turning about to the people shall say: Let us go forth in peace. And the Choir shall answer: In the Name of Christ. Amen.

And the Thurifer shall go first with smoking censer: and after him the Subdeacon vested and bearing the Cross in the midst between two Acolytes with lighted torches: then shall follow the Clergy after their order; and last the Celebrant with the Deacon on his left, all bearing lighted candles in their hands: and the Antiphons following shall be sung.

Antiph. O Sion, adorn thy bride-chamber, and receive Christ thy King: greet Mary who is the gate of heaven: for she beareth the King of the glory of the new light: she remaineth a Virgin, yet beareth in her arms a Son begotten before the morning star: whom Simeon took in his arms declaring to all nations that he is Lord of life and death, and Saviour of the world.

Another Antiph. St. Luke 2. It was revealed unto Simeon by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ: and when they brought the child into the temple, then took he him up in his arms and blessed God and said: Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace.

 $\bar{\mathbb{V}}$. When his parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him according to the custom of the law, then took he him up in his arms.

And as they enter the Church shall be sung:

ÿ. They offered for him unto the Lord a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons:* As it is written in the law of the Lord.

y. When the days of Mary's purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought Jesus to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord. As it is written in the law of the Lord.

 $\ddot{\mathbb{V}}$. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it is written in the law of the Lord.

¶ The Procession being ended, the Celebrant and Ministers, laying aside their purple vestments, shall put on white for the Mass. And all shall hold lighted candles in their hands while the Gospel is read and from the Consecration to the Communion. But if the Mass be of the Sunday, the candles shall not be lighted.

AT THE MASS

INTROIT. Suscepimus. Ps. 48.

WE have waited, O God, for thy loving-kindness in the midst of thy temple: according to thy Name, O God, so is thy praise unto the world's end: thy right hand is full of righteousness. Ps. ibid. Great is the Lord and highly to be praised: in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, we humbly beseech thy Majesty: that, as thy only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple in substance of our flesh; so we may be presented unto thee with pure and clean hearts, by the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Malachi the Prophet.

Mal. 3. 1.

THUS saith the Lord God: Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple; even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in. Behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts: but who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: and he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver: that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. Then shall the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and as in former years: and I will come near to you to judgment, and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false-swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me: saith the Lord of hosts.

GRADUAL. Ps. 48. We have waited, O God, for thy loving-kindness in the midst of thy temple: according to thy Name, O Lord, so is thy praise unto the world's end.

V. Like as we have heard so have we seen in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . The old man bare the young child in his arms: yet was the young child the old man's king. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima shall be omitted Alleluia and the verse following, and in place thereof shall be said:

TRACT. St. Luke 2. Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word. $\hat{\mathbb{V}}$. For mine eyes have seen thy salvation. $\hat{\mathbb{V}}$. Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people. $\hat{\mathbb{V}}$. To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke.

St. Luke 2. 22.

AT that time: When the days of Mary's purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought Jesus to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord, as it is written in the law of the Lord: Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord: and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Ghost was upon him. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the child Iesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said: Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: For mine eyes have seen thy salvation: Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people: A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.* And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother: Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against, yea, a sword shall pierce through thine own soul also, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one Anna a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity. And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee to their own city Nazareth. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him. The Creed is said.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 45. Full of grace are thy lips: because God hath blessed thee for ever, and world without end.

At that time: The Pharisees came unto Jesus, tempting him, and saying: Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them: Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said: For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him: Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith unto them: Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whose marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. His disciples say unto him: If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. But he said unto them: All men cannot receive this saving, save they to whom it is given. For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. Rev. 11. 19.

THE temple of God was opened in heaven: and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament; and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail. And there appeared a great wonder in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 1. 15.

IN those days: Peter stood up in the midst of I the disciples, and said: (the number of the names together were about an hundred and twenty): Men and brethren, this Scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus: for he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and falling headlong he burst asunder in the midst: and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. For it is written in the book of Psalms: Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and, His bishoprick let another take. Wherefore, of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed, and said: Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen; that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles.

GRADUAL. Ps. 139. Right dear are thy friends, O God, and held in highest honour: their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast. $\mathring{\mathbb{Y}}$. If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand of the sea.

TRACT. Ps. 21. Thou hast given him his heart's desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips. \mathring{V} . For thou shalt prevent him with the blessings of goodness. \mathring{V} . And shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 11. 25.

At that time: Jesus answered and said: I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered unto me of my Father. And no man knoweth the Son, but the Father: neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. The Creed is said.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom. Wis. 7. 7.

WHEREFORE I prayed, and understanding was given me: I called upon God and the spirit of wisdom came to me: I preferred her before sceptres and thrones, and esteemed riches nothing in comparison of her. Neither compared I unto her any precious stone: because all gold in respect of her is as a little sand, and silver shall be counted as clay before her. I loved her above health and beauty, and chose to have her instead of light: for the light that cometh from her never goeth out. All good things together came to me with her, and innumerable riches in her hands, and I rejoiced in them all: because wisdom goeth before them, and I knew not that she was mother of them. I learned diligently, and do communicate her liberally; I do not hide her riches. For she is a treasure unto men that never faileth: which they that use become the friends of God, being commended for the gifts that come from learning. The Creed is said.

The Lesson from the latter EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to Timothy. 2 Tim. 4. 1.

EARLY beloved: I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be instant in season, out of season: reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an Evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 5. 13.

↑ T that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Ye A are the salt of the earth. But if the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: When they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another. For verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come. The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master: and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household? Fear them not therefore. For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 1. 26.

AT that time: And in the sixth month: The Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the Virgin's name was Mary. And the Angel came in unto her, and said: Hail, thou that art highly favoured: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him she was troubled at his saving: and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God: and behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call his Name IESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the Angel: How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the Angel answered and said unto her: The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren: for with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word. And the Angel departed from her. The Creed is said.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom.

Wisdom 10. 10.

THE Lord guided the righteous in right paths, and shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things: made him rich in his travels, and multiplied the fruit of his labours. In the covetousness of such as oppressed him he stood by him, and made him rich. He defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and in a sore conflict he gave him the victory, that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. When the righteous was sold wisdom forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: she went down with him into the pit, and left him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and power against those that oppressed him: as for those that had accused him, she shewed them to be liars, and gave him perpetual glory. She delivered the righteous people and blameless seed from the nation that oppressed them. She entered into the soul of the servant of the Lord, and withstood dreadful kings in wonders and signs. And she rendered to the righteous a reward of their labours.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 6. 6.

A that time: It came to pass also on another sabbath, that Jesus entered into the synagogue and taught. And there was a man whose right hand was withered. And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day: that they might find an accusation against him. But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand: Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. Then said Iesus unto them: I will ask you one thing. Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good or to do evil? to save life or to destroy it? And looking round upon them all, he said unto the man: Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. And they were filled with madness, and communed one with another, what they might do to Jesus. Creed.

Judith 13. 17.

THE Lord hath blessed thee by his power, because by thee he hath brought to nought the enemies of thy people. O daughter, blessed art thou of the most high God, above all the women upon the earth. And blessed be the Lord God which hath created the heavens and the earth: because he hath so magnified thy name this day, that this thy confidence shall not depart from the heart of men, which remember the power of God for ever, for whom thou hast not spared thy life for the affliction of our nation, but hast revenged our ruin, walking a straight way before our God.

SEQUENCE.

Stabat Mater dolorosa,

To be omitted in Votive Masses.

BY the Cross her station keeping, Stood the mournful Mother weeping, Where he hung, her dying Lord.

For her soul, of joy bereavéd, Torn with anguish, deeply grievéd, Felt the sharp and piercing Sword.

O, how sad and sore distresséd Then was she, that Mother blesséd Of the sole-begotten One.

Deep the woe of her affliction When she saw the Crucifixion Of her ever-glorious Son.

Who, on Christ's dear Mother gazing, Torn by anguish so amazing, Born of woman, would not weep?

Feasts of March (7 Sorrows of B.V.M.) E 109

Who, on Christ's dear Mother thinking, Such a cup of sorrow drinking, Would not share her sorrow deep?

For his people's sins chastiséd, She her Jesus saw despiséd, Torn with nails, with thorns entwined, Saw her Son from judgment taken And in death by all forsaken Till his spirit he resigned.

Mother, fount of all devotion,

Stir in me thy grief's emotion,

Let my tears be joined with thine.

Let my heart be always burning, Still for love of Jesus yearning, Let his will be found in mine.

True repentance, Mother, win me;
Print my Saviour's wounds within me,
Brand them on my stubborn heart.

As he bought, through tribulation, In his Passion, my salvation, Let me bear therein my part.

Let me mourn with thee beside him For the sins which crucified him, While my life remains in me.

Take beneath the Cross my station, And in all thy desolation So unite myself with thee.

Virgin, great beyond all other, Turn not from me, gentle Mother, Let me too bewail thy Son;

E 110 Feasts of March (7 Sorrows of B.V.M.)

Let my soul, his death declaring, His unsparing Passion sharing, Count his bruises one by one.

Let the Five Wounds penetrate me: May the Cross inebriate me And thy Son's most precious Blood:

Lest I burn in hell's damnation, Virgin, be my consolation At the judgment-seat of God.

Jesu, when earth's troubles leave me, Through thy Mother's prayers receive me To the crown of victory;

When my body lies forsaken,
May my soul by him be taken Into heaven's high company. Amen.

The Lesson from the latter EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to Timothy. 2 Tim. 4. 1.

DEARLY beloved: I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word, be instant in season, out of season: reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears, and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an Evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. O GOD, who by the foolishness of the Cross didst wondrously teach thy blessed Martyr Saint Justin an excellent knowledge of Christ Iesus: grant that by his intercession, we being delivered from the deceitfulness of all false doctrine. may be firmly grounded in thy true religion. Through the same.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. I Cor. 1. 18.

RETHREN: The preaching of the Cross is to D them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written: I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God; it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. For the Iews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: but we preach Christ crucified, unto the Iews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness: but unto them which are called, both Iews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: There is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light, and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops. And I say unto you, my friends: Be not afraid of them that kill the body. and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him. which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? and not one of them is forgotten before God: but even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say unto you: Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the Angels of God.

BRETHREN: Unto every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith: When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave some Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Evangelists, and some Pastors and Teachers: for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God: unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness; whereby they lie in wait to deceive: but speaking the truth in love. may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth: according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of itself in love.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. I Cor. 1. 17.

BRETHREN: Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. The preaching of the Cross is to them that perish foolishness: but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written: I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God; it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: but we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness: but unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Alleluia, alleluia. $\sqrt[n]{\cdot}$ 2 Cor. 5. Christ died for all: that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. Alleluia. $\sqrt[n]{\cdot}$ Rom. 8. If children, then heirs: heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Alleluia.

Out of Eastertide:

GRADUAL. Gal. 6. God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. V. I Cor. 2. I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. I St. Peter 2. Christ suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow in his steps. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima, instead of Alleluia and the verse following is said:

TRACT. I St. Peter 4. Forasmuch as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin. \mathring{V} . 2 Cor. 4. St. Luke 10. 1.

AT that time: The Lord appointed other seventy A also: and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them: The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few. Pray ve therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say: Peace be to this house: and if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall return to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them: The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

Gen. 49. 22.

TOSEPH is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well: whose branches run over the wall. The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: from thence is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel. Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee, and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts and of the womb. blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

St. James 1. 1.

TAMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus . Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations: knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ve may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering: for he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted: but the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass: and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life: which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

And if I go and prepare a place for you: I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ve know. Thomas saith unto him: Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him: I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ve should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ve know him, and have seen him. Philip saith unto him: Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him: Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me. Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father. And how sayest thou then: Shew us the Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself. But the DRETHREN: We preach not ourselves, but D Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake: for God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels: that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed: we are perplexed, but not in despair: persecuted, but not forsaken: cast down, but not destroyed: always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake: that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you. We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written: I believed, and therefore have I spoken: we also believe, and therefore speak: knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

Nicodemus saith unto him: How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Iesus answered: Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh: and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee: Ye must be born again. The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians. I Thess. 2. 2.

DRETHREN: We were bold in our God to D speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. For our exhortation was not of deceit. nor of uncleanness, nor in guile, but as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel: even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know; nor a cloak of covetousness: God is witness; nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others; when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ: but we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children. So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls; because ve were dear unto us. For ve remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

GRADUAL. Ps. 132. I will deck her priests with health: and her saints shall rejoice and sing. $\mathring{\mathbb{V}}$. There shall I make the horn of David

St. Luke 10. 1.

AT that time: The Lord appointed other A seventy also: and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them: The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say: Peace be to this house: and if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall return to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give : for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. Wis. 8.

THEREFORE I purposed to take wisdom with me to live with me; knowing that she would be a counsellor of good things, and a comfort in cares and grief. For her sake I shall have estimation among the multitude, and honour with the elders though I be young: and I shall be found of a quick conceit in judgment, and shall be admired in the sight of great men. When I hold my tongue they shall bide my leisure, and when I speak they shall give good ear unto me, if I talk much they shall lay their hands upon their mouth. Moreover, by the means of her I shall obtain immortality, and leave behind me an everlasting memorial to them that come after me. I shall set the people in order, and the nations shall be subject unto me. Horrible tyrants shall be afraid, when they do but hear of me. I shall be found good among the multitude, and valiant in war.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Ecclesiasticus. Ecclus. 44. 1.

TET us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. The Lord hath wrought great glory by them through his great power from the beginning. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding, and declaring prophecies: leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent in their instructions; such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: rich men furnished with ability, living peaceably in their habitations. All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times. There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported. And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been; and are become as though they had never been born; and their children after them. But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten. With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance: and their children are within the covenant. Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes. Their seed shall remain for ever, and their glory shall not be blotted out. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore. The people will tell of their wisdom, and the congregation will shew forth their praise.

GRADUAL. I St. Peter 4. Rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. \hat{V} . If ye be reproached for the Name of Christ, happy are ye: for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Is. 66. I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream. Alleluia.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Acts 11. 22.

I N those days: Tidings of these things came unto the ears of the Church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad: and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith. And much people was added unto the Lord. Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul: and when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the Church, and taught much people: and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea. Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

RETHREN: We are made a spectacle unto the world, and to Angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ: we are weak, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are despised. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place, and labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless: being persecuted, we suffer it: being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day. ST. BASIL, BISHOP, CONFESSOR, AND DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

INTROIT. In medio Ecclesiae. Ecclus. 15.

I N the midst of the Church he opened his mouth: and the Lord filled him with the spirit of wisdom and understanding: he clothed him with a robe of glory. Ps. 92. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O most Highest. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, graciously to hear the prayers which we offer unto thee on this festival of thy holy Confessor and Bishop, Saint Basil: that like as he was found worthy to do thee faithful service, so by the succour of his merits we may be delivered from the bonds of the sins which we have committed. Through.

The Lesson from the latter EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to Timothy. 2 Tim. 4. 1.

EARLY beloved: I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be instant in season, out of season: reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an Evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

GRADUAL. Ps. 37. The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom: and his tongue will be talking of judgment. $\hat{\mathbb{Y}}$. The law of God is in his heart: and his goings shall not slide.

Alleluia, alleluia. \hat{V} . Ps. 89. I have found David my servant, with my holy oil have I anointed him. Alleluia.

ST. ALBAN THE MARTYR

INTROIT. In virtute tua. Ps. 21.

THE righteous shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation: thou hast given him his heart's desire. Ps. ibid. For thou hast prevented him with the blessings of goodness: and hast set a crown of pure gold upon his head. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

O LORD, who hast sanctified this day to thy blessed Saint Alban by his glorious Martyrdom: grant, we beseech thee; that as year by year we do rejoice to pay him honour, so we may ever be defended by his continual help. Through.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom. Wisdom 10. 10.

THE Lord guided the righteous man in right paths, shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things: made him rich in his travels, and multiplied the fruit of his labours. In the covetousness of such as oppressed him he stood by him, and made him rich. He defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and in a sore conflict gave him the victory: that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. When the righteous was sold, wisdom forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: she went down with him into the pit, and left him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and power against those that oppressed him: as for those that had accused him, she shewed them to be liars, and gave him perpetual glory, O Lord our God.

GRADUAL. Ps. 112. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in his commandments. \hat{V} . His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.

ST. ALOYSIUS, CONFESSOR

INTROIT. Minuisti eum. Ps. 8.

THOU madest him a little lower than the Angels: to crown him with glory and worship. Ps. 148. Praise the Lord, all ye Angels of his: praise him all his host. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

O GOD, the giver of all spiritual gifts, who in the angelic youth of thy blessed Saint Aloysius didst unite a wondrous penitence to a wondrous innocence of life: grant, by his merits and intercession, that although we have not followed the pattern of his innocence, yet we may imitate the example of his penitence. Through.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Ecclesiasticus. Ecclus. 31. 8.

BLESSED is the man that is found without blemish: and hath not gone after gold. Who is he? and we will call him blessed: for wonderful things hath he done among his people. Who hath been tried thereby and found perfect? Then let him glory. Who might offend, and hath not offended? or done evil, and hath not done it? His goods shall be established in the Lord.

GRADUAL. Ps. 71. O Lord, thou art my hope, even from my youth: through thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb. V. Ps. 41. And when I am innocent thou upholdest me: and shalt set me before thy face for ever.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 22. 29.

At that time: Jesus answered and said unto the Saducees: Ye do err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the Angels of God in heaven. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying: I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine. But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together: then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying: Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 24. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord, or who shall rise up in his holy place? Even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart.

Jer. 1. 4.

In those days: The word of the Lord came unto me, saying: Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee: and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I: Ah, Lord God: behold, I cannot speak, for I am a child. But the Lord said unto me: Say not: I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee: and whatsoever I command thee, thou shalt speak. Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee, to deliver thee, saith the Lord. Then the Lord put forth his hand and touched my mouth: and the Lord said unto me: Behold I have put my words in thy mouth: see, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, and to build, and to plant: saith the Lord Almighty.

The Beginning of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke.

St. Luke 1. 5.

THERE was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years. And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense. And there appeared unto him an Angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. But the Angel said unto him: Fear not, Zacharias, for thy prayer is heard: and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

LISABETH'S full time came that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son. And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her: and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child: and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said: Not so, but he shall be called John. And they said unto her: There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called: and he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying: His name is John. And they marvelled all. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed: and he spake, and praised God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them; and all these savings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judaea. And all they that had heard them laid them up in their hearts, saving: What manner of child shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him. The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 12. 1.

N those days: Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the Church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And, because he saw it pleased the Tews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. Then were the days of unleavened bread. And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him: intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in prison. But prayer was made without ceasing of the Church unto God for him. And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And behold, the Angel of the Lord came upon him: and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying: Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the Angel said unto him: Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him: Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went out and followed him, and wist not that it was true which was done by the Angel: but thought he saw a vision. When they were past the first and second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city: which opened to them of his own accord. And they went out, and passed on through one street: and forthwith the Angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said: Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 16. 13.

AT that time: When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saving: Whom do men say that I, the Son of man, am? And they said: Some say that thou art John the Baptist, some Elias, and others Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them: But whom say ve that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said: Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Iesus answered, and said unto him: Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona, for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee: That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. The Creed is said.

RETHREN: But I certify you that the Gospel which was preached of me is not after man: for I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion: how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: and profited in the Tews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen: immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me: but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days: but other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God. I lie not.

GRADUAL. Gal. 2. He that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship, was also mighty in me toward the Gentiles: and they perceived the grace that was given unto me. \hat{V} . I Cor. 15. The grace of God which was bestowed upon me was not

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves. Be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men. For they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in the synagogues: and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my Name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. Creed.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Hebrews. Heb. 9. 11.

BRETHREN: Christ being come an High Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building: neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own Blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the Blood of Christ, who, through the eternal Spirit, offered himself without spot to God, purge your consciences from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the Mediator of the new testament: that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL. I St. John 5. This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood. V. There are three that bare record in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bare witness in earth: the Spirit, and the Water, and the Blood: and these three agree in one.

Alleluia, alleluia. \hat{V} . If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater. Alleluia.

HA The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 19. 30.

At that time: When Jesus had received the vinegar, he said: It is finished. And he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate, that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers; and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs; but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out Blood and Water. And he that saw it bare record: and his record is true. Creed.

DEHOLD he cometh, leaping upon the moun-D tains, skipping upon the hills: my beloved is like a roe or a young hart. Behold he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice. My beloved spake and said unto me: Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come: and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land: the fig tree putteth forth her green figs: and the vines with the tender grape give forth good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away : O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice: for sweet is thy voice. and thy countenance is comely.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 1. 39.

↑ ND Mary arose in those days: and went into The hill country with haste, into a city of Juda: and entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb: and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost: and she spake out with a loud voice, and said: Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. And blessed is she that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord. And Mary said: My soul doth magnify the Lord: And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. The Creed is said.

The Lesson from the latter EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to Timothy. 2 Tim. 3.14.

DEARLY beloved: Continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of : knowing of whom thou hast learned them, and that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word, be instant in season, out of season: reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears, and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

GRADUAL. Ps. 122. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will wish thee prosperity. V..Ps. 37. Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right: for that shall bring a man peace at the last.

ling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep: the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. At that time: Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray. And when the evening was come, he was there alone. But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying: It is a spirit. And they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying: Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And Peter answered him and said: Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. And he said: Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid: and, beginning to sink, he cried, saying: Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him: O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying: Of a truth thou art the Son of God. The Creed is said.

Cant. 3 and 8.

WILL rise now, and go about the city in the streets: and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not. The watchmen that go about the city found me. To whom I said: Saw ye him whom my soul loveth? It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me. I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ve stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please. Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death: jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

GRADUAL. Ps. 45. Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity. %. Wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke.

St. Luke 7. 36.

A T that time: One of the Pharisees desired him That he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment: and stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying: This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. And lesus answering said unto him: Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith: Master, say on. There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most? Simon answered and said: I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him: Thou hast rightly judged. And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon: Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee; Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. And he said unto her: Thy sins are forgiven. And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves: Who is this that forgiveth sins also? And he said to the woman: Thy faith hath saved thee: go in peace. Creed.

EARLY beloved: The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ: and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind: Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant: because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith: knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. In those days: Came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world:

which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea. Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the Church. At that time: There came to Jesus the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. And he said unto her: What wilt thou? She saith unto him: Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said: Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him: We are able. And he saith unto them; Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said: Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Ecclus. 51. 1.

WILL thank thee, O Lord and King, and praise thee, O God my Saviour: I do give praise unto thy Name: for thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserved my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that forge lies, and hast been mine helper against mine adversaries. And hast delivered me. according to the multitude of thy mercies and greatness of thy Name, from the teeth of them that were ready to devour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had: from the choking of fire on every side, and from the midst of the fire which I kindled not; from the depth of the belly of hell, from an unclean tongue, and from lying words. By an accusation to the king from an unrighteous tongue my soul drew near even unto death, my life was near to the hell beneath. They compassed me on every side, and there was no man to help me: I looked for the succour of men, but there was none.

Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Lord, and upon thy acts of old, how thou deliverest such as wait for thee, and savest them out of the hands of the enemies, O Lord our God.

Ecclus. 24. 7.

WITH all these I sought rest, and in whose inheritance shall I abide? So the Creator of all things gave me a commandment: and he that made me caused my tabernacle to rest, and said: Let thy dwelling be in Jacob, and thine inheritance in Israel. He created me from the beginning before the world, and I shall never fail. In the holy tabernacle I served before him: and so was I established in Sion. Likewise in the beloved city he gave me rest, and in Jerusalem was my power. And I took root in an honourable people, even in the portion of the Lord's inheritance. I was exalted like a cedar in Libanus, and as a cypress tree upon the mountains of Hermon. I was exalted like a palm tree in Engaddi, and as a rose plant in Jericho. As a fair olive tree in a pleasant field, and grew up as a plane tree by the water. I gave a sweet smell like cinnamon and aspalathus: and I yielded a pleasant odour like the best myrrh.

For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy: and observed him, and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. And when a convenient day was come, that Herod, on his birthday, made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee; and when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him; the king said unto the damsel: Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. And he sware unto her: Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom. And she went forth, and said unto her mother: What shall I ask? And she said: The head of John the Baptist. And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying: I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist. And the king was exceeding sorry: yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her: and immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in the prison, and brought his head in a charger: and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother. And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse: and laid it in a tomb.

NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

INTROIT. Salve, sancta parens. Sedulius.

HAIL, O Mother most holy, who didst give birth to the monarch, reigning o'er heaven and earth world without end. Ps. 45. My heart is inditing of a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made unto the King. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, pour into our hearts the abundance of thy heavenly grace: that like as the child-bearing of the Blessed Virgin Mary was unto us thy servants the beginning of our salvation, so the devout observance of her Nativity may avail for the increasing of our peace. Through,

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Proverbs. Prov. 8, 22,

THE Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. When there were no depths, I was brought forth: when there were no fountains abounding with water: before the mountains were settled: before the hills was I brought forth: while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth: when he established the clouds above; when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: when he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth. Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him: rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth: and my delights were with the sons of men. Now, therefore, hearken unto me, O ve children: for blessed are they that keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. For whose findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

GRADUAL. Blessed and worshipful art thou, O Virgin Mary: who a maiden undefiled hast our Saviour for thy child.

V. Virgin Mother of God, the whole world cannot contain him: yet, made man for our sake, hidden he lies in thy womb.

Alleluia, alleluia. \hat{V} . Blessed art thou, O holy Virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise: for out of thee arose the Sun of righteousness, Christ our God. Alleluia.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Ecclesiasticus. Ecclus. 24. 17.

I, AS the vine, brought forth pleasant savour: and my flowers are the fruit of honour and riches. I am the mother of fair love, and fear, and knowledge, and holy hope. In me is all grace of the way and of the truth: in me is all hope of life and of virtue. Come unto me all ye that be desirous of me, and fill yourselves with my fruits. For my spirit is sweeter than honey, and mine inheritance than the honeycomb. My memorial shall be unto everlasting generations. They that eat me shall yet be hungry: and they that drink me shall yet be thirsty. He that obeyeth me shall never be confounded: and they that work by me shall not do amiss. They that expound me shall have everlasting life.

GRADUAL. Blessed and worshipful art thou, O Virgin Mary: who a maiden undefiled hast our Saviour for thy child. V. Virgin Mother of God, the whole world cannot contain him: yet, made man for our sake, hidden he lies in thy womb.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. After child-bearing thou remainedst a pure Virgin: Mother of God, intercede for us. Alleluia.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke.

St. Luke 1. 26.

AT that time: The Angel Gabriel was sent from A God unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the Virgin's name was Mary. And the Angel came in unto her, and said : Hail, thou that art highly favoured: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying: and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God: and behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call his Name JESUS. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the Angel: How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the Angel answered and said unto her: The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren: for with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. The Creed is said.

OFFERTORY. St. Luke 1. Hail, Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

SECRET.

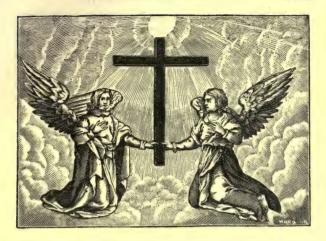

W E beseech thee, O Lord, that by the bountiful goodness of thy mercy and by the intercession of blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, these our oblations may be acceptable in thy sight: that we, being delivered in this present life from all adversities, may obtain in that which is to come peace everlasting. EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS COMMONLY CALLED

HOLY CROSS DAY

INTROIT. Nos autem gloriari. Gal. 6.

 \mathbf{B} UT as for us, it behoveth us to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: in whom is our salvation, our life and resurrection: by whom we were saved and obtained our freedom. Ps. 67. God be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us. \hat{V} . Glory be.

COLLECT.

O GOD, who as on this day dost gladden us with the yearly festival of the Exaltation of thy Holy Cross: grant, we beseech thee, that we which on earth have known the mystery of the redemption which thou hast wrought for us, may be found worthy to receive the rewards thereof in heaven. Who livest.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians. Phil. 2. 5.

RETHREN: Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a Name which is above every name: (Here genuflect) that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth: and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is God, to the glory of God the Father.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 12. 31.

AT that time: Jesus said unto the multitudes of the Jews: Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. (This he said, signifying what death he should die.) The people answered him: We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how savest thou: The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man? Then Jesus said unto them: Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. The Creed is said.

Woe unto the world because of offences. For it must needs be that offences come: but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh. Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you,

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Proverbs. Prov. 8.

THE Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way before his works of old. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. When there were no depths I was brought forth. Now therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. For whose findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

GRADUAL. Ps. 45. Because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness: and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things. \hat{V} . Hearken, O daughter, and consider, incline thine ear: so shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty.

↑ T that time: The Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph. of the house of David; and the Virgin's name was Mary. And the Angel came in unto her, and said: Hail, thou that art highly favoured: the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saving: and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God: and behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the Angel: How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the Angel answered and said unto her: The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren: for with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. The Creed is said.

Acts 17. 22.

IN those days: Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said: Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ve are too superstitious. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands: neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things: and hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation, that they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us. For in him we live, and move, and have our being: as certain also of your own poets have said: For we are also his offspring. Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. And the times of this ignorance God winked at, but now commandeth all men every where to repent, because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained, whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, and others said: We will hear thee again of this matter. So Paul departed from among them. Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light: and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops. And I say unto you my friends: Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell. Yea, I say unto you: Fear him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place, and labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless: being persecuted, we suffer it: being defamed, we intreat: we are TUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James. To them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ve should earnestly contend for the faith which . was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation: ungodly men. turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness: and denving the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. And the Angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

If ye were of the world: the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you: The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my Name's sake: because they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin. He that hateth me: hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law: They hated me without a cause. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: and ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning. COLLECT 2 of the Holy Ghost; 3 for the Church, or for the Chief Bishop.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of the Revelation of blessed John the Apostle. Rev. 5. 6.

In those days: I John beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes: which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. And he came: and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints: and they sung a new song, saving: Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many Angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice: Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing, for ever and ever. Amen.

GRADUAL. Ps. 149. Let the saints be joyful with glory, let them rejoice in their beds. V. O sing unto the Lord a new song: let the congregation of saints praise him.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 6. 17.

AT that time: Jesus came down from the mountain and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases. And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed. And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all. And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said: Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 149. Let the saints be joyful with glory, let them rejoice in their beds: let the praises of God be in their mouth.

FEASTS OF NOVEMBER

November 1st.

ALL SAINTS' DAY

INTROIT. Gaudeamus.

R EJOICE we all in the Lord, keeping holy-day in honour of all the Saints: in whose feast-day the Angels rejoice and glorify the Son of God. Ps. 33. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY GOD, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living; that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee. Through.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of the Revelation of blessed John the Apostle. Rev. 7. 2.

In those days: I, John, saw another Angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four Angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth, and the sea, saying: Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. And I heard the number of them which were sealed; and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel. Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand. After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues: stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands: and cried with a loud voice, saving: Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts: and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying: Amen. Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

GRADUAL. Ps. 34. Fear the Lord, ye that are his saints: for they that fear him lack nothing. V. They who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . St. Matt. 11. Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden: and I will give you rest. Alleluia.

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 5. 1.

AT that time: Jesus, seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain; and when he was set, his disciples came up unto him, and he opened his mouth, and taught them, saving: Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ve. when men shall revile you. and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake: rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. ¶ In Eastertide the Mass Sancti tui is said, from the Common of Martyrs, page F 21, with Prayers, Epistle, and Gospel, as above.

¶ Within the Octave, Mass is said as on the Feast. The second Collect is of the Holy Ghost, the third for the Church or for the Chief Bishop. And the Creed is said.

November 2nd.

Or November 3rd, if the 2nd be a Sunday.

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

COMMONLY CALLED

ALL SOULS' DAY

¶ To-day any Priest may celebrate three Masses. But if he celebrate only one Mass it shall be the first: and if he celebrate a Mass with Chant it shall likewise be the first, and in this case he may anticipate the second and third.

AT THE FIRST MASS.

The Mass Requiem aeternam is said, being the first Mass for the Departed.

¶ At the first and second Mass, if the Priest be about to celebrate another Mass, when he has consumed the Precious Blood, he does not purify nor cleanse the Chalice, but places it on the Corporal, and covers it with the Pall; then, with hands joined, he says in the midst of the Altar: Grant, O Lord, that what our mouths have taken, etc., and then he washes his fingers in a vessel of water, saying: May thy Flesh which I have taken, etc., and thus he cleanses them. And when he has so done, he removes the Pall and again places the Chalice on the Corporal and covers it, according to custom, first with the linen Purificator, then with the Paten on which is the Host to be consecrated, and lastly with the veil.

AT THE SECOND MASS.

The Mass Requiem aeternam as on the Anniversary of the Dead, being the third Mass for the Departed.

¶ At the second and third Mass, the Priest, if he has celebrated the first Mass, when he comes to the Offertory, removes the veil from the Chalice, and places the latter towards the Epistle corner, but not beyond the Corporal; and when he has offered the Host, he does not cleanse the Chalice with the Purificator, but leaving it upon the Corporal, raises it a little, and pours wine and water into it carefully; and then he offers the Chalice, in the accustomed manner, although it has not been entirely cleansed.

AT THE THIRD MASS.

The Mass Requiem aeternam, as at Daily Masses for the Dead, being the fourth Mass for the Departed, using the second Collect, Secret, and Postcommunion, namely those for Brethren, Kinsfolk, and Benefactors departed.

Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians. Phil. 3. 17.

RETHREN: Be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction: whose god is their belly: and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. For our conversation is in heaven: from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown:

so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Ecclesiasticus. Ecclus. 44. 22.

THE blessing of the Lord was upon the head of the righteous. Therefore the Lord gave him an heritage; and divided his portion among the twelve tribes. And he found favour in the sight of all flesh. And the Lord magnified him so that his enemies stood in fear of him. By his words he caused the wonders to cease: he made him glorious in the sight of kings, and gave him a commandment for his people, and shewed him his glory. He sanctified him in his faithfulness and meekness, and chose him out of all men. He gave him commandments before his face, even the law of life and knowledge, and exalted him. An everlasting covenant he made with him: the Lord beautified him with ornaments of righteousness: and clothed him with a robe of glory.

GRADUAL. Ps. 92. The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree: and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus in the house of the Lord. \hat{V} . To tell of thy loving-kindness in the morning, and of thy truth in the night-season.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: This is my commandment, That ye love one another as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth. But I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed James the Apostle. St. James 1. 12.

EARLY beloved: Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried. he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Let no man say when he is tempted: I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil: neither tempteth he any man. But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not err, my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

GRADUAL. Ps. 89. I have found David my servant, with my holy oil have I anointed him: my hand shall hold him fast, and my arm shall strengthen him. $\mathring{\mathbb{V}}$. The enemy shall not be able to do him violence: the son of wickedness shall not hurt him. Alleluia, alleluia. $\mathring{\mathbb{V}}$. Ps. 110. And whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it. all that behold it begin to mock him, saving: This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? BRETHREN: Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our tribulation: that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom. Wisdom 10. 10.

THE Lord guided the righteous in right paths, shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things: made him rich in his travels, and multiplied the fruit of his labours. In the covetousness of such as oppressed him he stood by him, and made him rich. He defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and in a sore conflict he gave him the victory; that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. When the righteous was sold, wisdom forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: she went down with him into the pit, and left him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and power against those that oppressed him: as for those that had accused DEARLY beloved: Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel, wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, persecutions, afflictions: which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed James the Apostle.

St. James 1. 2.

EARLY beloved: Count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work: that ve may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive anything of the Lord. A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted: but the rich in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

The Common of a Martyr not a Bishop F 15

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Peter the Apostle. 1 St. Peter 4. 13.

EARLY beloved: Rejoice inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings: that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ happy are ve; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorify God on this behalf. For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us. what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of the Revelation of blessed John the Apostle.

Rev. 19. 1.

IN those days: After these things I, John, heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying: Alleluia: Salvation and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: for true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And again they said: Alleluia; and her smoke rose up for ever and ever. And the four-and-twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying: Amen; Alleluia. And a voice came out of the throne, saving: Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying: Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. And he saith unto me: Write: Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Verily, verily I say unto you: that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

COMMON OF SEVERAL MARTYRS OUT OF EASTERTIDE

INTROIT. Intret in conspectu. Ps. 79.

LET the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come before thee, O Lord: reward thou our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom: let the vengeance of thy servants' blood that is shed be openly shewed upon the heathen. Ps. ibid. O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance, thy holy temple have they defiled: and made Jerusalem an heap of stones. V. Glory be.

If they were not Bishops the Collect is said as in the Mass following.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom. Wisd. 3. 1.

THE souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: and their departure is taken for misery; and their going from us to be utter destruction: but they are in peace. For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their hope full of immortality. And having been a little chastised, they shall be greatly rewarded: for God proved them, and found them worthy for himself. As gold in the furnace hath he tried them, and received them as a burnt offering. And in the time of their visitation they shall shine, and run to and fro like sparks among the stubble. They shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people, and their Lord shall reign for ever.

GRADUAL. Exod. 15. The Lord is glorious in holiness: fearful in praises, doing wonders. \mathring{V} . Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy. Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Ecclus. 44. The bodies of the Saints are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore. Alleluia.

T that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: When ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass: but the end is not by and by. Then said he unto them: Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven. But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake. And it shall turn to you for a testimony. Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. But there shall not an hair of your head perish. In your patience possess ve your souls.

AT that time: Jesus came down from the moun-A tain and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; and they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed. And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all. And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said: Blessed are ve poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold your reward is great in heaven.

For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope: because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. BRETHREN: Through faith the saints subdued D kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: and others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; (of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. The light of the body is the eye. Therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all: Watch.

DEARLY beloved: I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be instant in season, out of season: reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an Evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its sayour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Everything shall be said as above for one Virgin Martyr except the prayers which shall be said as follows; and the Epistle which shall be that appointed below for the Common of Virgins who are not Martyrs, Concerning Virgins I have no commandment, page F 74.

COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech thee, O Lord our God, that we may at all times so devoutly honour the triumph of thy blessed Virgins and Martyrs N. and N: that, although we be unworthy to shew forth their praises, yet we may reverence them in all lowliness of spirit. Through.

SECRET.

O LORD, we beseech thee, look down upon these gifts, which we offer on thine altar on this festival of thy holy Virgins and Martyrs N. and N.: and, as thou dost in these mysteries increase their glory, so likewise of thy bounty bestow upon us the pardon of thy mercy. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that at the intercession of thy blessed Virgins and Martyrs, we, who with our outward lips have partaken of this holy Sacrament, may inwardly receive the same in purity of heart. Through.

FOR A VIRGIN ONLY

INTROIT. Dilexisti. Ps. 45.

THOU hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity: therefore God even thy God hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. $Ps.\ ibid.$ My heart is inditing of a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made unto the King. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

GRACIOUSLY hear us, O God of our salvation: that, like as we do rejoice in the festival of thy blessed Virgin Saint N., so we may learn to follow her in all godly and devout affections. Through.

The Lesson from the latter EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. 2 Cor. 10. 17.

BRETHREN: He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

F72 The Common of a Virgin Only

Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

GRADUAL. Ps. 45. In thy comeliness and in thy beauty go forth, ride prosperously and reign. V. Because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness: and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things. Alleluia, alleluia. V. The virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company: they shall be brought unto thee with joy and gladness. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima, instead of Alleluia and the verse following is said:

TRACT. Ibid. Hearken, O daughter, and consider, incline thine ear: so shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty. \mathring{V} . The rich among the people shall make their supplication before thee: kings' daughters are among thine honourable women. \mathring{V} . The virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company: they shall be brought unto thee. \mathring{V} . With joy and gladness shall they be brought: and shall enter into the King's palace.

In Eastertide instead of the Gradual is said:

Alleluia, alleluia. $\mathring{\mathbb{Y}}$. Ibid. The virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company: they shall be brought unto thee with joy and gladness. Alleluia. $\mathring{\mathbb{Y}}$. In thy comeliness and in thy beauty go forth, ride prosperously and reign. Alleluia.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 25. 1.

AT that time: Jesus spake this parable unto his disciples: The kingdom of heaven shall be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made: Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise: Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying: Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ve rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying: Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said: Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 45. Kings' daughters were among thine honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in a vesture of gold, wrought about with divers colours.

SECRET.

RANT, O Lord, we pray thee, that like as we thy faithful people do acknowledge that in the time of our tribulation we have been succoured by the merits of thy Saints: so this oblation, which we here do offer and present unto thee in their honour, may be acceptable in thy sight. Through.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. I Cor. 7. 25.

BRETHREN: Concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress. I say, that it is good for a man so to be. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you. But this I say, brethren, the time is short; it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; and they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: but he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: in Jesus Christ our Lord.

GRADUAL. Ps. 45. The King shall have pleasure in thy beauty, for he is thy Lord God. V. Hearken, O daughter, and consider, incline thine ear. Alleluia, alleluia. V. This is a wise virgin and one of the number of the prudent. Alleluia.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Ecclesiasticus. Ecclus. 51. 1.

WILL thank thee, O Lord and King, and praise thee, O God my Saviour: I do give praise unto thy Name: for thou art my defender and helper. and hast preserved my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that forge lies, and hast been mine helper against mine adversaries: and hast delivered me according to the multitude of thy mercies and greatness of thy Name, from the teeth of them that were ready to devour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had: from the choking of fire on every side, and from the midst of the fire which I kindled not; from the depth of the belly of hell, from an unclean tongue, and from lying words. By an accusation to the king from an unrighteous tongue my soul drew near even unto death, my life was near to the hell beneath. They compassed me on every side, and there was no man to help me: I looked for the succour of men, but there was none. Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Lord, and upon thy acts of old, how thou deliverest such as wait for thee, and savest them out of the hands of the enemies. O Lord our God.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Proverbs.

Proverbs 31. 10.

II/HO can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She laveth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it: delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. 'She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously. but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord,

¶ Another Epistle for a widow.

The Lesson for the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to Timothy. I Tim. 5. 3.

EARLY beloved: Honour widows that are widows indeed. But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless. But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of the Revelation of blessed John the Apostle.

Rev. 21. 2.

IN those days: I, John saw the holy city, new I Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying: Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men. and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said: Behold, I make all things new.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 19. 1.

At that time: Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him; for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him: Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying: That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord: Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Jesus said unto him: This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. The Creed is said.

MASS OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

INTROIT. Benedicta sit. Tobit 13.

BLESSED be the holy Trinity and undivided Unity: we will confess him, because he hath shewed his mercy upon us. Ps. 8. O Lord our Governour: how excellent is thy Name in all the world! $\hat{\mathbb{V}}$. Glory be.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity: we beseech thee, that thou wouldest keep us steadfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities. Through.

The Lesson from the latter EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

2 Cor. 13. 11.

RETHREN: Farewell, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost be with you all. Amen.

GRADUAL. Daniel 3. Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths, and sittest upon the cherubim. V. Blessed art thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven, and above all to be praised and glorified for ever.

Alleluia, alleluia. \hat{V} . Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers, and to be praised and exalted above all for ever. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima Alleluia and the verse following are omitted, and instead thereof is said:

In Eastertide the Gradual is omitted, and in place of it is said:

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Daniel 3. Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our Fathers, and to be praised and exalted above all for ever. Alleluia. \mathring{V} . Let us bless the Father and the Son, with the Holy Ghost. Alleluia.

He The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 15. 26.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: When the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: and ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning. These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them.

OFFERTORY. Tobit 12. Blessed be God the Father, and the only-begotten Son of God, and likewise the Holy Ghost: for he hath shewed his mercy upon us.

SECRET.

O LORD GOD ALMIGHTY, we humbly beseech thee: that by the power of thy holy Name, thou wouldest vouchsafe to sanctify this oblation of our sacrifice; that we may thereby be enabled evermore to present ourselves unto thee to be an offering acceptable in thy sight. Through.

PREFACE of the Holy Trinity.

COMMUNION. Tobit 13. We bless the God of heaven and extol him before all the living: for he hath shewed his mercy upon us.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ETERNAL LORD GOD, who hast given unto us to acknowledge the holy and eternal Trinity to be likewise one undivided Unity: mercifully grant, that we, who have now received thy holy sacraments, may thereby be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul. Through.

Tuesday.

MASS OF THE ANGELS

INTROIT. Benedicite Dominum. Ps. 103.

PRAISE the Lord, ye Angels of his, ye that excel in strength: ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his words.

Ps. ibid. Praise the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, praise his holy Name. \mathring{V} . Glory be.

COLLECT.

EVERLASTING God, who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order: mercifully grant, that as thy holy Angels alway do thee service in heaven, so by thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth. Through.

Glory be to God on high is always said.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of the Revelation of blessed John the Apostle.

Rev. 5. 11.

In those days: I heard the voice of many Angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice: Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying: Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. And the four beasts said: Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

GRADUAL. Ps. 148. O praise the Lord of heaven: praise him in the height. V. Praise him, all ve Angels of his: praise him, all his host.

all ye Angels of his: praise him, all his host.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 138. Even before the Angels will I sing praise unto thee: I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name.

Alleluia.

After Septuagesima Alleluia and the verse following are omitted, and instead thereof is said:

TRACT. Ps. 103. O praise the Lord, ye Angels of his, ye that excel in strength: ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his words. \hat{V} . O praise the Lord, all ye his hosts: ye servants of his, that do his pleasure. \hat{V} . O speak good of the Lord, all ye works of his: in all places of his dominion, praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

In Eastertide the Gradual is omitted, and in place of it is said:

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Ps. 138. Even before the Angels will I sing praise unto thee: I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name. Alleluia. \mathring{V} . St. Matt. 28. The Angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. Alleluia.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 1. 47.

AT that time: Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him: Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Nathanael saith unto him: Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him: Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered and said unto him: Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the King of Israel. Jesus answered and said unto him: Because I said unto thee: I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? Thou shalt see greater things than these. And he saith unto him: Verily, verily, I say unto you: Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the Angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

OFFERTORY. Rev. 8. Another Angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer, and there was given unto him much incense: and the smoke of the incense ascended up before God.

SECRET.

WE humbly beseech thee, O Lord, that the prayers of thy holy Angels may assist us thy servants who offer unto thee this Sacrifice of praise: that this our offering may be acceptable in thy sight, and profitable unto us for our salvation. Through.

COMMUNION. Angels, Archangels, Thrones, and Dominations, Principalities, and Powers, heavenly Virtues, Cherubim, and Seraphim, bless ye the Lord for ever and ever.

POSTCOMMUNION.

O LORD, who hast vouchsafed to accept this frailty of our service and hast fulfilled us with thy heavenly benediction: mercifully grant, that the succour of thy holy Angels and Archangels may effectually avail for the assistance of us thy servants. Through.

Another votive Mass of St. Michael Archangel may be said, as on the day of the Feast, September 20th. Wednesday.

MASS OF THE HOLY APOSTLES PETER AND PAUL

INTROIT. Mihi autem nimis. Ps. 139.

R IGHT dear are thy friends unto me, O God, and held in highest honour: their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast. Ps. ibid. Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

LORD, who by thy right hand didst save thy blessed Apostle Saint Peter, that he sank not when he walked upon the waves, and didst thrice in shipwreck deliver Saint Paul his fellow from the depths of the sea: mercifully hear our prayers; and grant that by the merits of these thy Saints, we may be brought unto the glory of everlasting life: Who livest.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 5, 12.

In those days: By the hands of the Apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people: and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. And of the rest durst no man join himself to them. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them that GRADUAL. Ps. 45. Thou shalt make them princes in all lands: they shall remember thy Name, O Lord. \hat{V} . Instead of thy fathers, thou shalt have children: therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Ps. 139. Right dear are thy friends unto me, O God, and held in highest honour: their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima Alleluia and the verse following are omitted, and in place of them is said:

TRACT. Ps. 126. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. \hat{V} . He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed. \hat{V} . He shall doubtless come again with joy and bring his sheaves with him.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 19. 27.

AT that time: Peter said unto Jesus: Behold, we have left all and followed thee: what shall we have therefore? And Jesus said unto them: Verily, I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my Name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 19. Their sound is gone out into all lands: and their words unto the ends of the world.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to receive these our prayers and oblations: and grant that by the intercession of thy holy Apostles Peter and Paul they may be made an acceptable offering in thy sight. Through.

PREFACE of the Apostles.

COMMUNION. St. Matt. 19. Ye which have followed me shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to defend thy people: that we, who put our trust and confidence in the succour of thy holy Apostles Peter and Paul, may be preserved by thy perpetual and ready help. Through.

In Eastertide the Mass Protexisti, for the Common of one Martyr is said, excepting the Prayers, Epistle, Gospel, and Preface, which are as in the Mass above.

Another Mass for Wednesday

MASS OF ALL THE HOLY APOSTLES OUT OF EASTERTIDE.

INTROIT. Mihi autem nimis. Ps. 139.

ALMIGHTY GOD, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the head corner-stone: grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee. Through.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians. Ephes. 4. 7.

BRETHREN: Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith: When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive: and gave gifts unto men. Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things. And he gave some apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors, and teachers, for the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

GRADUAL. Ps. 45. Thou shalt make them princes in all lands: they shall remember thy Name, O Lord.

Ö. Instead of thy fathers thou shalt have children: therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee.

Alleluia, alleluia. $\mathring{\nabla}$. Ps. 139. Right dear are thy friends unto me, O God, and held in highest honour: their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast. Alleluia.

COLLECT.

OD, who didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit. . . .

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 8. 14.

In those days: When the Apostles, which were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: for as yet he was fallen upon none of them, only they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

GRADUAL. Ps. 33. Blessed are the people, whose God is the Lord Jehovah: and blessed are the folk that he hath chosen to him to be his inheritance. \hat{V} . By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

Alleluia, alleluia. \hat{V} . (Here genuflect.) Come, Holy Ghost, and fill the hearts of thy faithful people: and kindle in them the fire of thy love. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima Alleluia and the verse following being omitted, in place thereof is said:

TRACT. Ps. 104. O send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth. \mathring{V} . O how good and sweet, O Lord, is thy Spirit within us. \mathring{V} . The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL St. John 14. 23. according to John.

↑ T that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: If A a man love me, he will keep my words, and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my savings. And the word which ve hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you: I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said: I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the Prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 68. Stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us : for thy temple's sake at Jerusalem, shall kings bring presents unto thee.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that we thy servants, ever seeking diligently the grace of thy Holy Spirit, may be found worthy to be defended against all temptations, and to obtain the remission of all our sins. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

Another Mass for Thursday.

MASS OF THE MOST HOLY SACRA-MENT OF THE EUCHARIST

INTROIT. Cibavit eos. Ps. 81.

He fed them also with the finest wheat flour: and with honey from the rock hath he satisfied them. Ps. ibid. Sing we merrily unto God our helper: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

O GOD, who in a wonderful Sacrament hast ordained unto us a memorial of thy Passion: grant us, we beseech thee, so to worship the sacred mysteries of thy Body and Blood, that we may ever feel within ourselves the fruits of thy redemption: Who livest and reignest with the Father in the unity of the Holy Ghost.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. 1 Cor. 11. 23.

DRETHREN: For I have received of the Lord D that which also I delivered unto you. That the Lord Iesus the same night in which he was betraved, took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said: Take, eat: This is my Body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saving: This cup is the new testament in my Blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup. ve do shew the Lord's death, till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's Body.

GRADUAL. Ps. 145. The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. \mathring{V} . Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Alleluia, alleluia. \hat{V} . St. John 6. My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima Alleluia and the verse following are omitted, and in place of them is said:

TRACT. Mal. 1. From the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my Name shall be great among the Gentiles. V. And in every place incense shall be offered unto my Name,

St. John 6. 55.

At that time: Jesus said unto the multitude of the Jews: My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my Flesh, and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

OFFERTORY. Lev. 21. The priests of the Lord do offer the offerings of the Lord made by fire and the bread of their God: therefore they shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the Name of their God.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, that like as we in these our oblations do shew forth in a mystery the unity and concord of thy Church: so thou wouldest ever mercifully bestow upon her these thy blessings. Through.

PREFACE of Christmas.

COMMUNION. I Cor. II. As often as ye do eat of this bread, and drink of this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come: wherefore, whosoever shall eat of this bread, and drink of this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord: that we who in these outward tokens have been made partakers of thy most precious Body and Blood, may after this life be replenished with the fruition of thy glorious Godhead. Who livest.

MASS OF THE HOLY CROSS INTROIT. Nos autem gloriari. Gal. 6.

BUT as for us, it behoveth us to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: in whom is our salvation, our life, and resurrection: by whom we were saved, and obtained our freedom. Ps. 67. God be merciful unto us and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

GOD, who by the precious Blood of thine onlybegotten Son hast vouchsafed to sanctify the Cross to be the sign of our redemption: grant us, we beseech thee; so joyfully to honour that holy Cross, that we may evermore rejoice in thy protection. Through the same. The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Philippians. Phil. 2. 8.

BRETHREN: Christ became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a Name which is above every name: (here genuflect) that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

GRADUAL. Phil. 2. Christ became obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross. V. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him: and given him the Name which is above every name.

After Septuagesima Alleluia and the verse following are omitted, and in place thereof is said:

TRACT. We adore thee, O Christ, and we bless thee: because by thy Cross thou hast redeemed the world. V. We adore thy Cross, O Lord, we commemorate thy glorious Passion: have mercy upon us, thou who didst suffer for us. V. O blessed Cross, which alone wast counted worthy to sustain the King of heaven and its Lord.

THE Lord Jesus Christ humbled himself unto death, even the death of the Cross: wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a Name which is above every name. Ps. 89. My song shall be alway of the loving-kindness of the Lord: from one generation to another. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

O LORD JESU CHRIST, who from the bosom of the Father in heaven didst come down to earth, and shed thy precious Blood for the remission of all our sins: we humbly beseech thee; that in the day of judgment we may be found worthy to stand at thy right hand and hear thy voice: Come, ye blessed ones: Who livest and reignest with the same God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit. . . .

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Zechariah the Prophet. Zech. 12. 10.

THUS saith the Lord: I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem the spirit of grace and of supplications:

and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. In that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem, and one shall say unto him: What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer: Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends. Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: saith the Lord almighty.

GRADUAL. Ps. 69. Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. \mathring{V} . They gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty, they gave me vinegar to drink.

Alleluia, alleluia. \mathring{V} . Hail, gracious King: who alone didst pity our transgressions: obedient to thy Father, thou wast led to be crucified, even as a meek lamb to the slaughter. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima Alleluia and the verse following are omitted, and in place thereof is said:

TRACT. Isa. 53. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows. V. Yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. V. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities. V. The chastisement of our peace was upon him: and with his stripes we are healed.

In Eastertide the Gradual is omitted, and in place of it is said:

 The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ G 27

Father, thou wast led to be crucified, even as a meek lamb to the slaughter. Alleluia. \hat{V} . To thee be glory, hosanna: to thee triumph and victory: to thee the crown of highest praise and honour. Alleluia.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John.

St. John 19. 28.

T that time: Iesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith: I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar. And they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said: It is finished. And he bowed his head and gave up the ghost. The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbathday, (for that sabbath-day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Iesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true.

OFFERTORY. Wicked men rose up against me: without mercy they sought to kill me: and they did not spare to spit in my face: they wounded me with their spears, and all my bones are broken.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, that by the mediation of the Passion of thy only-begotten Son, this sacrifice which we offer unto thee may evermore avail to quicken and defend us: Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

PREFACE of the Holy Cross.

COMMUNION. Ps. 22. They pierced my hands and my feet: I may tell all my bones.

POSTCOMMUNION.

O LORD JESU CHRIST, Son of the living God, who at the sixth hour for the redemption of the world wast lifted up upon the Cross of shame, and didst vouchsafe to shed thy precious Blood for the remission of our sins: we humbly beseech thee; that, after this our life on earth, thou wouldest grant unto us joyfully to enter the gates of Paradise: Who livest and reignest.

MASS OF SAINT MARY THE VIRGIN FROM ADVENT TO CHRISTMAS.

INTROIT. Rorate coeli. Is. 45.

ROP down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open and bring forth a Saviour.

Ps. 85. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

GOD who didst vouchsafe that thy Word should be made Flesh in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary at the message of an Angel: grant to us thy humble servants that we, believing her to be indeed the Mother of God, may by her intercession find favour in thy sight. Through the same.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from Isaiah the Prophet.

Isaiah 7. 10.

I N those days: The Lord spake unto Ahaz, saying: Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. But Ahaz said: I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord. And he said: Hear ye now, O house of David: Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold, a Virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Emmanuel. Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil and choose the good.

GRADUAL. Ps. 24. Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in. V. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord, or who shall stand in his holy place? Even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 1. 26.

At that time: The Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the Virgin's name was Mary. And the Angel came in unto her, and said: Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call his name IESUS. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the Angel: How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the Angel answered and said unto her: The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren: for with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word.

OFFERTORY. Ibid. Hail Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, stablish in our hearts the protection that, as we do believe thy Son, conceived of a Virgin, to be very God and very Man, so by the power of his resurrection we may be found worthy to attain to everlasting felicity. Through the same.

FROM CHRISTMAS TO THE PURIFICATION.

INTROIT. Vultum tuum. Ps. 45.

THE rich among the people shall make their supplication before thee: the virgins that be her fellows shall bear her company: and shall be brought unto thee with joy and gladness. Ps. ibid. My heart is inditing of a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made unto the King. V. Glory be.

COLLECT.

GOD who by the child-bearing of a pure Virgin hast bestowed upon all mankind the rewards of everlasting life: grant, we beseech thee, that we may know the succour of her intercession, through whom we have been found worthy to receive the author of all life, even Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to Titus.

Titus 3. 4.

DEARLY beloved: The kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared: not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour: that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life: in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL. Ps. 45. Thou art fairer than the children of men: full of grace are thy lips. V. My heart is inditing of a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made unto the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. After child-bearing thou remainedst a pure Virgin: Mother of God, intercede for us. Alleluia.

TRACT. Rejoice, O Mary, thou alone all heresy dost slay. \mathring{V} . Thou the Archangel Gabriel's message didst obey. \mathring{V} . He who is God and man was born thy son: yet art thou still a maid, O spotless One. \mathring{V} . Mother of God, intercede for us.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 2. 15.

At that time: The shepherds said one to another: Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

OFFERTORY. Blessed art thou, O holy Virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise: for out of thee arose the Sun of righteousness, Christ our God.

SECRET.

DRETHREN: I beseech you, that ye walk D worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love. endeavouring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one spirit, even as ve are called in one hope of your calling. One Lord, one faith, one baptism. One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro. and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive: but speaking the truth in love, may grow up unto him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart, who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. Ps. ibid. Let the people praise thee, O God: yea let all the people praise thee. \hat{V} . Glory be.

COLLECT.

GOD, who willest that all men should be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth: send forth, we beseech thee, labourers into thy harvest, and enable them to speak the word with all boldness; that thy word may run and be glorified, and that all nations may know thee, the one true God, and him whom thou hast sent, even Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord: Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Ecclesiasticus.

Ecclus. 36. 1.

JAVE mercy upon us, O Lord God of all, and behold us: and send thy fear upon the nations that seek not after thee. Lift up thy hand against the strange nations, and let them see thy power. As thou wast sanctified in us before them. so be thou magnified among them before us. And let them know thee, as we have known thee, that there is no God, but only thou, O God. Shew new signs, and make other strange wonders: glorify thy hand and thy right arm, that they may set forth thy wondrous works. Raise up indignation, and pour out wrath: take away the adversary, and destroy the enemy. Make the time short, remember the covenant, and let them declare thy wonderful works. Give testimony unto those that thou hast possessed from the beginning, and raise up prophets that have been in thy Name. Reward them that wait for thee, and let thy prophets be found faithful. O Lord, hear the prayer of thy servants, according to the blessing of Aaron over thy people, that all they which dwell upon the earth may know that thou art the Lord, the eternal God.

GRADUAL. Ps. 67. Let all the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee. V. God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 100. O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song. Alleluia.

After Septuagesima Alleluia and the verse following being omitted, in place thereof is said:

TRACT. Ps. o6. Declare the honour of the Lord unto the heathen, and his wonders unto all people. V. For the Lord is great, and cannot worthily be praised: he is more to be feared than all gods. V. As for the gods of the heathen, they are but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

In Eastertide the Gradual is omitted, and in place thereof is said:

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 100. O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song. Alleluia. V. Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves. Alleluia.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 9. 35.

T that time: Jesus went about all the cities and A villages teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. But when he saw the multitudes he was moved with compassion on them because they fainted and were scattered abroad as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples: The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 96. Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people: ascribe unto the Lord worship and power: ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his Name: bring presents and come into his courts: O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

SECRET.

BEHOLD, O God our Defender, and look upon the face of thine Anointed, who gave himself a ransom for all: and grant that from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same, thy Name may be great among the heathen, and in every place a pure offering may be offered unto thy Name. Through the same.

COMMUNION. Ps. 117. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: praise him, all ye nations: for his merciful kindness is ever more and more towards us, and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord: that as thou hast fed us with this reward of our redemption; so also this means of eternal salvation may avail for the furtherance of thy true religion. Through.

cessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men: for kings, and all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus: who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time: whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

MASS IN TIME OF ANY COMMON PLAGUE OR SICKNESS OR FOR PROTECTION AGAINST DISEASE

INTROIT. Recordare. 2 Sam. 24.

BE mindful of thy covenant, O Lord, and say to the destroying Angel: Stay now thine hand, and let not the land be made desolate, and destroy not every living thing. Ps. 80. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel: thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep. \hat{V} . Glory be.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY GOD, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but rather that he should turn from his wickedness and live: look down in mercy on thy people that turneth to thee with pure devotion; humbly beseeching thee that by thy mercy we may be delivered from the scourge of thy wrath. Through.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the second Book of Samuel. 2 Sam. 24. 15.

IN those days: The Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men. And when the Angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented him of the evil, and said to the Angel that destroyed the people: It is enough; stay now thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing-place of Araunah the Jebusite. And David spake unto the Lord when he saw the Angel that smote the people, and said: Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house. And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him: Go up, rear an altar unto the Lord in the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite. And David, according to the saving of Gad, went up as the Lord commanded. And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground. And Araunah said: Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said: To buy the threshing-floor of thee, to build an altar unto the Lord, that the plague may be stayed from the people. And Araunah said unto David: Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold here be oxen for burnt sacrifice. and threshing instruments, and other implements of the oxen for wood. All these things did Araunah. as a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king: The Lord thy God accept thee.

And the king said unto Araunah: Nay, but I will surely buy it of thee at a price, neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver, and David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the Lord was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

GRADUAL. Ps. 107. The Lord sent his word, and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction. \hat{V} . O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke. St. Luke 4. 38.

AT that time: Jesus arose out of the synagogue. and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever, and they besought him for her. And he stood over her. and rebuked the fever, and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them. Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him: and he laid his hands on every one of them. and healed them. And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying: Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him and staved him, that he should not depart from them. And he said unto them: I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also, for therefore am I sent. And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

OFFERTORY. Num. 16. And the priest stood between the living and the dead, having a golden censer in his hand: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people, and so appeased the wrath of God: and the plague was stayed by the Lord.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew.

St. Matt. 8. 5.

At that time: When Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, and saying: Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Iesus saith unto him: I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said: Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof, but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this man: Go, and he goeth: and to another: Come, and he cometh; and to my servant: Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard it, he marvelled: and said to them that followed: Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say unto you: That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: but the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion: Go thy way, and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Genesis.

Gen. 28. 10.

TN those days: Jacob went out from Beer-sheba. and went toward Haran. And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set: and he took of the stones of that place and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep. And he dreamed, and behold, the Lord said: I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; and thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth: and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest; and will bring thee again into this land, for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. And Jacob vowed a vow, saying: If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my father's house in peace: then shall the Lord be my God, and this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house, and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

The Lesson from the EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians. Ephes. 5. 22.

RETHREN: Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church: and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the Church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it, that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word; that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself: for no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife; and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the Church. Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife, even as himself. And the wife see that she reverence her husband.

V. O Lord, save thy servant, and thy handmaid. Ry. Who put their trust in thee. V. O Lord, send them help from thy holy place. Ry. And evermore defend them. V. Be unto them a tower of strength. Ry. From the face of their enemy. V. O Lord, hear our prayer. Ry. And let our cry come unto thee. V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, bless these thy servants, and sow the seed of eternal life in their hearts; that whatsoever in thy holy Word they shall profitably learn, they may in deed fulfil the same. Look, O Lord, mercifully upon them from heaven, and bless them. And as thou didst send thy blessing upon Abraham and Sarah, to their great comfort, so vouchsafe to send thy blessing upon these thy servants; that they obeying thy will, and alway being in safety under thy protection, may abide in thy love unto their lives' end. Through.

This prayer next following is omitted, where the woman is past child-bearing:

MERCIFUL Lord, and heavenly Father, by whose gracious gift mankind is increased; we beseech thee, assist with thy blessing these two persons, that they may both be fruitful in procreation of children, and also live together so long in godly love and honesty, that they may see their children Christianly and virtuously brought up, to thy praise and honour. Through.

Let us pray.

GOD, who by thy mighty power hast made all things of nothing; who also (after other things set in order) didst appoint, that out of man, created after thine own image and similitude. woman should take her beginning; and, knitting them together, didst teach that it should never be lawful to put asunder those whom thou by Matrimony hast made one: O God, who hast consecrated the state of Matrimony to such an excellent mystery. that in it is signified and represented the spiritual marriage and unity betwixt Christ and his Church: look mercifully upon these thy servants, that both this man may love his wife, according to thy Word, (as Christ did love his spouse the Church, who gave himself for it, loving and cherishing it even as his own flesh,) and also that this woman may be loving and amiable, faithful and obedient to her husband: and in all quietness, sobriety, and peace, be a follower of holy and godly matrons. O Lord, bless them both, and grant them to inherit thy everlasting kingdom. Through the same.

Then the Priest, turning back to the middle of the Altar, says Deliver us, O Lord, we beseech thee, and the rest after the accustomed manner: and after he has received the Precious Blood, he communicates the man and woman: and proceeds with the COMMUNION. Ps. 128. Lo, thus shall the man be blessed, that feareth the Lord: Yea, that thou shalt see thy children's children: and peace upon Israel.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY GOD, we beseech thee, let thy gracious favour accompany the ordinance of thy love: that those whom thou hast joined together in holy wedlock; may by thy protection live in lasting peace. Through.

¶ Having said Let us bless the Lord, or if the Mass of the day require, Depart in peace, before blessing the people, the Priest, turning himself towards the Bridegroom and Bride, says:

ALMIGHTY GOD, who at the beginning did create our first parents, Adam and Eve, and did sanctify and join them together in marriage; pour upon you the riches of his grace, sanctify and bless you, that ye may please him both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto your lives' end. R7. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest seriously admonish them to be faithful one to the other: to observe continence at times of prayer, and especially on Fasts and solemn Feasts: mutually to love each other, and to persevere in the fear of God. Afterward he sprinkles them with holy water, and having said May it please thee, O Holy Trinity, he gives the blessing: and reads in the accustomed manner the Gospel of St. John, In the beginning was the Word.

MASS FOR THANKSGIVING

The Mass of the most Holy Trinity, or of the Holy Ghost, or of the Blessed Virgin Mary is said, with the following prayers added under one ending.

COLLECT.

GOD, whose mercies cannot be numbered, whose goodness passeth man's understanding, we render humble and hearty thanks to thy most gracious majesty for the gifts that thou hast bestowed upon us: humbly beseeching thy mercy, that like as thou hast as at this time heard the prayers of them that call upon thee, so thou wouldest hereafter evermore dispose the way of thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting life. VARIOUS PRAYERS

To be said at Mass at the Priest's discretion, together with those appointed for the day, when it is not a Double Feast.

1. For asking the Prayers of the Saints.

COLLECT.

RANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that we may in all things be comforted by the intercession of holy Mary, Mother of God, of all thy holy Apostles, Martyrs, Confessors and Virgins, and of all thine elect; and that like as we do call to mind their godliness of life, so we may be effectually defended by their help. Through the same.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to accept these our oblations: that, at the intercession of blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, and of all thy Saints, we may by thee be defended against all adversities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE heartily thank thee, O Lord, for that thou hast vouchsafed to feed us, who here have called to remembrance blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, and all thy Saints, with this heavenly Sacrament: and we beseech thee to grant, that this our outward performance of thy service may effectually assist us to the attainment of everlasting felicity. Through.

2. Another Prayer for the same.

COLLECT.

DEFEND us, O Lord, we beseech thee, from all dangers both of body and soul: and at the intercession of the blessed and glorious Ever-Virgin Mary, Mother of God, of blessed Joseph, of thy holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed (George) and of all thy Saints, grant us thy saving health and peace; that being defended from all adversities and all false doctrines, thy Church may serve thee in freedom and quietness. Through the same.

In this Prayer the names of the holy Angels and of Saint John Baptist are placed before Saint Joseph.

SECRET.

RACIOUSLY hear us, O God of our salvation, and by the power of this Sacrament defend us from all dangers both of body and soul: granting us in this world the succour of thy grace, and in the world to come life everlasting. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord, that the gifts now offered by us in these holy mysteries may evermore cleanse and defend us: that, at the intercession of the blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, of blessed Joseph, of thy holy Apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed (George) and of all thy Saints; we may be absolved from all our offences and defended against all adversities. Through the same.

3. For every grade in the Church.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church; that every member of the same in his vocation and ministry may truly and godly serve thee. Through.

SECRET.

GRANT, O Lord, we pray thee, unto us thy servants, pardon for our sins, comfort in adversity and the continual governance of thy grace: that we may in all things obey thy will, and be made worthy to obtain the continual succour of thy mercy. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to hear the prayers of thy servants: that they may be delivered from all sin, and run not into any kind of danger; and walking in all godly conversation may not fear the power of any adversaries. Through.

4. For the Chief Bishop.

COLLECT.

GOD, the pastor and governour of them that put their trust in thee, look down in mercy on thy servant N., whom thou hast chosen to be pastor and ruler of thy Church: grant unto him, we beseech thee, to be in word and conversation a wholesome example to the people committed to his charge; that he with them may attain at last to the crown of everlasting life. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to accept these our oblations: granting unto N., thy servant, that like as thou hast chosen him to be pastor and ruler of thy Church, so he may be governed evermore by thy defence. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

DEFEND us, O Lord, we beseech thee, who have here received these heavenly mysteries: and grant that thy servant N., whom thou hast chosen to be paster and ruler of thy Church, together with the flock committed to his charge, may thereby be preserved and strengthened against all adversities. Through.

5. For the King.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY GOD, whose kingdom is everlasting and power infinite: have mercy upon the whole Church, and so rule and govern the heart of thy chosen servant N., our King and Governour, that he, knowing whose minister he is, may above all things seek thy honour and glory; and that we and all his subjects (duly considering whose authority he hath) may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed word and ordinance. Through.

SECRET.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, we are taught by thy holy Word, that the hearts of Kings are in thy rule and governance, and that thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to thy godly wisdom: we humbly beseech thee so to dispose and govern the heart of N., thy servant, our King and Governour, that, in all his thoughts, words, and works, he may ever seek thy honour and glory, and study to preserve thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and godliness: Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's sake.

POSTCOMMUNION.

GOD, who providest for thy people by thy power and rulest over them in love: vouch-safe so to bless thy servant N, our King, that under him this nation may be wisely governed and thy Church may serve thee in all godly quietness; and grant that he being devoted to thee with his whole heart, and persevering in good works unto the end, may by thy guidance come to thine everlasting kingdom. Through.

6. For Prelates and the Congregations committed to them.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels: send down upon our Bishops, and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, to look down in mercy on the offerings of thy people: that as we do devoutly offer this our service to the honour of thy Name, so they may be profited thereby to the healing of their souls. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

GRANT, O Lord, that we, whom thou hast refreshed with thy heavenly gifts, may be furthered with thy continual help: and, like as thou never failest to comfort us with the assistance of thy grace, so grant that by thee we may be made worthy of everlasting salvation. Through.

7. For the High Court of Parliament during Session.

COLLECT.

M OST gracious God, we humbly beseech thee, as for this Kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious King at this time assembled: that thou wouldest be pleased to direct and prosper all their consultations to the advancement of thy glory, the good of thy Church, the safety, honour, and welfare of our Sovereign and his Dominions. Through.

SECRET.

GOD, who rulest over thy people in love and orderest all things for their living: we beseech thee to accept these oblations which we offer unto thee, that the people of this land may be wisely and virtuously governed. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY GOD, who rulest over all the kingdoms of the world, and dost order them according to thy good pleasure: send thy blessing, we pray thee, upon the deliberations of the High Court of Parliament; that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavours, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations. These and all other necessaries, for them, for us, and thy whole Church, we humbly beg in the Name and Mediation of Jesus Christ, our most blessed Lord and Saviour: Who liveth.

8. For the Congregation and Family.

COLLECT.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, at the intercession of blessed Mary Ever-Virgin to defend this thy family from all adversities: that they, devoutly serving thee with all their hearts, may by thy mercy be protected from all the assaults of their enemies. Through.

SECRET.

ALMIGHTY GOD, we beseech thee to accept power of this holy Sacrament we thy servants may be protected against all adversities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

OST merciful God, grant, we beseech thee, I unto us, who have here received the mysteries of our redemption: that, like as we have offered unto thee this our service, so we may by thee be defended against all adversities. Through.

9. For Preserving Concord in the Congregation.

COLLECT.

GOD, who art the author of peace and lover of charity, grant unto thy servants truly to dwell in unity according to thy will: that, though we be compassed about by many temptations, yet we may by thee be delivered from the same. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to look upon these our oblations: and grant that like as we do pray to be delivered from the sins which we have committed, so we may be preserved from all the devices of our enemies. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, pour into our hearts thy spirit of charity: that as thou hast now fulfilled us with one heavenly bread, so we may by thy mercy be enabled to dwell together in unity and concord. Through.

10. Against the Persecutors of the Church.

COLLECT.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to hear the prayers of thy people: that, being delivered from all adversities and all false doctrines, thy Church may serve thee in freedom and quietness. Through.

SECRET.

DEFEND, O Lord, we pray thee, us thy servants: that we, cleaving fast to things heavenly, may faithfully serve thee both in body and soul. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord our God: that we, whom thou hast made partakers of heavenly gladness, may by thee be defended from all earthly perils. Through.

11. For Defence against Persecutors and Malefactors.

COLLECT.

O LORD, we pray thee, that thou wouldest abate the pride of our enemies: and by the mighty power of thy right hand confound the devices of them that boast themselves against thy servants. Through.

SECRET.

RANT, O Lord, that by these holy mysteries we may be cleansed from all our secret offences, and delivered from all the devices of our enemies. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

BEHOLD, O God our Defender, and protect us against all the assaults of our enemies: that we, being delivered from the fear of all dangers, may serve thee with a quiet mind. Through.

12. For any Necessity.

COLLECT.

GOD, our refuge and strength, who art the author of all godliness: be ready, we beseech thee, to hear the devout prayers of thy Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully we may obtain effectually. Through.

SECRET.

RANT, we beseech thee, merciful Lord: that by this sacrifice ordained for our salvation, we may evermore be delivered from the bonds of our sins, and defended against all adversities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

O LORD, who hast made us partakers of the gifts of these holy mysteries: we humbly beseech thee; that those things which thou hast commanded us to do in remembrance of thee, may be profitable to the succour of all our infirmities. Through.

13. For any Tribulation.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY GOD, despise not thy people that in their afflictions call upon thee: but for the glory of thy Name, mercifully assist us in all our troubles and adversities. Through.

SECRET.

O LORD, who hast ordained this sacrifice to be the propitiation of our sins, and the means whereby of thy loving-kindness we are restored unto salvation: mercifully grant that these our oblations may be acceptable in thy sight. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to look upon our tribulations: and turn from us the fury of thine anger that we most righteously have deserved. Through.

14. In Time of Dearth and Famine.

COLLECT.

GOD, our heavenly Father, we beseech thee to behold the afflictions of this thy people: and grant that the scarcity and dearth, which we do now most justly suffer for our iniquity, may through thy goodness be mercifully turned into cheapness and plenty. Through.

SECRET.

GOD, who quickenest man's substance by the nourishment of outward food, and by thy holy Sacraments dost inwardly renew the same: grant, we beseech thee, that thy mighty succour may ever bestow on us those things that be necessary both for our bodies and our souls. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

GOD, merciful Father, increase, we pray thee the fruits of the earth by thy heavenly benediction: and grant that we, who have been partakers of thy everlasting mysteries, may use the fruits of the earth to thy glory, the relief of those that are needy, and our own comfort. Through.

15. In Time of Earthquake.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, at whose look the earth doth tremble: we beseech thee to incline thine ear unto us that call upon thee for deliverance from the perils that beset us; that whereas we are sore afraid by reason of thy wrath that shaketh the foundations of the earth, thy mercy may speedily heal the sores thereof for the relief of our necessities. Through.

SECRET.

GOD, who hast laid the foundations of the earth, we beseech thee mercifully to receive the prayers and oblations of thy people: deliver us, we pray thee, from the present perils of earthquake, that the terrors of the visitation of thy divine anger may be made a wholesome medicine for our souls; and that we who are but dust and must return to dust, may learn so to walk in holiness and godliness of living that we may rejoice in the attainment of heavenly felicity. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

We beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to defend us who have here received this holy Sacrament: and grant that the earth which by reason of our sins thou hast caused to tremble may by thy heavenly power be established in security; that the hearts of all men may see and know that the punishments which thou sendest of thy wrath are abated by the clemency of thy mercy. Through.

16. To ask for Rain.

COLLECT.

GOD, our heavenly Father, in whom we live and move, and have our being: send us, we beseech thee in this our necessity such moderate rain and showers, that we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort and to thy honour. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to accept our oblations: and send upon us a seasonable rain to the relief of our necessities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT us, O Lord, we pray thee, to enjoy a refreshing rain: that by thy goodness this present drought may be watered by the showers of heaven. Through.

17. To ask for Fair Weather.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY LORD GOD, we humbly beseech thee, that although we for our iniquities have worthily deserved a plague of rain and waters: yet upon our true repentance thou wilt send us such weather, as that we may receive the fruits of the earth in due season; and learn both by thy punishment to amend our lives, and by thy clemency to give thee praise and glory. Through.

SECRET.

RANT, O Lord, we pray thee, that thy grace may alway prevent and follow us: and mercifully accept these our oblations which for the remission of our sins we offer unto thee, to the glory of thy Name; humbly beseeching thee that by the intercession of thy Saints they may be profitable unto us for the relief of our necessities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY GOD, we humbly beseech thy mercy: that thou wouldest assuage this plague of immoderate rains and shew forth upon us the gladness of thy countenance. Through.

18. To restrain Tempests.

COLLECT.

O LORD, by whom alone thy household is defended against spiritual wickedness: mercifully grant that they may likewise be delivered from the malignity of the tempests of the air. Through.

SECRET.

RECEIVE, O Lord, we pray thee, this sacrifice of praise, which here we offer unto thee giving thee thanks for the benefits that thou hast bestowed upon us, and humbly beseeching thee ever to continue towards us the same thy mercies. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who dost amend us by thy chastisement, and preserve us by thy pardon: grant unto us thy humble servants to enjoy such tranquillity of weather, that we may henceforth rejoice in the bounty of thy comfort and ever make use of the same unto thy honour and glory. Through.

19. In time of Murrain among Animals.

COLLECT.

GOD, who hast given even the dumb beasts to be a succour and comfort to man's labour: we humbly beseech thee that thou wouldest not suffer them to perish; but grant that, forasmuch as the sustenance of man without them cannot but fail, so they may ever be profitable for our necessities. Through.

SECRET.

O LORD, we pray thee, mercifully look upon this our sacrifice: and of thy great goodness, grant us thy help in our time. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, O Lord, that thy faithful people, being filled with thy heavenly benediction, may be preserved both in body and soul: that they may render unto thee all meet and worthy service, and evermore receive the benefits of thy mercy. Through.

20. For the Priest himself.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and merciful God, mercifully look upon the prayers that in my lowliness I offer unto thee: and grant that I, thy servant, whom for no merits of my own, but of the infinite abundance of thy mercy thou dost suffer to serve thee in thy heavenly mysteries, may worthily minister unto thee in thy holy temple; that the prayers which I utter with my outward lips may by the power of thy sanctification be brought to good effect. Through.

SECRET.

RANT, O Lord, that by the power of this holy Sacrament I may be cleansed from all the defilements of my sins, and that I may by thy grace be made worthy to fulfil the ministry committed to my charge. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast vouchsafed to me a sinner to stand before thee to minister at thy holy Table, and to praise the power of thy holy Name: mercifully grant that by the wondrous power of this holy Sacrament I may obtain the pardon of my sins, and be found worthy to offer unto thy Divine Majesty true and laudable service. Through.

21. For the Gift of Tears.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, who didst bring forth a fountain of living waters to assuage the thirst of thy people: draw out, we pray thee, from our stony hearts the tears of repentance; that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness. Through.

SECRET.

O LORD our God, vouchsafe, we pray thee, to look down in mercy on these our oblations, which in atonement for our sins we offer unto thy Majesty: draw forth, we pray thee, from our eyes such streams of tears, as shall quench the flames that have been kindled in our souls by reason of our sins. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

We beseech thee, O Lord, pour into our hearts the grace of thy Holy Spirit: that we may be enabled by tears of sorrow to wash away the defilements of our sins; and that, whereas we do heartily desire thy forgiveness, so we may of thy infinite goodness effectually receive the same. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

22. For the Remission of Sins.

COLLECT.

GOD, who dost not cast out sinners by reason of their offences, but of thy loving mercy sparest them that are penitent: mercifully hear the prayers of thy humble servants; that our hearts being enlightened by thy Holy Spirit we may be enabled to perform those things that thou commandest. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

SECRET.

RANT, O Lord, that this our present sacrifice which we offer unto thee for the remission of our sins may be an acceptable offering in thy sight, and profitable unto all, both quick and dead, for their salvation. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY GOD, graciously hear the prayers of this thy family: and grant that, like as we have of thee been enabled to receive this holy Sacrament, so the same may of thy bounty perpetually work in us to good effect. Through.

23. For Public Penitents.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, mercifully forgive the sins of thy servants that confess their faults unto thee: that they whose consciences by sin are accused may not be delivered unto the punishment they have deserved, but may obtain of thy loving mercy pardon and forgiveness. Through.

SECRET.

RANT, we beseech thee, almighty and merciful God, that this oblation may be profitable unto thy servants: that they may be henceforth delivered from the bonds of their sins and defended against all adversities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY and merciful God, who desirest that all men should repent and confess their sins unto thee, to the intent that they may amend their lives and not perish: look down on these thy servants; and grant that by the merits of this holy Sacrament which we have received, they may be delivered from the fury of thy wrath and obtain the forgiveness of all their iniquities. Through.

24. For the Tempted and Tried.

COLLECT.

GOD, who alone canst justify the wicked, and wouldest not the death of a sinner: we beseech thee, that thy servants who put their trust and confidence in thy mercy may be defended by the loving-kindness of thy heavenly succour and preserved by thy continual help; that in all their troubles and temptations they may steadfastly cleave unto thy service. Through.

SECRET.

GRANT, we beseech thee, O Lord, that by these holy mysteries we may be cleansed from the sins which we have committed, and that these thy servants may be absolved from all their offences. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE pray thee, O Lord, that by this holy Sacrament which we have received we may be purged from all our sins: and that these thy servants may be delivered from all transgression; that whereas their consciences are bound by reason of their guilt, they may receive the plenteous healing of thy heavenly power, to the glory of thy Name. Through.

25. To repel Evil Thoughts.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, graciously look upon our prayers: that, our hearts being delivered from the assaults of all evil imaginations, we may be found worthy to be made a dwelling-place acceptable unto thee. Through.

SECRET.

ACCEPT, O Lord, we pray thee, this sacrifice which we offer unto thee for our salvation: that the thoughts of our hearts being purged from all uncleanness and preserved from harm, we may receive of thy great mercy the enlightenment of thy Holy Spirit. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

POSTCOMMUNION.

GOD, who lightenest every man that cometh into this world, we pray thee to enlighten our hearts with the brightness of thy grace: that we may of thee be enabled to think such things as be good and pleasing unto thy Divine Majesty, and love thee with the sincere affection of our hearts. Through.

26. To ask the Grace of Continence.

COLLECT.

RANT, O Lord, we pray thee, that the fire of thy Holy Spirit may in such wise cleanse our reins and our hearts: that we serving thee in pureness both of body and soul may be found an acceptable people in thy sight. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

SECRET.

O LORD, we pray thee, smite asunder the chains of our sins: that we who seek to offer unto thee our sacrifice of praise in perfect freedom and in innocency of heart, may by thee be restored to that estate which thou didst bestow upon us at the first; and like as thou hast vouchsafed to save us by thy grace, so grant that by thy pardon we may again be made partakers of salvation. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, our helper and defender: that, our heart and flesh being renewed by the strength of continence and the newness of chastity, we which have offered unto thy mercy this sacrifice of praise, may evermore be cleansed from all temptations. Through.

27. To ask the Grace of Humility.

COLLECT.

GOD, who dost resist the proud, but givest grace unto the humble: grant unto us, we pray thee, the true virtue of humility after the pattern wherein thine only-begotten Son manifested himself unto his faithful servants; that we may in no wise exalt ourselves to provoke thine anger, but serving thee in all lowliness may thankfully receive the gifts of thy grace. Through the same.

SECRET.

RANT, we beseech thee, O Lord, that these our oblations may effectually obtain for us the grace of true humility: that, our hearts being freed from the pride of the eyes and the lust of the flesh, and delivered from the affections of this world, we may so live in all soberness, righteousness and godliness, that we may attain the reward of eternal felicity. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

LORD, who hast vouchsafed to make us partakers of this holy Communion: grant that we may thereby be delivered from all the defilements of sin, and shewing forth in our lives all due humility may be brought to the glory of thy heavenly kingdom. Through.

28. To ask the Grace of Patience.

COLLECT.

GOD, whose only-begotten Son did by his longsuffering tread under foot the pride of the enemy of mankind: grant unto us, we pray thee, so rightly to call to mind the sufferings which he of his great goodness bare for our sakes, that after his example we may patiently endure all our troubles and adversities. Through the same.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to accept the gifts and oblations, which we devoutly offer unto thy Divine Majesty: humbly beseeching thee to grant that of thy bountiful goodness we may thereby receive grace to suffer patiently in all our afflictions. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, O Lord, that we which have received these holy mysteries, may by the same be restored unto the grace wherefrom we have fallen: that by thy constant protection both here and ever, we may be enabled to endure patiently in all the assaults of our enemies. Through.

29. To ask the Grace of Charity.

COLLECT.

GOD, who dost make all things work together for good to them that love thee: pour into our hearts, we beseech thee, the steadfast affection of charity; that as by thy holy inspiration thou dost put into our minds good desires, so we may not be turned aside from the same by any temptations. Through.

SECRET.

GOD, who by thy holy sacraments and commandments dost renew us after the fashion of thy likeness: we beseech thee to stablish our goings in thy paths; that like as thou hast vouch-safed unto us the hope of obtaining thy gift of charity, so this oblation of our sacrifice may make us effectually to be partakers of the same. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, that the grace of thy Holy Spirit may enlighten our hearts: that, being renewed in the sweetness of perfect charity, they may abundantly bring forth the fruits of the same. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

30. For Devoted Friends.

COLLECT.

GOD, who by the grace of thy Holy Spirit dost endue the hearts of thy faithful people with the most excellent gift of charity: we beseech thee to keep thy servants, for whom we implore thy mercy, both outwardly in their bodies and inwardly in their souls; that they may love thee with all their hearts and with pure affection perform such things as are acceptable in thy sight. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, to have compassion on thy servants and handmaids for whom we offer unto thee this sacrifice of praise: that by the merits of these holy mysteries they may obtain the grace of thy heavenly benediction, and be brought to the glory of eternal felicity. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

O LORD, who hast vouchsafed to feed us with these holy mysteries: grant, we beseech thee, that like as we have offered unto thee these tokens of our salvation for the advancement in charity of thy servants and handmaids, so they may be profitable unto them for the relief of their necessities and for their continual peace. Through.

31. For Enemies.

COLLECT.

GOD, who art the lover of peace and the preserver of charity: grant unto all our enemies such true peace and charity, that they may obtain of thee the remission of all their sins; and that we being armed with thy defence may be preserved from all their devices. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to accept these our oblations: that by thy mercy we may be delivered from all the assaults of our enemies, and that they may receive of thee the pardon of all their iniquities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

GRANT, O Lord, that we, which have been partakers of this holy Communion, may by thee be delivered from all our offences: and defended against all the devices of our enemies. Through.

32. For Prisoners and Captives.

COLLECT.

GOD, who didst deliver thy holy Apostle Saint Peter from his bonds and suffer him to depart unhurt: deliver, we beseech thee, this thy servant from his bonds; and by the merits of the same thy holy Apostle suffer him to depart unhurt from his present captivity. Through.

SECRET.

POUR out, O Lord, we pray thee, upon these our oblations the abundance of thy heavenly benediction: that, this thy servant being loosed from his captivity, we may speedily rejoice in his deliverance. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to hear the prayers of us who have here received this holy Sacrament: and grant that the same may effectually avail to the deliverance of this thy servant from the bonds of his captivity. Through.

33. For Voyagers by Sea.

COLLECT.

GOD, who didst guide our fathers through the Red Sea, and didst bring them through the deep waters singing praises to the glory of thy Name: we humbly beseech thee that thou wouldest defend thy servants now travelling by sea from all adversities; that they voyaging in all tranquillity may attain unto the haven where they would be. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to accept these the prayers and oblations of thy servants: that they for whom we offer unto thee these holy mysteries, may by thee be defended against all adversities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

O LORD, who hast vouchsafed to sanctify us with thy heavenly mysteries, we humbly beseech thy Majesty: that, as thou hast suffered us at thy holy Table to call to remembrance thy servants for whom we pray, so thou wouldest mercifully grant that by the wood of the holy Cross they may be absolved from all their sins and delivered from all adversities. Through.

34. For the Safety of the Living.

STRETCH forth, O Lord, we pray thee, on thy faithful people the right hand of thy heavenly succour: that they, diligently seeking thee with all their hearts, may be found worthy to obtain those things that they have asked according to thy will. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, to have compassion on our prayers, and graciously to accept the oblations of thy faithful people which we offer unto thee for their salvation: and to the intent that none may ask aught amiss or fail in his petitions, grant, we beseech thee, that what we ask faithfully, we may obtain effectually. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, O Lord, we pray thee, to thy faithful people steadfastly to cleave unto thee in faith and singleness of heart: that they being stablished in thy heavenly charity may not by any temptations be parted from the fulness of the same. Through.

35. For the Quick and Dead.

COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast dominion both of the quick and of the dead, who likewise hast mercy upon all men, whom by reason of their faith and works thou hast fore-known: we commend unto thee all those for whom we now do offer our prayers, whether in this world they still be held in the bonds of the flesh, or being delivered therefrom have passed into that which is to come; beseeching thee that at the intercession of all thy Saints they may of thy bountiful goodness obtain the remission of all their sins. Through.

SECRET.

GOD, to whom alone is known the number of thine elect, whom thou hast chosen to set in eternal felicity: grant, we beseech thee, that at the intercession of all thy Saints, the names of all them that are commended to our prayers and of all thy faithful people may be found written in the book of them that are ordained to everlasting blessedness. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, cleanse us, we pray thee, by the Sacrament which we have received: and at the intercession of all thy Saints grant that this holy Communion may bring upon us not guilt to our damnation but pardon to our salvation; that it may cleanse the guilty and confirm the feeble, that it may strengthen us against every danger in this world, and obtain for thy faithful people both quick and dead the remission of all their sins. Through.

36. For those about to be ordained.

COLLECT.

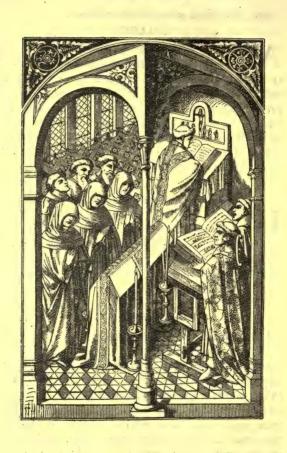

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who hast purchased to thyself an universal Church by the precious Blood of thy dear Son: mercifully look upon the same, and at this time so guide and govern the minds of thy servants the Bishops and Pastors of thy flock, that they may lay hands suddenly on no man, but faithfully and wisely make choice of fit persons to serve in the sacred Ministry of thy Church. Through.

SECRET.

HEAR us, O Lord, we beseech thee, and to those which shall be ordained to any holy function give thy grace and heavenly benediction: that both by their life and doctrine they may set forth thy glory, and set forward the salvation of all men. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY GOD, the giver of all good gifts, who of thy divine providence hast appointed divers Orders in thy Church: give thy grace, we humbly beseech thee, to all those who are to be called to any office and administration in the same; and so replenish them with the truth of thy doctrine, and endue them with innocency of life, that they may faithfully serve before thee, to the glory of thy great Name, and the benefit of thy holy Church. Through.

MASSES FOR THE DEAD

1. ON THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED.

¶ To-day any Priest may celebrate three Masses, in accordance with the rubric on November 2nd. The following Mass shall be said as the first Mass, and by any Priest who celebrates one Mass only, or who celebrates with chant. In the latter case he may anticipate the 2nd and 3rd Masses.

INTROIT. Requiem aeternam.

REST eternal grant unto them, O Lord: and let light perpetual shine upon them. Ps. 65. Thou, O God, art praised in Sion, and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem: thou that hearest the prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come. Then at once is repeated: Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord: and let light perpetual shine upon them.

COLLECT.

GOD, the Creator and Redeemer of all them that believe: grant unto the souls of thy servants and handmaidens the remission of all their sins; that as they have ever desired thy merciful pardon, so by the supplications of their brethren they may receive the same: Who livest and reignest with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Ghost ever one God.

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

1 Cor. 15. 51.

BRETHREN: Behold, I shew you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

GRADUAL. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord: and let light perpetual shine upon them. $\sqrt[p]{}$. Ps. II2. The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance: he will not be afraid of any evil tidings.

TRACT. Absolve, O Lord, the souls of all the faithful departed from all the chains of their sins.

That by the succour of thy grace they may be found worthy to escape the avenging judgment.

And enjoy the bliss of everlasting light.

Dies Irae.

David's word with Sibyl's blending: Heaven and earth in ashes ending.

O what fear man's bosom rendeth, When from heaven the Judge descendeth, On whose sentence all dependeth! Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth, Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth, All before the throne it bringeth.

Death is struck, and nature quaking, All creation is awaking, To its Judge an answer making.

Lo! the book exactly worded, Wherein all hath been recorded, Thence shall judgment be awarded.

When the Judge his seat attaineth, And each hidden deed arraigneth, Nothing unavenged remaineth.

What shall I, frail man, be pleading? Who for me be interceding, When the just are mercy needing?

King of majesty tremendous, Who dost free salvation send us, Fount of pity, then befriend us.

Think, kind Jesu, my salvation Caused thy wondrous Incarnation, Leave me not to reprobation.

Faint and weary thou hast sought me, On the Cross of suffering bought me, Shall such grace be vainly brought me?

Righteous Judge! for sin's pollution Grant thy gift of absolution Ere that day of retribution.

Guilty, now I pour my moaning, All my shame with anguish owning: Spare, O God, thy suppliant groaning.

G 124 Masses for the Dead

Through the sinful woman shriven, Through the dying thief forgiven, Thou to me a hope hast given.

Worthless are my tears and sighing: Yet, good Lord, in grace complying Rescue me from fires undying.

With thy sheep a place provide me, From the goats afar divide me, To thy right hand do thou guide me.

When the wicked are confounded, Doomed to flames of woe unbounded, Call me, with thy saints surrounded.

Low I kneel, with heart-submission: See like ashes my contrition! Help me in my last condition!

Ah that day of tears and mourning! From the dust of earth returning, Man for judgment must prepare him.

Spare, O God, in mercy spare him: Lord all-pitying, Jesu blest, Grant them thine eternal rest. Amen.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to John. St. John 5. 25.

At that time: Jesus said unto the multitude of the Jews: Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of Man. Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

OFFERTORY. O Lord Jesu Christ, King of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell, and from the bottomless pit: deliver them from the lion's mouth, that hell swallow them not up, that they fall not into darkness: but let Michael the standard-bearer bring them into the holy light: *Which thou didst promise of old unto Abraham, and his seed. I Thess. 4. 13.

DRETHREN: I would not have you to be D ignorant concerning them which are asleep, that ve sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus shall God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we, which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Then we, which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. W E beseech thee, O Lord, that the souls of thy servants and handmaids may by this holy sacrifice, which thou hast ordained for the remission of the sins of the whole world, effectually attain to everlasting salvation. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

GOD, to whom alone it belongeth to heal the souls of them that are departed from this life: grant, we pray thee, that the souls of thy servants and handmaids, being cleansed from the defilements of this earthly life may receive a portion in the number of thine elect: Who livest.

12. Other Prayers for many Persons Departed.

COLLECT.

GRANT, O Lord, we pray thee, to the souls of thy servants and handmaidens thy perpetual mercy: that, as they have hoped and trusted in thee, so this their hope and faith may be profitable unto them to life everlasting. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to look upon these our oblations: that these things which we humbly offer to the glory of thy Name, may be profitable unto them that are departed hence for the remission of all their sins. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

ACCEPT, O Lord, we pray thee, the prayers which we humbly offer unto thee for the souls of thy servants and handmaidens: beseeching thee to grant that, whatever defilements they may have contracted in their conversation in this life being pardoned by thy goodness, they may be made partakers of those unspeakable joys that thou hast prepared for thine elect. Through.

THE ABSOLUTIONS OF THE DEAD

¶ After Mass, the Priest lays aside the maniple and chasuble, and puts on a black cope. Then, standing at the foot of the catafalque, he says the following prayer which, however, is omitted if the body be absent.

COLLECT.

ENTER not into judgment with thy servant, O Lord, for in thy sight shall no man living be justified, except thou grant unto him remission of all his sins. Therefore, we beseech thee, pronounce not thy judgment upon him, whose cause the faithful prayer of Christian people commendeth unto thee: but grant that by the succour of thy grace. he may be found worthy to escape the avenging judgment, who upon earth was sealed with the sign of the Holy Trinity: Who livest and reignest, world without end. R7. Amen.

The following Responsory is then said or sung:

ELIVER me, O Lord, from everlasting death in that fearful day: When the heavens and the earth shall be shaken: When thou shalt come to judge the world by fire. V. I am in fear and trembling, until the sifting be upon us and the wrath to come. Rep. When the heavens and the earth shall be shaken. V. Woe is me, for the day of wrath, calamity and misery, the great day of exceeding bitterness. Rep. When thou shalt come to judge the world by fire. V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord: and let light perpetual shine upon them. Rep. Deliver me, O Lord, as far as I am in fear.

¶ Towards the end of the Responsory the Priest puts incense into the censer and blesses it. Then after:

Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.

He says with a loud voice: Our Father, and continues silently, while he asperses and censes the bier. Afterwards he says:

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R7. But deliver us from evil. V. From the gates of hell.

R7. Deliver their souls, O Lord.

V. May they rest in peace. Ry. Amen.

V. Lord, hear my prayer. Ry. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT

ABSOLVE, O Lord, we pray thee, the souls of thy servants from every bond of sin, that though they be dead unto the world, yet they may live unto thee: and that whatsoever sins they may have committed through the frailty of the flesh in their earthly conversation may be done away by the pardon of thy most merciful loving-kindness. Through Christ our Lord. Ry. Amen.

¶ But if the body be present the Priest says the following Collect:

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions for the soul of thy servant N, which this day thou hast commanded to depart out of this world: deliver him not into the hand of the enemy, neither forsake him at the last; but command him to be received by the holy Angels, and brought to the country of paradise; that forasmuch as he hoped and believed in thee, he may not undergo the pains of hell, but be made partaker of everlasting felicity. Through.

¶ Then the Celebrant, making a cross over the bier with his hand, says:

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

Ry. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

The Cantors sing: May they rest in peace. Ry. Amen.

G 150 Absolutions of the Dead

¶ Then the Priest says on the right note:

V. May his soul (their souls) and the souls of all the faithful departed, by the mercy of God, rest in peace. R7. Amen.

¶ He then begins the Antiphon:

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, and with the Clergy recites the Psalm Out of the deep, and preceded by the Cross, returns with the others to the Sacristy. There all repeat the Antiphon If thou, Lord, and the Priest, before he takes off the vestments, says the following Prayers: Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison. Our Father.

Ÿ. And lead us not into temptation. R7. But deliver us from evil. Ÿ. From the gates of hell. R7. Deliver their souls, O Lord. Ÿ. May they rest in peace. R7. Amen. Ÿ. Lord, hear my prayer. R7. And let my cry come unto thee. Ÿ. The Lord be with you. R7. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD the Creator and Redeemer of them that believe: grant unto the souls of thy servants and handmaids the remission of all their sins; that, as they have ever desired thy merciful pardon, so by the supplications of their brethren they may receive the same: Who livest and reignest world without end. Ry. Amen.

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

R7. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

V. May they rest in peace. Ry. Amen.

¶ The Verse May his soul, the Antiphon If thou Lord, and the Psalm and Prayers, are not said, if the Absolution be made for all the Faithful Departed.

THE ORDER OF BLESSING WATER

On a Sunday, the salt and the water to be blessed being made ready in the sacristy, the Priest who is about to celebrate the Mass, or another deputed for the purpose, being vested in an alb or surplice, with a stole about his neck, first says:

V. Our help is in the Name of the Lord. R7. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Then straightway he beginneth the exorcism of the salt:

ADJURE thee, O creature of salt, by the living of God, by the true of God, by the holy of God: by God, who through Elisha the prophet did command that thou shouldest be cast into the water to the healing of its barrenness: that thou be exorcized for the salvation of all them that believe: be thou made profitable for all them that receive thee, to their healing both in body and soul: let all places wherein thou shalt be sprinkled be delivered from all evil imaginations and wickedness, and the crafts and subtleties of the devil, and let all unclean spirits be exorcized thence, by him who shall come to judge the quick and the dead, and the world by fire. R7. Amen.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, we humbly beseech thy infinite goodness, that thou wouldest vouchsafe of thy mercy to bliffess and sanctiffify this thy creature of salt, which thou hast bestowed for the necessities of mankind: let it be profitable for all them that receive it for their healing both in body and soul: and grant that all such things as are touched or sprinkled with the same may be delivered from all uncleanness, and defended against the assaults of all spiritual wickedness. Through Christ our Lord.

He straightway continueth with the exorcism of the water:

ADJURE thee, O creature of water, in the Name of God Ather Father Almighty, and in the Name of Jesus Ather Christ his Son our Lord, and by the power of the Holy Ather Ghost: that thou be exorcized to the casting forth of all the power of the enemy, and that thou be enabled to root out and expel the enemy himself and his apostate angels, through the power of the same Jesus Christ our Lord: who shall come to judge the quick and the dead, and the world by fire. R7. Amen.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, who in the chiefest of thy sacraments appointed for the salvation of mankind, hast ordained the use of the substance of water: mercifully assist us who call upon thee; pour forth upon this creature, cleansed and made ready for thy service, the abundance of thy bener-diction: that in the service of thy mysteries the same may effectually receive the power of thy heavenly grace for the casting forth of devils, and the healing of diseases: grant that all such things as in the dwellings or possessions of thy faithful people are sprinkled with this water may be cleansed from all uncleanness, and delivered from all evil: suffer not the spirit of pestilence to dwell therein, nor the breath of corruption:

cause to depart from thence all the snares of the unseen enemy: and cast forth by the sprinkling of this water all such things as are contrary to the health and peace of them that dwell therein; that like as we do call upon thy holy Name for their salvation, so the same may be effectually preserved against all the assaults of adversity. Through.

Here he thrice putteth salt into the water in the form of a cross, saying once:

LET this mingling of salt and water be wrought in the Name of the Falther, and of the Solon, and of the Holy of Ghost. Ry. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

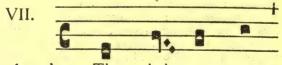

Let us pray. COLLECT.

GOD, who art the author of strength invincible, the King of the empire that none may overcome, who art ever wondrous in thy triumphs: who quellest the might of the dominion that is against thee: who dost conquer the fierceness of the roaring enemy: and overthrow by thy might the wickedness of the adversary: we beseech thee, O Lord, in fear and in lowliness: that thou wouldest regard with mercy this creature of salt and water, that thou wouldest enlighten the same with thy mercy and sanctify it with the dew of thy loving-kindness; that wheresoever the same shall be sprinkled with the invocation of thy holy Name, the assaults of the unclean spirit may be driven forth from thence, and the dread of the poisonous serpent be cast forth: and grant that in all such places the presence of thy holy Spirit may be vouchsafed to us that call upon thy mercy. Through . . . in the unity of the same Spirit. R7. Amen.

THE ASPERGES

The following order for the aspersion of holy water is to be observed on all Sundays before the principal Mass, even though it be not sung.

Having blessed the water, the Priest who is going to celebrate, vested in a cope of the colour of the day, proceeds to the Altar. And there kneeling, even in Eastertide, with the ministers below the steps, he receives the aspersory from the Deacon, and first asperses the Altar thrice, then himself, and, standing up, the ministers, beginning the Antiphon Thou shalt purge me. And the Quire continues: O Lord, with hyssop, etc., as below. Meanwhile the Celebrant asperses the Clergy, and then the people, saying with a low voice with the ministers the Psalm Have mercy upon me, O God.

Antiphon. Thou shalt purge

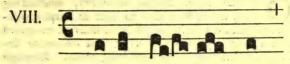

O Lord, with hyssop, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Ps. 51. Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness. V. Glory be to the Father. And the Antiphon is repeated: Thou shalt purge in the aspersion of holy water on Sundays throughout the year: except upon Passion Sunday and upon Palm Sunday, when Glory be to the Father is not said, but after the Psalm Have mercy, the Antiphon Thou shalt purge me, is immediately repeated.

In Eastertide also, that is from Easter Sunday until Pentecost inclusively, is sung this Anthem:

Antiphon. I be - held wa - ter issuing from the right side of the temple, alleluia: and all to whom that water came were saved, and they shall say, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. 118. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercy endureth for ever.

V. Glory be to the Father.

Antiphon is repeated. I beheld water issuing.
On Trinity Sunday is resumed: Thou shalt purge me, O Lord.

On the Feastdays of Easter and Pentecost, in places where there is a Baptismal Font, the aspersion is made with the water blessed the previous day in the Font for Baptism, and taken from it before the infusion of the Oil and Chrism.

¶ Having finished the Antiphon after the manner prescribed above, the Priest who has sprinkled the water, returning to the Altar, with joined hands, says:

V. O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us. In Eastertide is added: Alleluia.

The Asperges

Ry. And grant us thy salvation.

V. Lord, hear my prayer.

G 156

Ry. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. The Lord be with you. Ry. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray. COLLECT.

Corp. LORD holy, Father almighty, everlasting God, we beseech thee to hear us: and vouchsafe to send thy holy Angel from heaven, to guard and cherish, protect and visit, and evermore defend all that dwell in this dwelling-place. Through Christ our Lord. R7. Amen.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom.

Wisdom 10. 10.

THE Lord guided the righteous in right paths, shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things: made him rich in his travails, and multiplied the fruit of his labours. In the covetousness of such as oppressed him he stood by him, and made him rich. He defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and in a sore conflict he gave him the victory; that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. When the righteous was sold, wisdom forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: she went down with him into the pit, and left him not in bonds.

GRADUAL. Ps. 22. O praise the Lord ye that fear him: magnify him all ye of the seed of Jacob. $\overline{\mathbb{Y}}$. And fear him all ye seed of Israel: for he hath not despised nor abhorred the low estate of the poor.

TRACT. Exodus 15. The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will exalt him. \mathring{V} . The Lord is a man of war, the Lord is his name. \mathring{V} . Ps. 76. The Lord hath broken the battle: the Lord is his name.

¶ In Eastertide, instead of the Gradual and Tract, is said: Alleluia, alleluia. \hat{V} . Ps. 59. As for me I will sing of thy power: and will praise thy mercy betimes in the morning. Alleluia. \hat{V} . For thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble. Alleluia.

HA The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Luke.

St. Luke 9. 1.

AT that time: Jesus called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. And he said unto them: Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money, neither have two coats apiece. And whatsoever house ye enter in, there abide, and thence depart. And whosoever will not receive you: when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom. Wisdom 5. 1.

THEN shall the righteous man stand in great boldness before the face of such as have afflicted him, and made no account of his labours.

When they see it they shall be troubled with terrible fear, and shall be amazed at the strangeness of his salvation, so far beyond all that they looked for. And they repenting and groaning for anguish of spirit shall say within themselves: This was he, whom we had sometimes in derision, and a proverb of reproach: we fools accounted his life madness, and his end to be without honour: how is he numbered among the children of God, and his lot is among the saints!

Alleluia, alleluia. $\hat{\mathbb{V}}$. This is indeed the love of brethren, that hath conquered the assaults of the world: that, following after Christ, hath attained in glory unto the heavenly kingdom. Alleluia. $\hat{\mathbb{V}}$. The noble army of Martyrs praise thee, O Lord. Alleluia.

↑ T that time: There was a certain nobleman. whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee. he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. Then said Jesus unto him: Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. The nobleman saith unto him: Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith unto him: Go thy way, thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying: Thy son liveth. Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him: Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour in the which Jesus said unto him: Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom.

Wis. 4. 7.

THOUGH the righteous be prevented with death yet shall he be in rest. For honourable age is not that which standeth in length of time, nor that is measured by number of years: but wisdom is the grey hair unto men, and an unspotted life is old age. He pleased God and was beloved of him, so that living among sinners he was translated. Yea, speedily was he taken away, lest that wickedness should alter his understanding, or deceit beguile his soul. For the bewitching of naughtiness doth obscure things that are honest, and the wandering of concupiscence doth undermine the simple mind. He being made perfect in a short time fulfilled a long time, for his soul pleased the Lord: therefore hasted he to take him away from among the wicked.

BRETHREN: Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ve through his poverty might be rich. And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago: now therefore perform the doing of it: that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ve have. For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened; but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want: that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality, as it is written: He that had gathered much had nothing over: and he that had gathered little had no lack.

DEARLY beloved: Godliness is profitable unto all things: having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation. For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things command and teach. Let no man despise thy youth: but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. St. Mark 10. 15.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took the little children up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him: Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him: Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is God. Thou knowest the commandments: Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother. And he answered and said unto him: Master, all these have I observed from my youth. Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him, and said unto him: One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

EARLY beloved: Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world: and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts: which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. The Lesson from the first EPISTLE of blessed John the Apostle. I St. John 3. 13.

PEARLY beloved: Marvel not if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death: whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer. And ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him: how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: This is my commandment, That ye love one another as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants: for the servant knoweth not what his Lord doeth.

But I have called you friends: for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. RETHREN: Through faith the Saints subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens: women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection: and others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented: of whom the world was not worthy: they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ve shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat: and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns: yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? Which of of you, by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stature? And why take ve thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say unto you. That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven: shall he not much more clothe you, O ve of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saving: What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knoweth that we have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

The Lesson for the EPISTLE from the Book of Wisdom. Wisdom 10. 10.

THE Lord guided the righteous in right paths, shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things: made him rich in his travails, and multiplied the fruit of his labours. In the covetousness of such as oppressed him he stood by him, and made him rich. He defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and in a sore conflict he gave him the victory; that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. When the righteous was sold, wisdom forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: she went down with him into the pit, and left him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and power against those that

The Lesson from the former EPISTLE of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians. I Cor. 13. 1.

RETHREN: Though I speak with the tongues of men and of Angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge: and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains. and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity,

Other Feasts of September (18) H 115

it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind: charity envieth not, charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth: beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail, whether there be tongues, they shall cease, whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

GRADUAL. Ps. 21. Lord, thou hast prevented him with the blessings of goodness: and hast set a crown of pure gold upon his head. \hat{V} . He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life, even for ever and ever.

The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Matthew. St. Matt. 22. 1.

At that time: Jesus spake unto the chief priests and pharisees by parables, and said: The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding, and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying: Tell them which are bidden: Behold, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage. But they made light of it: and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: and the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies. and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Then saith he to his servants: The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go ve therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment. And he saith unto him: Friend. how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to his servants: Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen.

H 116 Other Feasts of September (18)

do the will of my Father, which is in heaven: the same is my brother, and sister, and mother, saith the Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION.

RANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that, at the intercession of thy holy Martyrs, Trypho, Respicius, and Nympha, we, who with our outward lips have partaken of this holy Sacrament, may inwardly receive the same in purity of heart. Through.

November 11th.

For ST. MENNAS, MARTYR

Mass Laetabitur, page FII, except the Prayers, which are taken from the Mass Protexisti, page FI6, using the first of the Prayers for a Martyr only.

Confessor Saint Didacus, we may be found worthy to be exalted to everlasting glory in heaven. Through.

November 17th.

ST. GREGORY THE WONDER-WORKER, BISHOP AND CONFESSOR

Mass Statuit, page F 41, except:

H The Continuation of the HOLY GOSPEL according to Mark.

St. Mark 11. 22.

At that time: Jesus answering saith unto his disciples: Have faith in God. For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain: Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I say unto you: What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

November 19th.

ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, WIDOW

Mass Cognovi, page F 81, except:

COLLECT.

MERCIFUL Lord, we pray thee to pour the bright beams of thy grace into our hearts: that, by the glorious prayers of thy blessed Saint Elizabeth, we may learn to despise all worldly prosperity, and ever to rejoice in all heavenly consolation. Through.

Commemorate St. Pontianus, Pope and Martyr.

H 138 Other Feasts of November (20.23)

November 20th.

ST. FELIX OF VALOIS, CONFESSOR

Mass Justus, page F 55, except:

COLLECT.

GOD, who by thy heavenly inspiration didst call blessed Felix thy Confessor from the desert to the work of the ransoming of prisoners and captives: grant, we beseech thee; that through thy grace, we may, at his intercession, be delivered from the captivity of our sins, and be brought in the end to our country in heaven. Through.

November 23rd.

For ST. FELICITY, MARTYR

Mass Me expectaverunt, page F 77, except:

COLLECT.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that as we do observe the festival of thy blessed Martyr Felicity, so by her merits and intercession, we may find succour in thy sight. Through.

SECRET.

L OOK down, O Lord, in mercy on the supplications of thy people: and as thou dost suffer us to celebrate the festival of Saint Felicity, so grant us to rejoice in the succour of her intercession. Through.

Other Feasts of November (24. 26) H 139

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE humbly beseech thee, Almighty God: that, at the intercession of thy Saints, thou wouldest ever multiply and increase thy gifts upon us, and dispose our times according to thy will. Through.

November 24th.

For ST. CHRYSOGONUS, MARTYR

Mass In virtute, page F 9, except:

COLLECT.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications: that whereas we are tied and bound by the chain of our sins, the intercession of thy blessed Martyr Chrysogonus may speedily help and deliver us. Through.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, mercifully to accept these our oblations: that, at the intercession of thy holy Martyr Chrysogonus, we may by thee be defended against all adversities. Through.

POSTCOMMUNION.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, that this holy Sacrament, which we have received, may effectually cleanse us from our secret offences, and deliver us from all the assaults of our enemies. Through.

November 26th.

ST. SYLVESTER, ABBOT

Mass Os justi, page F 60, except:

H 140 Other Feasts of November (26)

COLLECT.

M OST merciful God, we humbly pray thee: that, like as when thy blessed Abbot Sylvester was devoutly meditating over an open tomb on the vanity of this life, thou didst vouchsafe to call him thence unto the desert, and to adorn him with a life of wondrous merit; so thou wouldest enable us after his example, to despise all earthly things, and hereafter to rejoice in his eternal fellowship. Through.

Commemorate St. Peter of Alexandria.

SECRET.

WE beseech thee, O Lord: that we, who devoutly offer these gifts unto thy divine majesty, may, by a devout readiness both of body and soul, be made imitators of the pattern of thy blessed Abbot Saint Sylvester; and be enabled worthily to receive the Body and Blood of thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Who liveth and reigneth with thee.

POSTCOMMUNION.

LORD, who hast refreshed us with this heavenly banquet: grant, we pray thee; that we may in such wise follow in the footsteps of thy blessed Abbot Saint Sylvester, that we may with thy Saints obtain an abundant reward in the kingdom of thy glory. Through.

On the same day.

For ST. PETER OF ALEXANDRIA, BISHOP AND MARTYR

Mass Statuit, page F 3.
